IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 18, 2002

Mr. FOSSELLA (for himself, Mrs. MCCARTHY of New York, Mr. HINCHEY, Mr. GRUCCI, Mr. GILMAN, Mr. RANGEL, Mrs. MALONEY of New York, Mr. TOWNS, Mr. NADLER, Mr. KING, Mr. QUINN, Mrs. KELLY, Mr. ACKERMAN, Mr. WEINER, Mr. HOUGHTON, Mr. ISRAEL, Mr. ENGEL, and Mr. BOEHLERT) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Government Reform

RESOLUTION

Expressing gratitude for the 10-month-long World Trade Center cleanup and recovery efforts at the Fresh Kills Landfill on Staten Island, New York, following the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001.

Whereas on September 11, 2001, terrorists hijacked four civilian aircraft, crashing two of them into the towers of the World Trade Center in New York City, causing their destruction;

Whereas these were by far the deadliest terrorist attacks ever launched against the United States, claiming the lives of more than 3,000 innocent people, of whom 2,823 died in New York City;

Whereas the debris from the destruction of the World Trade Center towers was taken to Fresh Kills Landfill on Staten Island, New York, for cleanup and investigation and to continue the recovery of victim remains and effects that could not be performed at the site of the towers' collapse in Manhattan;

Whereas over the 10-month period following September 11, 2001, more than 1,000 workers at the landfill, around the clock, every day, tirelessly and carefully sifted through all 1.62 million tons of debris from the World Trade Center site, searching for remains, personal effects, and evidence from what is now considered to be history's largest crime scene;

Whereas these workers came from 28 New York City, State, and Federal agencies to participate in these cleanup and recovery efforts;

Whereas these workers recovered approximately 20 percent of all the victim remains recovered following the towers' collapse, as well as more than 54,000 personal items, from wedding rings and photographs to driver licenses and keys;

Whereas the remains of 188 of the 1,215 World Trade Center victims whose remains have been identified and returned to their families were recovered at the landfill;

Whereas the resolve of the Nation, and especially of New York City, has been strengthened by the dedication, meticulousness, compassion, and tenderness of those who worked tirelessly, day after day, for 10 months to retrieve every item possible that might give the families and friends of those lost some solace or closure;

Whereas these workers sought to help victims' families by finding something to help bring to rest lost husbands, wives, sons, daughters, mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, lifelong friends, and coworkers, perhaps even those close to the workers themselves;

Whereas the long hours, the hard work, and the dedication of these workers over the 10 months following September 11, 2001, brought hundreds of families some sort of peace, giving them back something personal of lost loved ones, whether through a positive identification of a victim's remains or the return of something so simple and yet so meaningful as a wedding ring, a watch, or a wallet;

Whereas the sacrifice of all these workers and their willingness to give of themselves to help others has shown that the best of what mankind has to offer can come even from the worst mankind can do; and

Whereas on July 15, 2002, the cleanup and recovery operations at Fresh Kills Landfill on Staten Island, New York, came to a somber conclusion: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives thanks
