

109TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 1432

To require the Secretary of the Treasury to redesign the $1 coin to commemorate Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 17, 2005

Mr. RANGEL introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

A BILL

To require the Secretary of the Treasury to redesign the $1 coin to commemorate Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE AND FINDINGS.

4 (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 5 “Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., $1 Coin Act”.

6 (b) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds the following:

7 (1) Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was a pre-
8 eminent spokesman for human civil rights in his 9 time.

1 (2) The work of Dr. King affected the lives of
2 more Americans of all races and people around the
3 world than any other American reform leader of the 4 20th century.

5 (3) Dr. King was one of America's most erudite
6 scholars and social and religious activists.

7 (4) Dr. King, because of his lifelong achieve-
8 ments and moral vision, was a recipient in 1964 of 9 the Nobel Peace Prize.

10 (5) Dr. King mobilized leaders of all faiths,
11 races, and creeds to support the passage of the his-
12 toric civil rights laws in the 1960s.

13 (6) Dr. King inspired activists for human rights
14 around the world by applying a philosophy of non-
15 violence.

16 (7) Dr. King helped to mobilize the African-
17 American civil rights movement as a founder of the 18 Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

19 (8) Dr. King has been honored by the Nation
20 with the designation of the third Monday in January
21 as a national holiday in his name.

22 (9) The largest collection of materials relating
23 to Dr. King is in the Martin Luther King, Jr. Cen-
24 ter for Nonviolent Social Change in Atlanta, Geor-
25 gia.

1 SEC. 2. REDESIGN OF $1 COIN TO COMMEMORATE DR. MAR-
2 TIN LUTHER KING, JR.

3 Section 5112(d)(1) of title 31, United States Code,
4 is amended—

5 (1) by striking the 6th sentence and inserting
6 the following: “The obverse side of the dollar shall 7 have the likeness of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
8 The reverse side of the dollar shall have a design
9 emblematic of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.”; and

10 (2) in the 4th sentence, by striking “dollar, half
11 dollar, and quarter dollar” and inserting “half dollar
12 and quarter dollar”.
