6 the end the following:

7 “SEC. 1504. TRANSPARENCY.

8 “(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of the Treasury 9 shall instruct the United States Executive Director at the 10 African Development Bank, the African Development
11 Fund, the Asian Development Bank, the Asian Develop-12 ment Fund, a special fund of the Asian Development 13 Bank, the Inter-American Development Bank, and the 14 European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, and 15 the United States Governor of the International Fund for 16 Agricultural Development to—

17 “(1) continue to make efforts to promote great-18 er transparency regarding the activities of such in-19 stitutions, including project design, project moni-
20 toring and evaluation, project implementation, re-
21 source allocation, and decisionmaking;

22 “(2) support continued efforts to allow in-23 formed participation and input by affected commu-
24 nities, including translation of information on pro-
25 posed projects, providing information through infor-26 mation technology applications, oral briefings, and

1 outreach to and dialogue with community organiza-
2 tions and institutions in affected areas; and

3 “(3) work toward ensuring that—

4 “(A) meetings of the Boards of Directors 5 (or, in the case of the International Fund for 6 Agricultural Development, the Board of Gov-
7 ernors) of their respective institutions are open 8 to the public and the media, except for discus-9 sion of sensitive matters such as individual per-10 sonnel matters;

11 “(B) transcripts of such meetings are 12 available to the public no later than 60 calendar 13 days after the meetings, except for discussion of 14 sensitive matters such as individual personnel 15 matters; and

16 “(C) all key documents that are presented 17 for endorsement or approval by the Board of 18 Directors (or, in the case of the International 19 Fund for Agricultural Development, the Board
20 of Governors) of their respective institutions 21 will be made available to the public at least 15
22 days before consideration by the Board.

23 “(b) STATEMENT OF GOALS.—The Secretary of the 24 Treasury shall instruct the United States Executive Direc-
25 tor at the African Development Bank, the African Devel-

1 opment Fund, the Asian Development Bank, the Asian
2 Development Fund, a special fund of the Asian Develop-3 ment Bank, the Inter-American Development Bank, and 4 the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development,
5 and the United States Governor of the International Fund 6 for Agricultural Development to inform their respective in-7 stitutions of the goals enumerated in subsection (a), in 8 a manner that the Secretary of the Treasury deems appro-9 priate.”.

10 (b) CONGRESSIONAL TESTIMONY REQUIRED.—The 11 United States Executive Directors at the African Develop-
12 ment Bank, the African Development Fund, the Asian De-
13 velopment Bank, the Asian Development Fund, a special
14 fund of the Asian Development Bank, the Inter-American 15 Development Bank, and the European Bank for Recon-
16 struction and Development, and the United States Gov-17 ernor of the International Fund for Agricultural Develop-18 ment shall, at the request of the Committee on Financial 19 Services of the House of Representatives or of the Com-
20 mittee on Foreign Relations of the Senate appear before 21 the committee making the request, on an annual basis, 22 and testify on the efforts undertaken pursuant to section 23 1504 of the International Financial Institutions Act and 24 on other matters relating to any such institution.

25 (c) GRANTS.—

1 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of the Treas-
2 ury may make grants in such amounts as the Sec-
3 retary deems appropriate to any institution specified 4 in paragraph (2) which—

5 (A) has implemented the measures de-
6 scribed in section 1504 of the International Fi-7 nancial Institutions Act; and

8 (B) provides assurances to the Secretary 9 that the institution will use the grant solely for 10 transparency activities.

11 (2) INSTITUTIONS.—The institutions specified
12 in this paragraph are the African Development
13 Bank, the African Development Fund, the Asian De-14 velopment Bank, the Asian Development Fund, a 15 special fund of the Asian Development Bank, the 16 Inter-American Development Bank, the European 17 Bank for Reconstruction and Development, and the 18 International Fund for Agricultural Development.

19 (3) LIMITATIONS ON AUTHORIZATION OF AP-
20 PROPRIATIONS.—For grants under this subsection,
21 there are authorized to be appropriated to the Sec-
22 retary of the Treasury not more than $10,000,000
23 for fiscal year 2002.

24 (d) CONGRESSIONAL PURSUIT OF TRANSPARENCY
25 GOALS IN INTERPARLIAMENTARY DIALOGUES AND MEET-

1 INGS.—The Congress shall pursue the transparency goals
2 described in section 1504 of the International Financial 3 Institutions Act, in all official interparliamentary dia-
4 logues and meetings as appropriate.

5 (e) PURSUIT OF TRANSPARENCY GOALS BY THE SEC-
6 RETARY OF THE TREASURY.—The Secretary of the Treas-7 ury shall submit annually to the Committee on Financial 8 Services of the House of Representatives and the Com-
9 mittee on Foreign Relations of the Senate a written report 10 detailing the steps that have been taken by the United 11 States Executive Directors at the institutions, by the fi-12 nance ministers, and by the institutions, referred to in 13 paragraph (1) to implement the measures described in 14 such section 1504.

15 SEC. 6. GENERAL OBJECTIVES.

16 Title XVI of the International Financial Institutions
17 Act (22 U.S.C. 262p—262p-7) is further amended by 18 adding at the end the following:

19 “SEC. 1627. GENERAL OBJECTIVES.

20 “The Secretary of the Treasury shall instruct the 21 United States Executive Director at the African Develop-
22 ment Bank, the African Development Fund, the Asian De-
23 velopment Bank, the Asian Development Fund, a special
24 fund of the Asian Development Bank, and the Inter-Amer-
25 ican Development Bank, and the United States Governor

1 of the International Fund for Agricultural Development
2 to focus on poverty alleviation, economic growth, increased 3 productivity, sustainable development, environmental pro-
4 tection, labor rights, and an increased focus on edu-5 cation.”.

6 SEC. 7. REQUIREMENTS FOR FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR
7 DAMS.

8 Title XVI of the International Financial Institutions
9 Act (22 U.S.C. 262p—262p-7) is further amended by 10 adding at the end the following:

11 “SEC. 1628. REQUIREMENTS FOR FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR 12 DAMS.

13 “The Secretary of the Treasury shall instruct the 14 United States Executive Directors at the African Develop-
15 ment Bank, the African Development Fund, the Asian De-
16 velopment Bank, the Asian Development Fund, a special
17 fund of the Asian Development Bank, and the Inter-Amer-
18 ican Development Bank, and the United States Governor
19 of the International Fund for Agricultural Development
20 to oppose any loan which provides support for any project 21 that includes a dam unless the project conforms to all of 22 the following terms:

23 “(1) Comprehensive and participatory assess-
24 ments of the energy, water, and flood management 25 needs to be met and different options for meeting

1 these needs are developed before detailed studies are 2 done on any specific project.

3 “(2) Priority is given to demand side manage-4 ment measures and optimizing the performance of 5 existing infrastructure before building any new 6 projects.

7 “(3) No dam is built without full consultation 8 with affected people.

9 “(4) Periodic participatory reviews are done for 10 existing dams to assess issues including dam safety, 11 and the possibility of dam decommissioning.

12 “(5) Mechanisms are developed to provide social 13 compensation for those who are suffering the im-14 pacts of dams, and to restore damaged ecosystems.”.

15 SEC. 8. STUDY BY THE GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE.

16 Within 1 year after the date of the enactment of this 17 Act, the Comptroller General of the United States shall 18 prepare and submit to the Committee on Financial Serv-
19 ices of the House of Representatives and the Committee
20 on Foreign Relations of the Senate a report on the bene-21 fits and costs of the African Development Fund, the Asian 22 Development Fund, a special fund of the Asian Develop-
23 ment Bank, the International Fund for Agricultural De-24 velopment, and the Fund for Special Operations of the

1 Inter-American Development Bank, providing grants in-2 stead of loans.

3 SEC. 9. COMMENDATION.

4 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

5 (1) the African Development Bank and Fund
6 elected Omar Kabbaj, an official of the Ministry of 7 Finance of Morocco, as the new President in 1995;

8 (2) President Kabbaj implemented successful
9 fiscal and managerial reforms, including refocusing
10 the activity of the African Development Fund on 11 poverty alleviation;

12 (3) under the leadership of President Kabbaj,
13 the African Development Bank began to issue yearly 14 portfolio status reports reflecting improved project
15 monitoring and supervision;

16 (4) President Kabbaj successfully emphasized 17 the importance of project post-evaluation in helping 18 the Bank avoid problems identified with earlier 19 funded projects;

20 (5) President Kabbaj has taken a program ap-21 proach where all stakeholders, including the bene-22 ficiaries of the borrower countries, are involved in 23 program design and implementation;

24 (6) President Kabbaj was unanimously ap-25 pointed to a second 5-year term in May 2000; and

1 (7) under the leadership of President Kabbaj,
2 on June 6, 2001, Standard & Poor’s revised the out-
3 look on its AA+ long term issuer ratings of the Af-
4 rican Development Bank to stable from negative.

5 (b) COMMENDATION.—The Congress, on behalf of 6 the people of the United States, commends President
7 Omar Kabbaj for his successful reform efforts as Presi-
8 dent of the African Development Bank and Fund, and en-9 courages his continued efforts at reform.

10 SEC. 10. ACTION BY THE PRESIDENT.

11 Title XVI of the International Financial Institutions
12 Act (22 U.S.C. 262p—262p-7) is further amended by 13 adding at the end the following:

14 “SEC. 1629. ACTION BY THE PRESIDENT.

15 “If the President determines that a foreign country 16 has taken or has committed to take actions that either 17 contribute or do not contribute to efforts of the United 18 States to respond to, deter, or prevent acts of inter-19 national terrorism, the Secretary of the Treasury may, 20 consistent with other applicable law, instruct the United 21 States Executive Director at, or the United States Gov-22 ernor of, the regional multilateral development bank to take 23 the determination into account in considering whether to 24 approve an application of the country for assistance from 25 the institution.”.

10 ment Bank, the African Development Bank, the African 11 Development Fund, the International Fund for Agricul-
12 tural Development, the Inter-American Development
13 Bank, and the European Bank for Reconstruction and De-14 velopment, and the United States Governor of the Inter-15 national Fund for Agricultural Development to use the 16 voice and vote of the United States to oppose the provision 17 by the respective institution of assistance for a project
18 that involves privatization of a government-held industry 19 or sector if—

20 “(1) the privatization transaction is not imple-
21 mented in a transparent manner;

22 “(2) the privatization transaction is not imple-
23 mented in a manner that adequately protects the in-24 terests of workers, small investors, and vulnerable
25 groups in society to the extent that they are affected 26 by the privatization transaction; or

1 “(3) appropriate regulatory regimes have not 2 been established to ensure the proper function of 3 competitive markets in the industry or sector.”.
