109TH CONGRESS H. CON. RES. 355

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Whereas school music programs enhance intellectual development and enrich the academic environment for students of all ages;

Whereas students who participate in school music programs are less likely to be involved with drugs, gangs, or alcohol and have better attendance in school;

- Whereas the skills gained through sequential music instruction, including discipline and the ability to analyze, solve problems, communicate, and work cooperatively, are vital for success in the 21st century workplace;
- Whereas the majority of students attending public schools in inner city neighborhoods have virtually no access to music education, which places them at a disadvantage compared to their peers in other communities;
- Whereas local budget cuts are predicted to lead to significant curtailment of school music programs, thereby depriving millions of students of an education that includes music;
- Whereas the arts are a core academic subject, and music is an essential element of the arts; and
- Whereas every student in the United States should have an opportunity to reap the benefits of music education: Now, therefore, be it
 - 1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
 - 2 concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that
 - 3 music education grounded in rigorous instruction is an im-
 - 4 portant component of a well-rounded academic curriculum
 - 5 and should be available to every student in every school.

Passed the House of Representatives April 4, 2006. Attest:

Clerk.
