which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Health, Edu-

A BILL

To provide for uterine fibroid research and education, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Uterine Fibroid Re-
5 search and Education Act of 2003”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds as follows:

8 (1) The development of uterine fibroids is a
9 common and significant health problem, affecting

1 women of all ages, racial backgrounds, and socio-
2 economic levels.

3 (2) It has been estimated that between 20 and 4 30 percent of women of reproductive age have uter-
5 ine fibroids, though not all have been diagnosed.
6 Studies indicate the prevalence could be much high-
7 er.

8 (3) Symptomatic uterine fibroids can cause
9 heavy bleeding, pain, and reproductive problems, in-
10 cluding infertility. There is no known cause of uter-
11 ine fibroids.

12 (4) Uterine fibroids are the most common indi-
13 cation for hysterectomy, accounting for approxi-
14 mately one-third of hysterectomies, or 200,000 pro-
15 cedures annually.

16 (5) African American women are 2 to 3 times
17 more likely to develop uterine fibroids than women
18 of other racial groups.

19 (6) The estimated annual charges for inpatient
20 care for uterine fibroids totaled more than 21 $2,000,000,000 in 1997.

22 (7) The Agency for Healthcare Research and 23 Quality found a “remarkable lack of high quality
24 evidence supporting the effectiveness of most inter-
25 ventions for symptomatic fibroids”.
