7 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

8 Congress finds the following:

9 (1) The United States has demonstrated inter-
10 national leadership in combating human trafficking
11 and slavery through the enactment of the Traf-12 ficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 (division A of 13 Public Law 106–386; 22 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.) and

1 the Trafficking Victims Protection Reauthorization
2 Act of 2003 (Public Law 108–193).

3 (2) The United States Government currently 4 estimates that 600,000 to 800,000 individuals are 5 trafficked across international borders each year and 6 exploited through forced labor and commercial sex
7 exploitation. An estimated 80 percent of such indi-
8 viduals are women and girls.

9 (3) Since the enactment of the Trafficking Vic-
10 tims Protection Act of 2000, United States efforts
11 to combat trafficking in persons have focused pri-
12 marily on the international trafficking in persons,
13 including the trafficking of foreign citizens into the 14 United States.

15 (4) Trafficking in persons also occurs within 16 the borders of a country, including the United 17 States.

18 (5) No known studies exist that quantify the 19 problem of trafficking in children for the purpose of 20 commercial sexual exploitation in the United States.
21 According to a report issued by researchers at the 22 University of Pennsylvania in 2001, as many as 23 300,000 children in the United States are at risk for 24 commercial sexual exploitation, including trafficking,
25 at any given time.

1 (6) Runaway and homeless children in the
2 United States are highly susceptible to being domes-
3 tically trafficked for commercial sexual exploitation.
4 According to the National Runaway Switchboard,
5 every day in the United States, between 1,300,000
6 and 2,800,000 runaway and homeless youth live on 7 the streets. One out of every seven children will run
8 away from home before the age of 18.

9 (7) Following armed conflicts and during hu-
10 manitarian emergencies, indigenous populations face
11 increased security challenges and vulnerabilities
12 which result in myriad forms of violence, including 13 trafficking for sexual and labor exploitation. Foreign 14 policy and foreign aid professionals increasingly rec-
15 ognize the increased activity of human traffickers in 16 post-conflict settings and during humanitarian emer-
17 gencies.

18 (8) There is a need to protect populations in 19 post-conflict settings and humanitarian emergencies
20 from being trafficked for sexual or labor exploi-
21 tation. The efforts of aid agencies to address the 22 protection needs of, among others, internally dis-
23 placed persons and refugees are useful in this re-
24 gard. Nonetheless, there is a need for further inte-
25 grated programs and strategies at the United States

1 Agency for International Development, the Depart-
2 ment of State, and the Department of Defense to 3 combat human trafficking, including through protec-
4 tion and prevention methodologies, in post-conflict
5 environments and during humanitarian emergencies.

6 (9) International and human rights organiza-
7 tions have documented a correlation between inter-
8 national deployments of military and civilian peace-
9 keepers and aid workers and a resulting increase in 10 the number of women and girls trafficked into pros-
11 titution in post-conflict regions.

12 (10) The involvement of employees and contrac-
13 tors of the United States Government and members
14 of the Armed Forces in trafficking in persons, facili-
15 tating the trafficking in persons, or exploiting the 16 victims of trafficking in persons is inconsistent with 17 United States laws and policies and undermines the 18 credibility and mission of United States Government
19 programs in post-conflict regions.

20 (11) Further measures are needed to ensure 21 that United States Government personnel and con-
22 tractors are held accountable for involvement with 23 acts of trafficking in persons, including by expand-
24 ing United States criminal jurisdiction to all United 25 States Government contractors abroad.

SEC. 105. ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES TO MONITOR AND COMBAT FORCED LABOR AND CHILD LABOR.

(a) ACTIVITIES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—

(1) FINDING.—Congress finds that in the report submitted to Congress by the Secretary of State in June 2005 pursuant to section 110(b) of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 (22

1 U.S.C. 7107(b)), the list of countries whose govern-
2 ments do not comply with the minimum standards
3 for the elimination of trafficking and are not making
4 significant efforts to bring themselves into compli-
5 ance was composed of a large number of countries
6 in which the trafficking involved forced labor, includ-
7 ing the trafficking of women into domestic servitude.

8 (2) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of 9 Congress that the Director of the Office to Monitor
10 and Combat Trafficking of the Department of State
11 should intensify the focus of the Office on forced 12 labor in the countries described in paragraph (1)
13 and other countries in which forced labor continues
14 to be a serious human rights concern.
