CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Congress that States should require candidates for driver's licenses to demonstrate an ability to exercise greatly increased caution when driving in the proximity of a potentially visually impaired individual.

Whereas many people in the United States who are blind or otherwise visually impaired have the ability to travel throughout their communities without assistance;

Whereas visually impaired individuals encounter hazards that a pedestrian with average vision could easily avoid, many of which involve crossing streets and roadways;

Whereas the white cane and guide dog should be generally recognized as aids to mobility for visually impaired individuals;

Whereas many States do not require candidates for driver's licenses to associate the use of the white cane or guide dog with potentially visually impaired individuals; and

Whereas visually impaired individuals have had their white canes and guide dogs run over by motor vehicles, have been struck by the side-view mirrors of motor vehicles, and have suffered serious personal injury and death as the result of being hit by motor vehicles: Now, therefore, be it

1        Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
 2 concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that each
 3 State should require any candidate for a driver's license
 4 in such State to demonstrate, as a condition of obtaining
 5 a driver's license, an ability to associate the use of the
 6 white cane and guide dog with visually impaired individ-
 7 uals and to exercise greatly increased caution when driving
 8 in proximity to a potentially visually impaired individual.

Passed the House of Representatives June 22, 2004.

Attest:

JEFF TRANDAHL,
