

107TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 308

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives regarding the establishment of a National Motivation and Inspiration Day.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

DECEMBER 6, 2001

Mr. GRUCCI submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Government Reform

RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives regarding the establishment of a National Motivation and Inspiration Day.

Whereas motivation and inspiration have played important roles in the greatest achievements of civilized society and are characteristics common to all great leaders;

Whereas both children and adults need motivation and inspiration in order to achieve success and happiness in their lives;

Whereas the inspiration to define goals at school, home, and work and the motivation to achieve those goals is critical to achieving success and happiness;

Whereas all children and young adults need mentors to inspire them to achieve their goals and to motivate them to direct their energies toward positive and constructive activities and goals;

Whereas adults who mentor children and young adults become inspired and motivated themselves;

Whereas a renewed focus on motivation and inspiration is particularly important in the wake of the tragedies of September 11, 2001;

Whereas the beginning of the year is often a time of reflection, planning, and goal setting;

Whereas the establishment of a National Motivation and Inspiration Day would provide an opportunity for the people of the United States to focus on the importance of maintaining motivation and inspiration in their lives; and

Whereas January 2 would be an appropriate day to establish as National Motivation and Inspiration Day: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Rep-
2 resentatives that—

3 (1) a National Motivation and Inspiration Day
4 should be established; and

5 (2) the President should issue a proclamation
6 each year calling on the people of the United States
7 to observe such a day with appropriate programs
8 and activities.
