16 services for sex, including sexual favors or other 17 forms of humiliating, degrading or exploitative be-18 havior, is prohibited. This includes exchange of as-19 sistance that is due to beneficiaries.”.

20 (4) “Sexual relationships between humanitarian 21 workers and beneficiaries are strongly discouraged
22 since they are based on inherently unequal power dy-
23 namics. Such relationships undermine the credibility 24 and integrity of humanitarian aid work.”.

1           (5) “Where a humanitarian worker develops
2 concerns or suspicions regarding sexual abuse or ex-
3 ploitation by a fellow worker, whether in the same 4 agency or not, he or she must report such concerns 5 via established agency reporting mechanisms.”.

6           (6) “Humanitarian agencies are obliged to cre-

16 (a) CONDITIONS FOR GRANTING ASYLUM.—Section

21 lowing:

22 “(A) ELIGIBILITY.—The Secretary of 23 Homeland Security or the Attorney General”;

24 (2) by striking “the Attorney General” the sec-
25 ond and third places such term appears and insert-

1       ing “the Secretary of Homeland Security or the At-2       torney General”; and

3               (3) by adding at the end the following:

4                       “(B) BURDEN OF PROOF.—

5                               “(i) IN GENERAL.—The burden of 6                               proof is on the applicant to establish that 7                               the applicant is a refugee, within the 8                               meaning of section 101(a)(42)(A). To es-9                               tablish that the applicant is a refugee with-10                              in the meaning of such section, the appli-11                             cant must establish that race, religion, na-12                             tionality, membership in a particular social 13                             group, or political opinion was or will be a 14                             central reason for persecuting the appli-15                             cant.

16                            “(ii) SUSTAINING BURDEN.—The tes-
17                            timony of the applicant may be sufficient 18                            to sustain the applicant’s burden without 19                            corroboration, but only if the applicant sat-20                            isfies the trier of fact that the applicant’s 21                            testimony is credible, is persuasive, and re-22                            fers to specific facts sufficient to dem-23                            onstrate that the applicant is a refugee. In 24                            determining whether the applicant has met 25                            the applicant’s burden, the trier of fact

1 may weigh the credible testimony along 2 with other evidence of record. Where the 3 trier of fact determines, in the trier of 4 fact's discretion, that the applicant should 5 provide evidence which corroborates other-
6 wise credible testimony, such evidence 7 must be provided unless the applicant does 8 not have the evidence and cannot reason-9 ably obtain the evidence without departing
10 the United States. The inability to obtain 11 corroborating evidence does not excuse the 12 applicant from meeting the applicant's 13 burden of proof.

14 “(iii) CREDIBILITY DETERMINA-
15 TION.—The trier of fact should consider all 16 relevant factors and may, in the trier of 17 fact's discretion, base the trier of fact's 18 credibility determination on any such fac-
19 tor, including the demeanor, candor, or re-20 sponsiveness of the applicant or witness,
21 the inherent plausibility of the applicant's 22 or witness's account, the consistency be-23 tween the applicant's or witness's written 24 and oral statements (whenever made and 25 whether or not made under oath), the in-

1           ternal consistency of each such statement, 2           the consistency of such statements with 3           other evidence of record (including the re-4           ports of the Department of State on coun-5           try conditions), and any inaccuracies or 6           falsehoods in such statements, without re-7           gard to whether an inconsistency, inaccu-8           racy, or falsehood goes to the heart of the 9           applicant’s claim. There is no presumption 10          of credibility.”.

11          (b) WITHHOLDING OF REMOVAL.—Section 241(b)(3) 12 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.
13 1231(b)(3)) is amended by adding at the end the fol-
14 lowing:

15                   “(C) SUSTAINING BURDEN OF PROOF; 16           CREDIBILITY DETERMINATIONS.—In deter-17           mining whether an alien has demonstrated that 18           the alien’s life or freedom would be threatened 19           for a reason described in subparagraph (A), the 20           trier of fact shall determine whether the alien 21           has sustained the alien’s burden of proof, and 22           shall make credibility determinations, in the 23           manner described in clauses (ii) and (iii) of sec-24           tion 208(b)(1)(B).”.

1           (c) OTHER REQUESTS FOR RELIEF FROM RE-
2 MOVAL.—Section 240(c) of the Immigration and Nation-
3 ality Act (8 U.S.C. 1230(c)) is amended—

4           (1) by redesignating paragraphs (4), (5), and 5           (6) as paragraphs (5), (6), and (7), respectively; and 6           (2) by inserting after paragraph (3) the fol-

7           lowing:

8           “(4) APPLICATIONS FOR RELIEF FROM RE-
9           MOVAL.—

10           “(A) IN GENERAL.—An alien applying for 11           relief or protection from removal has the bur-12           den of proof to establish that the alien—

13                   “(i) satisfies the applicable eligibility 14                   requirements; and 15                   “(ii) with respect to any form of relief 16                   that is granted in the exercise of discre-

17                   tion, that the alien merits a favorable exer-
18                   cise of discretion.

19           “(B) SUSTAINING BURDEN.—The appli-20           cant must comply with the applicable require-21           ments to submit information or documentation 22           in support of the applicant’s application for re-23           lief or protection as provided by law or by regu-
24           lation or in the instructions for the application 25           form. In evaluating the testimony of the appli-

1           cant or other witness in support of the applica-
2           tion, the immigration judge will determine 3           whether or not the testimony is credible, is per-4           suasive, and refers to specific facts sufficient to 5           demonstrate that the applicant has satisfied the 6           applicant’s burden of proof. In determining 7           whether the applicant has met such burden, the 8           immigration judge shall weigh the credible testi-9           mony along with other evidence of record.
10          Where the immigration judge determines in the 11          judge’s discretion that the applicant should pro-12          vide evidence which corroborates otherwise cred-
13          ible testimony, such evidence must be provided 14          unless the applicant demonstrates that the ap-15          plicant does not have the evidence and cannot 16          reasonably obtain the evidence without depart-
17          ing from the United States. The inability to ob-18          tain corroborating evidence does not excuse the 19          applicant from meeting the burden of proof.

20                 “(C) CREDIBILITY DETERMINATION.—The 21                 immigration judge should consider all relevant 22                 factors and may, in the judge’s discretion, base 23                 the judge’s credibility determination on any 24                 such factor, including the demeanor, candor, or 25                 responsiveness of the applicant or witness, the 1 inherent plausibility of the applicant’s or 2 witness’s account, the consistency between the 3 applicant’s or witness’s written and oral state-4 ments (whenever made and whether or not 5 made under oath), the internal consistency of 6 each such statement, the consistency of such 7 statements with other evidence of record (in-8 cluding the reports of the Department of State 9 on country conditions), and any inaccuracies or 10 falsehoods in such statements, without regard 11 to whether an inconsistency, inaccuracy, or 12 falsehood goes to the heart of the applicant’s 13 claim. There is no presumption of credibility.”.

14 (d) STANDARD OF REVIEW FOR ORDERS OF RE-
15 MOVAL.—Section 242(b)(4) of the Immigration and Na-16 tionality Act (8 U.S.C. 1252(b)(4)) is amended by adding 17 at the end, after subparagraph (D), the following: “No 18 court shall reverse a determination made by a trier of fact 19 with respect to the availability of corroborating evidence, 20 as described in section 208(b)(1)(B), 240(c)(4)(B), or 21 241(b)(3)(C), unless the court finds that a reasonable 22 trier of fact is compelled to conclude that such corrobo-23 rating evidence is unavailable.”.

1 (e) CLARIFICATION OF DISCRETION.—Section
2 242(a)(2)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8

24 Attorney General, in the Secretary’s or the At-25 torney General’s discretion and under such reg-

1           ulations as the Secretary or the Attorney Gen-2           eral may prescribe, may adjust to the status of 3           an alien lawfully admitted for permanent resi-
4           dence the status of any alien granted asylum 5           who—”; and

6                   (B) in the matter following paragraph (5), 7           by striking “Attorney General” and inserting 8           “Secretary of Homeland Security or the Attor-9           ney General”; and 10           (3) in subsection (c), by striking “Attorney 11           General” and inserting “Secretary of Homeland Se-12           curity or the Attorney General”.

13           (g) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

14                   (1) The amendments made by paragraphs (1) 15           and (2) of subsection (a) shall take effect as if en-
