A BILL

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3   SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.

4       (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 5       “Social Security Number Misuse Prevention Act”.

6       (b) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents of 7       this Act is as follows:

Sec. 1. Short title; table of contents.

- Sec. 2. Findings.
- Sec. 3. Prohibition of the display, sale, or purchase of social security numbers.
- Sec. 4. Application of prohibition of the display, sale, or purchase of social security numbers to public records.
- Sec. 5. Rulemaking authority of the Attorney General.
- Sec. 6. Treatment of social security numbers on government documents.
- Sec. 7. Limits on personal disclosure of a social security number for consumer transactions.
- Sec. 8. Extension of civil monetary penalties for misuse of a social security number.
- Sec. 9. Criminal penalties for the misuse of a social security number.
- Sec. 10. Civil actions and civil penalties.
- Sec. 11. Federal injunctive authority.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) The inappropriate display, sale, or purchase
 4 of social security numbers has contributed to a
 5 growing range of illegal activities, including fraud,
 6 identity theft, and, in some cases, stalking and other
 7 violent crimes.

8 (2) While financial institutions, health care pro-
 9 viders, and other entities have often used social se-
 10 curity numbers to confirm the identity of an indi-
 11 vidual, the general display to the public, sale, or pur-
 12 chase of these numbers has been used to commit
 13 crimes, and also can result in serious invasions of in-
 14 dividual privacy.

15 (3) The Federal Government requires virtually
 16 every individual in the United States to obtain and
 17 maintain a social security number in order to pay
 18 taxes, to qualify for social security benefits, or to 19 seek employment. An unintended consequence of

1       these requirements is that social security numbers
2       have become one of the tools that can be used to fa-
3       cilitate crime, fraud, and invasions of the privacy of 4       the individuals to whom the numbers are assigned.
5       Because the Federal Government created and main-
6       tains this system, and because the Federal Govern-
7       ment does not permit individuals to exempt them-
8       selves from those requirements, it is appropriate for 9       the Federal Government to take steps to stem the 10      abuse of social security numbers.

11           (4) The display, sale, or purchase of social secu-
12      rity numbers in no way facilitates uninhibited, ro-
13      bust, and wide-open public debate, and restrictions
14      on such display, sale, or purchase would not affect 15      public debate.

16           (5) No one should seek to profit from the dis-
17      play, sale, or purchase of social security numbers in 18      circumstances that create a substantial risk of phys-
19      ical, emotional, or financial harm to the individuals
20      to whom those numbers are assigned.

21           (6) Consequently, this Act provides each indi-
22      vidual that has been assigned a social security num-
23      ber some degree of protection from the display, sale,
24      and purchase of that number in any circumstance
25      that might facilitate unlawful conduct.

11          number is for a use occurring as a result of an inter-
12          action between businesses, governments, or business
13          and government (regardless of which entity initiates 14          the interaction), including, but not limited to—

11                  gram;

12               except that, nothing in this subsection shall be construed

14               or sell a social security number to the general public.

15               “(f) LIMITATION.—Nothing in this section shall pro-
