2 (1) welcomes the public apologies issued on 3 September 10, 2003, by the President of Serbia and 4 Montenegro and the President of the Republic of 5 Croatia;

6 (2) commends the initiative and personal cour-
7 age demonstrated by their actions;

8 (3) recognizes the value of such apologies in the 9 important process of reconciliation in Southeast Eu-
10 rope;

11 (4) notes public support within the region for 12 these efforts;

13 (5) calls upon the governments in the region to 14 continue their efforts to encourage and advance rec-15 onciliation; and

16 (6) reiterates the importance of resolving post-
17 conflict issues, including—

18 (A) by ensuring that refugees and inter-
19 nally displaced persons have the right to return 20 home; and

21 (B) by bringing persons indicted for war
22 crimes to justice, including through cooperation
23 with the International Criminal Tribunal on the 24 Former Yugoslavia.
