

In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

December 6, 2006.

Resolved, That the bill from the Senate (S. 2125) entitled “An Act to promote relief, security, and democracy in the Democratic Republic of the Congo”, do pass with the following

AMENDMENT:

Strike out all after the enacting clause and insert:

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Democratic Republic
3 of the Congo Relief, Security, and Democracy Promotion 4 Act of 2006”.

5 TITLE I—BILATERAL ACTION ON 6 ADDRESSING URGENT NEEDS
7 IN THE DEMOCRATIC REPUB-
8 LIC OF THE CONGO

9 SEC. 101. FINDINGS.

10 Congress makes the following findings:

11 (1) The National Security Strategy of the United 12 States, dated September 17, 2002, concludes that 13 “[i]n Africa, promise and opportunity sit side-by-side 14 with disease, war, and desperate poverty. This threat-

1 ens both a core value of the United States preserving
2 human dignity and our strategic priority combating 3 global terror. American interests and American prin- 4 ciples, therefore, lead in the same direction: we will 5 work with others for an African continent that lives 6 in liberty, peace, and growing prosperity.”.

7 (2) On February 16, 2005, the Director of the 8 Central Intelligence Agency testified, “In Africa, 9 chronic instability will continue to hamper
10 counterterrorism efforts and pose heavy humanitarian 11 and peacekeeping burdens.”.

12 (3) According to the United States Agency for 13 International Development, “Given its size, popu-
14 lation, and resources, the Congo is an important 15 player in Africa and of long-term interest to the 16 United States.”.

17 (4) The Democratic Republic of the Congo is 18 2,345,410 square miles (approximately $\frac{1}{4}$ the size of 19 the United States), lies at the heart of Africa, and 20 touches every major region of sub-Saharan Africa.
21 Therefore, a secure, peaceful, and prosperous Demo-
22 cratic Republic of the Congo would have a profound
23 impact on progress throughout Africa.

24 (5) The most recent war in the Democratic Re-
25 public of the Congo, which erupted in 1998, spawned

1 some of the world's worst human rights atrocities and 2 drew in six neighboring countries.

3 (6) Despite the conclusion of a peace agreement
4 and subsequent withdrawal of foreign forces in 2003,
5 both the real and perceived presence of armed groups
6 hostile to the Governments of Uganda, Rwanda, and 7 Burundi continue to serve as a major source of re-
8 gional instability and an apparent pretext for contin- 9 ued interference in the Democratic Republic of the 10 Congo by its neighbors.

11 (7) A mortality study completed in December
12 2004 by the International Rescue Committee found 13 that 31,000 people were dying monthly and 3,800,000 14 people had died in the previous six years because of 15 the conflict in the Democratic Republic of the Congo 16 and resulting disintegration of the social service in- 17 frastructure, making this one of the deadliest conflicts
18 since World War II.

19 (8) In 2004, Amnesty International estimated 20 that at least 40,000 women and girls were systemati-
21 cally raped and tortured in the Democratic Republic 22 of the Congo since 1998, and nearly two-thirds of on- 23 going abuses against women and girls are perpetrated 24 by members of the security forces, particularly the 25 Forces Armées de la République Démocratique du

1 Congo (FARDC) and the Police Nationale Congolaise
2 (PNC).

3 (9) According to the Department of State, “re-
4 turning one of Africa’s largest countries [the Demo-
5 cratic Republic of the Congo] to full peace and sta-
6 bility will require significant United States invest-7 ments in support of national elections, the reintegra-
8 tion of former combatants, the return and reintegra-
9 tion of refugees and [internally displaced persons], es-10 tablishment of central government control over vast 11 territories, and promotion of national reconciliation 12 and good governance”.

13 SEC. 102. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

14 It is the policy of the United States—

15 (1) to help promote, reinvigorate, and support 16 the political process in the Democratic Republic of the 17 Congo in order to press all parties in the Transi-
18 tional National Government and the succeeding gov-
19 ernment to implement fully and to institutionalize
20 mechanisms, including national and international 21 election observers, fair and transparent voter registra-
22 tion procedures, and a significant civic awareness
23 and public education campaign created for the July 24 30, 2006, elections and future elections in the Demo-

1 cratic Republic of the Congo, to ensure that elections
2 are carried out in a fair and democratic manner;

3 (2) to urge the Government of the Democratic 4 Republic of the Congo to recognize and act upon its 5 responsibilities to immediately bring discipline to its 6 security forces, hold those individuals responsible for 7 atrocities and other human rights violations, particu-
8 larly the rape of women and girls as an act of war,
9 accountable and bring such individuals to justice;

10 (3) to help ensure that, once a stable national 11 government is established in the Democratic Republic
12 of the Congo, it is committed to multiparty democ-
13 racy, open and transparent governance, respect for 14 human rights and religious freedom, ending the vio- 15 lence throughout the country, promoting peace and 16 stability with its neighbors, rehabilitating the na-
17 tional judicial system and enhancing the rule of law, 18 combating corruption, instituting economic reforms to 19 promote development, and creating an environment to 20 promote private investment;

21 (4) to assist the Government of the Democratic 22 Republic of the Congo as it seeks to meet the basic 23 needs of its citizens, including security, safety, and 24 access to health care, education, food, shelter, and 25 clean drinking water;

1 (5) to support security sector reform by assisting 2 the Government of the Democratic Republic of the 3 Congo to establish a viable and professional national 4 army and police force that respects human rights and 5 the rule of law, is under effective civilian control, and 6 possesses a viable presence throughout the entire coun-
7 try, provided the Democratic Republic of the Congo 8 meets all requirements for United States military as-9 sistance under existing law;

10 (6) to help expedite planning and implementa-
11 tion of programs associated with the disarmament, 12 demobilization, repatriation, reintegration, and reha-13 bilitation process in the Democratic Republic of the 14 Congo;

15 (7) to support efforts of the Government of the 16 Democratic Republic of the Congo, the United Nations 17 Peacekeeping Mission in the Democratic Republic of 18 the Congo (MONUC), and other entities, as appro-19 priate, to disarm, demobilize, and repatriate the 20 Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Rwanda and 21 other illegally armed groups;

22 (8) to make all efforts to ensure that the Govern-
23 ment of the Democratic Republic of the Congo—

1 (A) is committed to responsible and trans-
 2 parent management of natural resources across 3 the country; and

4 (B) takes active measures—

5 (i) to promote economic development;

6 (ii) to hold accountable individuals
 7 who illegally exploit the country's natural 8 resources; and

9 (iii) to implement the Extractive In-10 dustries Transparency Initiative by enact-
 11 ing laws requiring disclosure and inde-12 pendent auditing of company payments and 13 government receipts for natural resource ex-
 14 traction;

15 (9) to promote a viable civil society and to en-
 16 hance nongovernmental organizations and institu-
 17 tions, including religious organizations, the media, 18 political parties, trade unions, and trade and busi-
 19 ness associations, that can act as a stabilizing force 20 and effective check on the government;

21 (10) to help rebuild and enhance infrastructure, 22 communications, and other mechanisms that will in-23 crease the ability of the central government to manage 24 internal affairs, encourage economic development, and 25 facilitate relief efforts of humanitarian organizations;

1 (11) to help halt the high prevalence of sexual 2 abuse and violence perpetrated against women and 3 children in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and 4 mitigate the detrimental effects from acts of this type 5 of violence by undertaking a number of health, edu-
6 cation, and psycho-social support programs;

7 (12) to work aggressively on a bilateral basis to 8 urge governments of countries contributing troops to 9 the United Nations Peacekeeping Mission in the 10 Democratic Republic of the Congo (MONUC) to enact 11 and enforce laws on trafficking in persons and sexual 12 abuse that meet international standards, promote 13 codes of conduct for troops serving as part of United 14 Nations peacekeeping missions, and immediately in-15 vestigate and punish citizens who are responsible for 16 abuses in the Democratic Republic of the Congo;

17 (13) to assist the Government of the Democratic 18 Republic of the Congo as undertakes steps to—

 4 orphans from conflict and HIV/AIDS in the 5 Democratic Republic of the Congo, and work to 6 establish a program of national support;

7 (14) to engage with governments working to pro-
 8 mote peace and security throughout the Democratic

 11 country; and

12 (15) to promote appropriate use of the forests of 13 the Democratic Republic of the Congo in a manner
 14 that benefits the rural population in that country 15 that depends on the forests for their livelihoods and 16 protects national and environmental interests.
