AN ACT

To provide competitive grants for training court reporters and closed captioners to meet requirements for realtime writers under the Telecommunications Act of 1996, and for other purposes.

1        Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2        tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3        SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4        This Act may be cited as the “Training for Realtime
5        Writers Act of 2004”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) As directed by Congress in section 723 of 4 the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 613),
5 as added by section 305 of the Telecommunications
6 Act of 1996 (Public Law 104–104; 110 Stat. 126),
7 the Federal Communications Commission adopted
8 rules requiring closed captioning of most television
9 programming, which gradually require new video
10 programming to be fully captioned beginning in 11 2006.

12 (2) More than 28,000,000 Americans, or 8 per-
13 cent of the population, are considered deaf or hard
14 of hearing, and many require captioning services to 15 participate in mainstream activities.

16 (3) More than 24,000 children are born in the 17 United States each year with some form of hearing
18 loss.

19 (4) According to the Department of Health and 20 Human Services and a study done by the National
21 Council on Aging—

22 (A) 25 percent of Americans over 65 years
23 old are hearing impaired;

24 (B) 33 percent of Americans over 70 years
25 old are hearing impaired; and

1 (C) 41 percent of Americans over 75 years
2 old are hearing impaired.

3 (5) The National Council on Aging study also
4 found that depression in older adults may be directly
5 related to hearing loss and disconnection with the 6 spoken word.

7 (6) Empirical research demonstrates that cap-
8 tions improve the performance of individuals learn-
9 ing to read English and, according to numerous
10 Federal agency statistics, could benefit—

11 (A) 3,700,000 remedial readers;

12 (B) 12,000,000 young children learning to 13 read;

14 (C) 27,000,000 illiterate adults; and

15 (D) 30,000,000 people for whom English
16 is a second language.

17 (7) Over the past 5 years, student enrollment in 18 programs that train court reporters to become
19 realtime writers has decreased significantly, causing
20 such programs to close on many campuses.
