16 ratio of—

17 “(i) the total population of a State 18 to—

19 “(ii) the total population of the 20 United States; and

21 “(B) 50 percent of such remaining amount
22 to each State in amounts that bear the same
23 ratio of—

24 “(i) the average annual number of 25 part 1 violent crimes of the Uniform Crime

8 “(2) MINIMUM ALLOCATION.—If carrying out 9 paragraph (1) would result in any State receiving an 10 allocation less than 0.25 percent of the total amount 11 (in this paragraph referred to as a “minimum allo-12 cation State”), then paragraph (1), as so carried

19 be made available to units of local government by 20 the State for the purposes described in section 501.

21           “(d) ALLOCATIONS TO LOCAL GOVERNMENTS.—

22           “(1) IN GENERAL.—Of the amounts allocated 23 under subsection (b)(2), grants for the purposes de-

11 violent crimes reported by such unit to the Fed-
12 eral Bureau of Investigation for the 3 most re-
13 cent calendar years for which such data is avail-

16 in the State in which the unit is located to the 17 Federal Bureau of Investigation for such years.

18 “(B) TRANSITIONAL RULE.—Notwith-
19 standing subparagraph (A), for fiscal years
20 2005, 2006, and 2007, the Attorney General 21 shall allocate the local amount to units of local 22 government in the same manner that, under the 23 Local Government Law Enforcement Block
24 Grants program in effect immediately before 25 the date of the enactment of this section, the

1 reserved amount was allocated among reporting
2 and nonreporting units of local government.

3 “(3) ANNEXED UNITS.—If a unit of local gov-4 ernment in the State has been annexed since the 4 geographically constituent unit of local 5 government exceeds 400 percent of the 8 then in order to qualify for payment under this sub-

13      not exceed their total expenditures on such services.

14              “(2) ALLOCATIONS UNDER $10,000.—If the allo-
15      cation under this section to a unit of local govern-
16      ment is less than $10,000 for any fiscal year, the di-

19      distributed (for the purposes described in section 20      501) among State police departments that provide 21      criminal justice services to units of local government 22      and units of local government whose allocation under

9 grant period will not be required, or that a State will be 10 unable to qualify or receive funds under this subpart, or 11 that a State chooses not to participate in the program es-
12 tablished under this subpart, then such State’s allocation
13 (or portion thereof) shall be awarded by the Attorney Gen-
14 eral to units of local government, or combinations thereof,
15 within such State, giving priority to those jurisdictions
16 with the highest annual number of part 1 violent crimes 17 of the Uniform Crime Reports reported by the unit of local

24 nedy and Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy con-25 vened 244 members of the National, State, and local

1 private bar to provide legal representation to remedy
2 racial discrimination against minority communities;

3 (2) without President Kennedy's vision for ra-4 cial justice, the bar would have remained silent in 5 the face of vocal resistance by Southern State legis-
6 latures against desegregation;

7 (3) for more than 4 decades, the Lawyers'
8 Committee for Civil Rights Under Law (hereinafter 9 in this section referred to as "Lawyers' Committee") 10 has worked to advance the civil rights of African-11 Americans and other racial and ethnic minority com-
12 munities in the areas of environmental protection, 13 employment, affirmative action, fair housing, edu-
14 cation, and voting;

15 (4) the Lawyers' Committee operated an office
16 in Jackson, Mississippi, from 1964 through 1984, 17 which filed numerous cases that transformed the 18 State, including the defense of civil rights dem-
19 onstrators, desegregation of many public institutions 20 and workforces, reformation of the notorious 21 Parchman Prison, and numerous voting rights cases 22 resulting in a revolution in the number of African-23 American elected officials in State positions and 24 Congress;

1           (5) the Lawyers' Committee fought for passage
2 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Voting Rights Act
3 of 1965 and the 1982 Amendments, Fair Housing 4 Act of 1988, Civil Rights Act of 1991, and National 5 Voter Registration Act of 1993;

6           (6) the Lawyers' Committee secured a land-
7 mark, unanimous United States Supreme Court de-8 cision that strengthened first amendment protections
9 for peaceful political boycotts in Claiborne Hardware
10 Co. v. NAACP;

11           (7) the Lawyers' Committee created a police
12 community relations program in 1965 that recruited 13 African-Americans for law enforcement positions and 14 eased tensions between law enforcement officers and 15 African-American communities;

16           (8) the Lawyers' Committee defended the stu-
17 dents of Jackson State University following police 18 shootings upon a peaceful demonstration that killed 19 2 persons and wounded a dozen others;

20           (9) the Lawyers' Committee operated its Cairo,
21 Illinois office from 1969 through 1972 in response 22 to intense racial unrest and police brutality in the 23 city;

24           (10) the Lawyers' Committee recruited attor-
25 neys from the local bar to represent African-Ameri-

1 cans who could not obtain legal counsel during the 2 1960s;

3 (11) the Lawyers' Committee transformed Afri-
4 can-American voting strength by litigating critical
5 cases throughout the South to oppose archaic voter 6 discrimination laws, poll taxes, and literacy tests
7 that prevented African-Americans from registering 8 and voting;

9 (12) the Lawyers' Committee launched the 10 Urban Areas Project in 1968, which resulted in local 11 independent Lawyers' Committee offices in Philadel-
12 phia, Los Angeles, Boston, Chicago, San Francisco,
13 Denver, San Antonio, and Washington, D.C.;

14 (13) the Lawyers' Committee developed the 15 Southern African Project, which provided legal as-16 sistance to thousands of political detainees and tech-
17 nical assistance in resisting pro-apartheid legislation
18 for more than 20 years and which monitored elec-
19 tions in Namibia in 1989 and elections in South Af-
20 rica in 1994;

21 (14) the Lawyers' Committee led the defense of 22 Executive Order 11246 when it was attacked during 23 the Reagan Administration in the 1980s;

24 (15) the Lawyers' Committee litigated a series
25 of cases from the 1970s to the present that deseg-

1 regated police and fire departments throughout the 2 Nation, notably in the State of Mississippi and in 3 Miami, Birmingham, Cleveland, Nassau County,
4 Buffalo, and Houston;

5 (16) in Givens v. Hamlet Estates, the Lawyers'
6 Committee acquired the first seizure order in a fair
7 housing case that led to the exposure of a decade old 8 racial coding system that denied apartments to 9 6,000 African-Americans and Hispanics in Miami, 10 Florida;

11 (17) the Lawyers' Committee obtained victories
12 in 3 cases before the United States Supreme Court 13 in 1996–1997 involving the Voting Rights Act, in-14 cluding Young v. Fordice, Lawyer v. United States, 15 and King v. State Board of Elections;

16 (18) the Lawyers' Committee persuaded the 17 Environmental Protection Agency to relocate 358 18 African-American families living around the 19 Escambia toxic Superfund site in Pensacola, Flor-20 ida;

21 (19) the Lawyers' Committee coordinated a
22 Church Burning Project in the 1990s to provide free 23 legal assistance to churches that were destroyed dur-
24 ing a bitter rampage of racially motivated church
25 burnings;

1           (20) in Washington Park Land Committee v.
2           Portsmouth, the Lawyers’ Committee secured a case
3           settlement that led to the relocation of 185 families
4           from toxic lead poisoned segregated public housing
5           in Portsmouth, Virginia, to new integrated housing 6           opportunities; and

7           (21) June 21, 2003 is the 40th anniversary of 8           the founding of the Lawyers’ Committee.

9           (b) RECOGNITION.—Pursuant to the findings in sub-
10          section (a), Congress—

11           (1) recognizes that these accomplishments of 12           the Lawyers’ Committee reflect the tremendous com-
13           mitment to implementing justice that President
14           Kennedy embarked on 40 years ago;

15           (2) recognizes the achievements of the Lawyers’
16           Committee, as its staff and pro bono attorneys, cli-17           ents, and friends commemorate and celebrate its 18           40th anniversary; and

19           (3) supports the designation of an appropriate
20           day as “Equal Justice Day” in honor of the dedi-21           cated work of the Lawyers’ Committee and the 22           many hours of pro bono service offered by lawyers
23           and law firms throughout this country to secure jus-

1 TITLE IV—KOBY MANDELL ACT*2 SEC. 401. SHORT TITLE.

3 This title may be cited as the “Koby Mandell Act of 4 2003”.

5 SEC. 402. FINDINGS.

6 The Congress finds the following:

7 (1) Numerous American citizens have been 8 murdered or maimed by terrorists around the world.

9 (2) Some American citizens who have been vic-10 tims of terrorism overseas have not received from 11 the United States Government services equal to 12 those received by other such victims of overseas ter-13 rorism.

14 (3) The United States Government has not de-15 voted adequate efforts or resources to the apprehen-
16 sion of terrorists who have harmed American citi-
17 zens overseas. Monetary rewards for information 18 leading to the capture of terrorists overseas, which 19 the government advertises in regions where the ter-
20 rorists are believed to be hiding, have not been ad-21 vertised adequately.

22 (4) To remedy these and related problems, an 23 office should be established within the Department
24 of Justice for the purpose of ensuring equally vig-25 orous efforts to capture all terrorists who have

1       harmed American citizens overseas and equal treat-
2       ment for all American victims of overseas terrorism.

8                   ALL AMERICAN VICTIMS OF OVERSEAS TER-
9                   RORISM ARE TREATED EQUALLY.

10       The President shall establish within the Department
11 of Justice an office (hereinafter in this title the “Office”)
12 to carry out the following activities:

13           (1) The Office shall create the Bringing Terror-14       ists to Justice program, and in so doing will ensure 15       that—

16                   (A) rewards are offered to capture all ter-
17       rorists involved in harming American citizens 18       overseas, regardless of the terrorists’ country of 19       origin or residence;

20                   (B) such rewards are prominently adver-
21       tised in the mass media and public sites in all 22       countries or regions where such terrorists re-
23       side;

1           (C) the names and photographs and sus-
2           pects in all such cases are included on a web 3           site; and

4           (D) the names of the specific organizations
5           claiming responsibility for terrorist attacks
6           mentioned on the site are included in the de-7           scriptions of those attacks.

8           (2) The Office shall establish and administer a 9           program which will provide notification for American 10          victims of overseas terrorism or their immediate 11          family to update them on the status of efforts to 12          capture the terrorists who harmed them.

13          (3) The Office shall work with the other United 14          States government agencies to expand legal restric-15          tions on the ability of murderers to reap profits from 16          books or movies concerning their crimes—the “Son 17          of Sam” laws that currently exist in many States, so 18          as to ensure that terrorists who harm American citi-19          zens overseas are unable to profit from book or 20          movie sales in the United States.

21          (4) The Office shall endeavor to determine if 22          terrorists who have harmed American citizens over-
23          seas are serving in their local police or security 24          forces. Whenever it is found that terrorists who have 25          harmed American citizens overseas are serving in

1 their local police or security forces, the Office shall 2 alert those United States Government agencies in-3 volved in providing assistance, directly or indirectly,
4 to those forces, and shall request of those agencies
5 that all such assistance be halted until the aforemen-
6 tioned terrorists are removed from their positions.

7 (5) The Office shall undertake a comprehensive 8 assessment of the pattern of United States indict-9 ments and prosecution of terrorists who have 10 harmed American citizens overseas, in order to de-11 termine the reasons for the absence of indictments
12 of terrorists residing in some regions. The Office's 13 assessment shall then be provided to the Attorney 14 General, together with its recommendations.

15 (6) The Office shall endeavor to monitor public 16 actions by governments and regimes overseas per-17 taining to terrorists who have harmed American citi-
18 zens, such as naming of schools, streets, or other 19 public institutions or sites after such terrorists. In 20 such instances, the Office shall encourage other 21 United States Government agencies to halt their 22 provision of assistance, directly or indirectly, to 23 those institutions.

24 (7) In cases where terrorists who have harmed
25 Americans overseas, and are subsequently released

1 from incarceration abroad, are eligible for further
2 prosecution in the United States, the Office shall co-3 ordinate with other government agencies to seek the 4 transfer of those terrorists to the United States for 5 further prosecution.

6 SEC. 404. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.
