RESOLUTION

Condemning in the strongest terms the terrorist attacks in Sharm el-Sheikh, Egypt, on July 23, 2005, and for other purposes.

Whereas on July 23, 2005, a series of explosions at tourist facilities in Sharm el-Sheikh, Egypt, planned and carried out by terrorists, resulted in the death of scores of civilians and the injury of hundreds of others;

Whereas the people of Egypt have been subjected to several other terrorist deadly attacks over the past year;

Whereas Egypt's appointed ambassador to Iraq, Dr. Ihab al-Sherif, was kidnapped and executed by terrorists in Baghdad during July 2005; and

Whereas President George W. Bush expressed the solidarity of the people and Government of the United States with the people and Government of Egypt during his visit to the Embassy of Egypt: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2               (1) condemns in the strongest terms the terrorist attacks on Sharm el-Sheikh, Egypt and other
3       terrorist attacks directed against Egypt;

4               (2) expresses its condolences to the families and 5       friends of those individuals who were killed in the 6       attacks and expresses its sympathies to those individuals who have been injured;

7               (3) joins with President George W. Bush in expressing the solidarity of the people and Government
8       of the United States with the people and Government of Egypt as they recover from these cowardly
9       and inhuman attacks; and

10              (4) expresses its readiness to support the Egyptian authorities in their efforts to bring to justice
11       those individuals responsible for the recent attacks
12       in Egypt and to pursue, disrupt, undermine, and 13       dismantle the networks which plan and carry out
14       such attacks.
