5 applies equally to all religious, racial, and ethnic 6 groups.

7 (4) When American citizens commit acts of vio-8 lence against those who are, or are perceived to be,

12 of harassment that many Muslim women are chang-
13 ing the way they dress to avoid becoming targets.

14 (6) Many Arab Americans and Muslim Ameri-
15 cans have acted heroically during the attacks on the 16 United States, including Mohammed Salman
17 Hamdani, a 23-year-old New Yorker of Pakistani 18 descent, who is believed to have gone to the World

25 Americans, and Americans from South Asia, must

1 be protected, and that every effort must be taken to 2 preserve their safety;

3 (2) any acts of violence or discrimination

4 TITLE III—INTERNATIONAL
5 MONEY LAUNDERING ABATE-
6 MENT AND ANTI-TERRORIST
7 FINANCING ACT OF 2001.

8 SEC. 301. SHORT TITLE.

9 This title may be cited as the “International Money
10 Laundering Abatement and Anti-Terrorist Financing Act 11 of 2001”.

12 SEC. 302. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

13 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

14 (1) money laundering, estimated by the Inter-
15 national Monetary Fund to amount to between 2
16 and 5 percent of global gross domestic product, 17 which is at least $600,000,000,000 annually, pro-18 vides the financial fuel that permits transnational 19 criminal enterprises to conduct and expand their op-
20 erations to the detriment of the safety and security
21 of American citizens;

22 (2) money laundering, and the defects in finan-23 cial transparency on which money launderers rely, 24 are critical to the financing of global terrorism and 25 the provision of funds for terrorist attacks;

1           (3) money launderers subvert legitimate finan-
2           cial mechanisms and banking relationships by using 3           them as protective covering for the movement of 4           criminal proceeds and the financing of crime and 5           terrorism, and, by so doing, can threaten the safety
6           of United States citizens and undermine the integ-7           rity of United States financial institutions and of the 8           global financial and trading systems upon which 9           prosperity and growth depend;

10          (4) certain jurisdictions outside of the United 11          States that offer “offshore” banking and related fa-12          cilities designed to provide anonymity, coupled with 13          special tax advantages and weak financial super-14          visory and enforcement regimes, provide essential 15          tools to disguise ownership and movement of crimi-
16          nal funds, derived from, or used to commit, offenses
17          ranging from narcotics trafficking, terrorism, arms
18          smuggling, and trafficking in human beings, to fi-
19          nancial frauds that prey on law-abiding citizens;

20          (5) transactions involving such offshore juris-
21          dictions make it difficult for law enforcement offi-
22          cials and regulators to follow the trail of money 23          earned by criminals, organized international criminal 24          enterprises, and global terrorist organizations;

1           (6) correspondent banking facilities are one of 2 the banking mechanisms susceptible in some cir-3 cumstances to manipulation by foreign banks to per-4 mit the laundering of funds by hiding the identity of 5 real parties in interest to financial transactions;

6           (7) private banking services can be susceptible
7 to manipulation by money launderers, for example 8 corrupt foreign government officials, particularly if 9 those services include the creation of offshore ac-
10 counts and facilities for large personal funds trans-11 fers to channel funds into accounts around the 12 globe;

13           (8) United States anti-money laundering efforts 14 are impeded by outmoded and inadequate statutory 15 provisions that make investigations, prosecutions,
16 and forfeitures more difficult, particularly in cases 17 in which money laundering involves foreign persons, 18 foreign banks, or foreign countries;

19           (9) the ability to mount effective counter-meas-
20 ures to international money launderers requires na-
21 tional, as well as bilateral and multilateral action, 22 using tools specially designed for that effort; and

23           (10) the Basle Committee on Banking Regula-24 tion and Supervisory Practices and the Financial 25 Action Task Force on Money Laundering, of both of

1 which the United States is a member, have each
2 adopted international anti-money laundering prin-
3 ciples and recommendations.

4 (b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this title are—

5 (1) to increase the strength of United States
6 measures to prevent, detect, and prosecute inter-
7 national money laundering and the financing of ter-
8 rorism;

9 (2) to ensure that—

10 (A) banking transactions and financial re-
11 lationships and the conduct of such transactions
12 and relationships, do not contravene the pur-
13 poses of subchapter II of chapter 53 of title 31, 14 United States Code, section 21 of the Federal 15 Deposit Insurance Act, or chapter 2 of title I
16 of Public Law 91–508 (84 Stat. 1116), or fa-17 cilitate the evasion of any such provision; and 18 (B) the purposes of such provisions of law

19 continue to be fulfilled, and that such provisions 20 of law are effectively and efficiently adminis-
21 tered;

22 (3) to strengthen the provisions put into place
23 by the Money Laundering Control Act of 1986 (18 24 U.S.C. 981 note), especially with respect to crimes

1 by non-United States nationals and foreign financial 2 institutions;

3 (4) to provide a clear national mandate for sub-
4 jecting to special scrutiny those foreign jurisdictions, 5 financial institutions operating outside of the United 6 States, and classes of international transactions that 7 pose particular, identifiable opportunities for crimi-
8 nal abuse;

9 (5) to provide the Secretary of the Treasury (in 10 this title referred to as the “Secretary”) with broad 11 discretion, subject to the safeguards provided by the 12 Administrative Procedures Act under title 5, United 13 States Code, to take measures tailored to the par-
14 ticular money laundering problems presented by spe-
15 cific foreign jurisdictions, financial institutions oper-16 ating outside of the United States, and classes of 17 international transactions;

18 (6) to ensure that the employment of such 19 measures by the Secretary permits appropriate op-
20 portunity for comment by affected financial institu-
21 tions;

22 (7) to provide guidance to domestic financial in-23 stitutions on particular foreign jurisdictions, finan-24 cial institutions operating outside of the United 25 States, and classes of international transactions that

1 are of primary money laundering concern to the 2 United States Government;

3 (8) to ensure that the forfeiture of any assets 4 in connection with the anti-terrorist efforts of the 5 United States permits for adequate challenge con-
6 sistent with providing due process rights;

7 (9) to clarify the terms of the safe harbor from 8 civil liability for filing suspicious activity reports;

9 (10) to strengthen the authority of the Sec-10 retary to issue and administer geographic targeting 11 orders, and to clarify that violations of such orders
12 or any other requirement imposed under the author-
13 ity contained in chapter 2 of title I of Public Law 14 91-508 and subchapters II and III of chapter 53 of 15 title 31, United States Code, may result in criminal 16 and civil penalties;

17 (11) to ensure that all appropriate elements of 18 the financial services industry are subject to appro-
19 priate requirements to report potential money laun-20 dering transactions to proper authorities, and that 21 jurisdictional disputes do not hinder examination of 22 compliance by financial institutions with relevant re-
23 porting requirements;

1           (12) to fix responsibility for high level coordina-
2           tion of the anti-money laundering efforts of the De-3           partment of the Treasury;

4           (13) to strengthen the ability of financial insti-
5           tutions to maintain the integrity of their employee 6           population; and

7           (14) to strengthen measures to prevent the use
8           of the United States financial system for personal 9           gain by corrupt foreign officials and to facilitate the 10          repatriation of any stolen assets to the citizens of 11          countries to whom such assets belong.

15          day of fiscal year 2005, the provisions of this title and 16          the amendments made by this title shall terminate if the 17          Congress enacts a joint resolution, the text after the re-18          solving clause of which is as follows: “That provisions of 19          the International Money Laundering Abatement and Anti-20          Terrorist Financing Act of 2001, and the amendments 21          made thereby, shall no longer have the force of law.”.

2 and

3 (B) whether it remains reasonable and effi-

18 the Secretary regarding the agency or agencies to 20 plete with a budgetary and resources plan for expe-

17 investigations or proceedings, and that, given 18 the threat posed to the security of the Nation 19 on and after the terrorist attacks against the 20 United States on September 11, 2001, such 21 records may also have a high degree of useful-22 ness in the conduct of intelligence or counter-23 intelligence activities, including analysis, to pro-
24 tect against domestic and international ter-25 rorism; and

1           “(B) microfilm or other reproductions and 13          tigations or proceedings, recognizes that, given the 14          threat posed to the security of the Nation on and 15          after the terrorist attacks against the United States 16          on September 11, 2001, such records may also have 17          a high degree of usefulness in the conduct of intel-18          ligence or counterintelligence activities, including 19          analysis, to protect against international terrorism.”.

20          (e) AMENDMENT RELATING TO THE PURPOSES OF 19 agency authorized to conduct investigations of, or intel-20 ligence or counterintelligence activities or analysis related 21 to, international terrorism when presented with a written

24 tigation, activity or analysis.

1       “(b) FORM OF CERTIFICATION.—The certification
2 described in subsection (a) shall be signed by the Sec-

9 (a).

10       “(d) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in section

14       “(e) SAFE HARBOR.—Notwithstanding any other

21 under this subchapter, the constitution of any State, or 22 any law or regulation of any State or any political subdivi-23 sion of any State.”.

1 SEC. 341. REPORTING OF SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITIES BY
2 HAWALA AND OTHER UNDERGROUND BANK-
3 ING SYSTEMS.

4 (a) DEFINITION FOR SUBCHAPTER.—Section
5 5312(a)(2)(R) of title 31, United States Code, is amended

5 an informal value transfer banking system or network of 6 people facilitating the transfer of value domestically or 7 internationally outside of the conventional financial insti-8 tutions system.”.

9 (e) REPORT.—Not later than 1 year after the date

16 dering and regulatory controls relating to underground
17 money movement and banking systems, such as the system
18 referred to as ‘hawala’, including whether the threshold

21 in the case of such systems.

22 SEC. 342. USE OF AUTHORITY OF UNITED STATES EXECU-
23 TIVE DIRECTORS.

24 (a) ACTION BY THE PRESIDENT.—If the President 25 determines that a particular foreign country has taken or

1 has committed to take actions that contribute to efforts
2 of the United States to respond to, deter, or prevent acts
3 of international terrorism, the Secretary of the Treasury 4 may, consistent with other applicable provisions of law, in-5 struct the United States Executive Director of each inter-6 national financial institution to use the voice and vote of 7 the Executive Director to support any loan or other utili-
8 zation of the funds of respective institutions for such coun-9 try, or any public or private entity within such country.

10 (b) USE OF VOICE AND VOTE.—The Secretary of the 11 Treasury may instruct the United States Executive Direc-
12 tor of each international financial institution to aggres-13 sively use the voice and vote of the Executive Director to 14 require an auditing of disbursements at such institutions
15 to ensure that no funds are paid to persons who commit, 16 threaten to commit, or support terrorism.

17 (c) DEFINITION.—For purposes of this section, the 18 term “international financial institution” means an insti-

21 Subtitle C—Currency Crimes

22 SEC. 351. BULK CASH SMUGGLING.

23 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—

24 (1) effective enforcement of the currency re-25 porting requirements of chapter 53 of title 31,

1 United States Code (commonly referred to as the 2 Bank Secrecy Act), and the regulations promulgated 3 thereunder, has forced drug dealers and other crimi-4 nals engaged in cash-based businesses to avoid using 5 traditional financial institutions;

6 (2) in their effort to avoid using traditional fi-
7 nancial institutions, drug dealers, and other crimi-
8 nals are forced to move large quantities of currency 9 in bulk form to and through the airports, border 10 crossings, and other ports of entry where it can be 11 smuggled out of the United States and placed in a 12 foreign financial institution or sold on the black 13 market;

14 (3) the transportation and smuggling of cash in 15 bulk form may, at the time of enactment of this Act, 16 be the most common form of money laundering, and 17 the movement of large sums of cash is one of the 18 most reliable warning signs of drug trafficking, ter-
19 rorism, money laundering, racketeering, tax evasion, 20 and similar crimes;

21 (4) the intentional transportation into or out of 22 the United States of large amounts of currency or 23 monetary instruments, in a manner designed to cir-
24 cumvent the mandatory reporting provisions of chap-
25 ter 53 of title 31, United States Code, is the equiva-

1       lent of, and creates the same harm as, the smug-
2       gling of goods;

3           (5) the arrest and prosecution of bulk cash
4       smugglers is an important part of law enforcement's 5       effort to stop the laundering of criminal proceeds, 6       but the couriers who attempt to smuggle the cash
7       out of the United States are typically low-level em-
8       ployees of large criminal organizations, and are eas-9       ily replaced, and therefore only the confiscation of 10      the smuggled bulk cash can effectively break the 11      cycle of criminal activity of which the laundering of 12      bulk cash is a critical part;

13          (6) the penalties for violations of the currency
14      reporting requirements of the chapter 53 of title 31, 15      United States Code, are insufficient to provide a de-16      terrent to the laundering of criminal proceeds;

17          (7) because the only criminal violation under 18      Federal law before the date of enactment of this Act
19      was a reporting offense, the law does not adequately 20      provide for the confiscation of smuggled currency;
21      and

22          (8) if the smuggling of bulk cash were itself an 23      offense, the cash could be confiscated as the corpus 24      delicti of the smuggling offense.

25      (b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this section are—

1           (1) to make the act of smuggling bulk cash
2 itself a criminal offense;

3           (2) to authorize forfeiture of any cash or instru-
4 ments of the smuggling offense;

5           (3) to emphasize the seriousness of the act of 6 bulk cash smuggling; and 7           (4) to prescribe guidelines for determining the 8 amount of property subject to such forfeiture in var-

9 ious situations.

10       (c) BULK CASH SMUGGLING OFFENSE.—

11           (1) IN GENERAL.—Subchapter II of chapter 53
12 of title 31, United States Code, is amended by add-13 ing at the end the following:

14       “§ 5331. Bulk cash smuggling

15           “(a) CRIMINAL OFFENSE.—

16           “(1) IN GENERAL.—Whoever, with the intent to 17 evade a currency reporting requirement under sec-18 tion 5316, knowingly conceals more than $10,000 in 19 currency or other monetary instruments on his or 20 her person or in any conveyance, article of luggage, 21 merchandise, or other container, and transports or 22 transfers or attempts to transport or transfer the 23 currency or monetary instruments from a place with-24 in the United States to a place outside of the United 25 States, or from a place outside of the United States

1 to a place within the United States, shall be guilty
2 of a currency smuggling offense and subject to pun-3 ishment under subsection (b).

4 “(b) PENALTIES.—

5 “(1) PRISON TERM.—A person convicted of a 6 currency smuggling offense under subsection (a), or 7 a conspiracy to commit such an offense, shall be im-
8 prisoned for not more than 5 years.

9 “(2) FORFEITURE.—

10 “(A) IN GENERAL.—In addition to a pris-
11 on term under paragraph (1), the court, in im-
12 posing sentence, shall order that the defendant
13 forfeit to the United States any property, real 14 or personal, involved in the offense, and any 15 property traceable to such property, subject to 16 subsection (d).

17 “(B) APPLICABILITY OF OTHER LAWS.—

18 The seizure, restraint, and forfeiture of prop-
19 erty under this section shall be governed by sec-
20 tion 413 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 21 U.S.C. 853). If the property subject to for-22 feiture is unavailable, and the defendant has no
23 substitute property that may be forfeited pursu-
24 ant to section 413(p) of that Act, the court 25 shall enter a personal money judgment against

1           the defendant in an amount equal to the value
2           of the unavailable property.

3           “(c) SEIZURE OF SMUGGLING CASH.—

4           “(1) IN GENERAL.—Any property involved in a 5           violation of subsection (a), or a conspiracy to com-
6           mit such violation, and any property traceable there-7           to, may be seized and, subject to subsection (d), for-8           feited to the United States.

9           “(2) APPLICABLE PROCEDURES.—A seizure and 10          forfeiture under this subsection shall be governed by 11          the procedures governing civil forfeitures under sec-
12          tion 981(a)(1)(A) of title 18, United States Code.

13          “(d) PROPORTIONALITY OF FORFEITURE.—

14          “(1) MITIGATION.—Upon a showing by the 15          property owner by a preponderance of the evidence 16          that the currency or monetary instruments involved 17          in the offense giving rise to the forfeiture were de-18          rived from a legitimate source and were intended for 19          a lawful purpose, the court shall reduce the for-20          feiture to the maximum amount that is not grossly 21          disproportional to the gravity of the offense.

22          “(2) CONSIDERATIONS.—In determining the 23          amount of the forfeiture under paragraph (1), the 24          court shall consider all aggravating and mitigating

1 facts and circumstances that have a bearing on the 2 gravity of the offense, including—

3 “(A) the value of the currency or other 4 monetary instruments involved in the offense;

5 “(B) efforts by the person committing the 6 offense to structure currency transactions, con-7 ceal property, or otherwise obstruct justice; and 8 “(C) whether the offense is part of a pat-

9 tern of repeated violations of Federal law.

10 “(e) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—For purposes of 11 subsections (b) and (c), any currency or other monetary 12 instrument that is concealed or intended to be concealed 13 in violation of subsection (a) or a conspiracy to commit 14 such violation, any article, container, or conveyance used 15 or intended to be used to conceal or transport the currency
16 or other monetary instrument, and any other property 17 used or intended to be used to facilitate the offense, shall 18 be considered property involved in the offense.”.

19 (2) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sections
20 for chapter 53 of title 31, United States Code, is amended 21 by inserting after the item relating to section 5330 the 22 following new item:

“5331. Bulk cash smuggling.”.

23 (d) CURRENCY REPORTING VIOLATIONS.—Section 24 5317(c) of title 31, United States Code, is amended to 25 read as follows:

1 “(c) FORFEITURE OF PROPERTY.—

2 “(1) IN GENERAL.—

3 “(A) CRIMINAL FORFEITURE.—The court,
4 in imposing sentence for any violation of section 5 5313, 5316, or 5324, or any conspiracy to com-6 mit such violation, shall order the defendant to 7 forfeit all property, real or personal, involved in 8 the offense and any property traceable thereto.

9 “(B) APPLICABLE PROCEDURES.—Forfeit-10 ures under this paragraph shall be governed by 11 the procedures set forth in section 413 of the 12 Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 853), 13 and the guidelines set forth in paragraph (3) of 14 this subsection.

15 “(2) CIVIL FORFEITURE.—Any property in-16 volved in a violation of section 5313, 5316, or 5324, 17 or any conspiracy to commit such violation, and any 18 property traceable thereto, may be seized and, sub-
19 ject to paragraph (3), forfeited to the United States 20 in accordance with the procedures governing civil 21 forfeitures in money laundering cases pursuant to 22 section 981(a)(1)(A) of title 18, United States Code.

23 “(3) MITIGATION.—In a forfeiture case under 24 this subsection, upon a showing by the property 25 owner by a preponderance of the evidence that any

1 currency or monetary instruments involved in the of-2 fense giving rise to the forfeiture were derived from 3 a legitimate source, and were intended for a lawful 4 purpose, the court shall reduce the forfeiture to the 5 maximum amount that is not grossly disproportional 6 to the gravity of the offense. In determining the 7 amount of the forfeiture, the court shall consider all 8 aggravating and mitigating facts and circumstances 9 that have a bearing on the gravity of the offense.
10 Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, 11 the following: the value of the currency or other

3   SEC. 361. CORRUPTION OF FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS AND 4                           RULING ELITES.

5           It is the sense of Congress that, in deliberations be-6   tween the United States Government and any other coun-7   try on money laundering and corruption issues, the United 8   States Government should—

9           (1) emphasize an approach that addresses not 10   only the laundering of the proceeds of traditional 11   criminal activity but also the increasingly endemic
12   problem of governmental corruption and the corrup-
13   tion of ruling elites;

14          (2) encourage the enactment and enforcement
15   of laws in such country to prevent money laundering 16   and systemic corruption;

17          (3) make clear that the United States will take 18   all steps necessary to identify the proceeds of foreign 19   government corruption which have been deposited in 20   United States financial institutions and return such 21   proceeds to the citizens of the country to whom such 22   assets belong; and

23          (4) advance policies and measures to promote 24   good government and to prevent and reduce corrup-25   tion and money laundering, including through in-

1 instructions to the United States Executive Director of 2 each international financial institution (as defined in 3 section 1701(c) of the International Financial Insti-
4 tutions Act) to advocate such policies as a system-5 atic element of economic reform programs and ad-
6 vice to member governments.

7 SEC. 362. SUPPORT FOR THE FINANCIAL ACTION TASK
8 FORCE ON MONEY LAUNDERING.

9 It is the sense of Congress that—

10 (1) the United States should continue to ac-
11 tively and publicly support the objectives of the Fi-
12 nancial Action Task Force on Money Laundering 13 (hereafter in this section referred to as the 14 “FATF”) with regard to combating international 15 money laundering;

16 (2) the FATF should identify noncooperative
17 jurisdictions in as expeditious a manner as possible
18 and publicly release a list directly naming those ju-19 risdictions identified;

20 (3) the United States should support the public
21 release of the list naming noncooperative jurisdic-
22 tions identified by the FATF;

23 (4) the United States should encourage the 24 adoption of the necessary international action to en-

1        courage compliance by the identified noncooperative 2        jurisdictions; and

3            (5) the United States should take the necessary
4        countermeasures to protect the United States econ-5        omy against money of unlawful origin and encourage 6        other nations to do the same.

7        SEC. 363. TERRORIST FUNDING THROUGH MONEY LAUN-

10       and negotiations between the United States Government 11       and any other country regarding financial, economic, as-12       sistance, or defense issues, the United States should en-
13       courage such other country—

14            (1) to take actions which would identify and 15        prevent the transmittal of funds to and from terror-16        ists and terrorist organizations; and 17            (2) to engage in bilateral and multilateral co-

18        operation with the United States and other countries
19        to identify suspected terrorists, terrorist organiza-
20        tions, and persons supplying funds to and receiving 21        funds from terrorists and terrorist organizations.
