

107TH CONGRESS
2<sup>D</sup> SESSION

H. RES. 452

Congratulating the Detroit Red Wings for winning the 2002 Stanley Cup Championship.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 20, 2002

Ms. KILPATRICK (for herself, Mr. CONYERS, Mr. BONIOR, Mr. BARCIA, Mr. CAMP, Mr. DINGELL, Mr. EHLERS, Mr. HOEKSTRA, Mr. KILDEE, Mr. KNOLLENBERG, Mr. LEVIN, Ms. RIVERS, Mr. ROGERS of Michigan, Mr. SMITH of Michigan, Mr. STUPAK, and Mr. UPTON) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Government Reform

---

RESOLUTION

Congratulating the Detroit Red Wings for winning the 2002
Stanley Cup Championship.

Whereas on June 13, 2002, the Detroit Red Wings won the 2002 Stanley Cup Hockey Championship;

Whereas the Red Wings were awarded the President's Trophy for finishing 1st overall in the 2001–2002 regular season in the National Hockey League;

Whereas the Red Wings finished on top after 2 months of competitive and grueling play that characterizes the Stanley Cup playoffs;

Whereas the Red Wings defeated last year's Stanley Cup Champions, the Colorado Avalanche, to clinch the Western Conference title;

Whereas the Red Wings faced the Eastern Conference Champion Carolina Hurricanes in the Stanley Cup finals and came away victorious clinching the series 4–1;

Whereas Detroit Head Coach Scotty Bowman has been with the team since 1993, and his dedication and leadership have guided the Red Wings to 3 Stanley Cup Championships, with back to back wins in 1997 and 1998;

Whereas Bowman is retiring from the National Hockey League with an impressive history, setting many coaching records including a record 9 Stanley Cup Championships during his career;

Whereas Bowman and his coaching staff of Dave Lewis and Barry Smith have provided strong leadership and solid coaching, resulting in a hockey team that has been undeniably dominant in regular and postseason play;

Whereas Mike Ilitch has been President and team owner of the Red Wings since 1982, and has shown steadfast support for the team and the city of Detroit;

Whereas Ken Holland, General Manager of the Red Wings, has shown dedication to the Red Wings franchise and has been successful in putting together a team of high quality, winning players;

Whereas many other individuals have contributed to the Red Wings' success, including John Wharton, trainer for the Red Wings, Al Sabotka, Building Operations Manager for Joe Louis Arena, and Bud Lynch, legendary arena announcer for the Red Wings;

Whereas the Red Wings, one of the original 6 teams in the National Hockey League have reached their 76th year in that league, and have previously earned 9 Stanley Cup Championships and numerous other hockey league championships;

Whereas every member of the Red Wings team will have their name engraved on the Stanley Cup, the only trophy in professional sports to acknowledge the contribution of each team member in such a manner;

Whereas the city of Detroit is appropriately called Hockeytown, highlighting the city's loyal fans and their love for the sport;

Whereas the Red Wings have been led on the ice by Captain Steve Yzerman since 1986, who has shown leadership and commitment to the team since his 1983 draft into the National Hockey League;

Whereas the Red Wings' entire field of skilled players contributed to the team's success, including Steve Yzerman, Brett Hull, Igor Larionov, Brendan Shanahan, Luc Robitaille, Sergei Federov, Darren McCarty, Chris Chelios, Niklas Lidstrom, Dominik Hasek, Kris Draper, Jiri Fischer, Jesse Wallin, Uwe Krupp, Mathieu Dandenault, Pavel Datsyuk, Ladislav Kohn, Kirk Maltby, Boyd Devereaux, Fredrik Olausson, Steve Duchesne, Jason Williams, Maxim Kuznetsov, Manny Legace, Jason Elliott, Sean Avery, Jiri Slegr, and Tomas Holmstrom;

Whereas Vladimir Konstantinov continues to be a symbol of inspiration and greatness to the entire Red Wings organization and fans everywhere;

Whereas Dominik Hasek had a record 6 post-season shutouts during the playoffs and led his team to the championship series, clinching his 1st Stanley Cup Championship in his professional career;

Whereas Niklas Lidstrom was named Most Valuable Player of the Stanley Cup playoffs and won the Conn Smythe Trophy, the first European and only the 7th defenseman in the league to win this title; and

Whereas Brett Hull showed skill and finesse on the ice and scored his 100th playoff goal, joining other hockey greats like Wayne Gretzky, Mark Messier, and Jari Kurri as the 4th player to hit the triple digit mark in postseason goals: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2               (1) congratulates—

3                       (A) the Detroit Red Wings for winning the 4               2002 Stanley Cup Championship and for their 5               outstanding performance during the entire
6               2001–2002 National Hockey League season;
7               and

8                       (B) all of the 16 National Hockey League
9               teams that played in the postseason;

10               (2) recognizes the achievements of the Red
11               Wings players, coaches, and support staff who 12               worked hard and were instrumental in bringing the 13               Stanley Cup back to the city of Detroit;

14               (3) commends the Carolina Hurricanes for a 15               valiant performance during the playoff finals and for 16               showing their strength and skill as a team; and

1           (4) directs the Clerk of the House of Represent-
2           atives to transmit an enrolled copy of this resolution
3           to—

4                   (A) the Red Wings players;

5                   (B) Head Coach Scotty Bowman; and

6                   (C) President and team owner Mike Ilitch.

○