

109TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 640

To amend title 10, United States Code, to provide for the establishment of a unified combatant command for military intelligence, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 16, 2005

Mr. CHAMBLISS (for himself and Mr. NELSON of Nebraska) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Select Committee on Intelligence

A BILL

To amend title 10, United States Code, to provide for the establishment of a unified combatant command for military intelligence, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Military Intelligence 5 Reorganization Act of 2005”.

1 SEC. 2. UNIFIED COMBATANT COMMAND FOR MILITARY IN-
2 TELLIGENCE.

3 (a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 6 of title 10, United 4 States Code, is amended by inserting after section 167a
5 the following new section:

6 “§ 167b. Unified combatant command for military in-
7 telligence

8 “(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—(1) With the advice and as-9 sistance of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the 10 President, through the Secretary of Defense, shall estab-
11 lish under section 161 of this title a unified combatant 12 command for military intelligence (hereinafter in this sec-13 tion referred to as the ‘military intelligence command’).

14 “(2) The principle functions of the military intel-15 ligence command are—

16 “(A) to coordinate the military intelligence ac-
17 tivities that support the Director of National Intel-
18 ligence;

19 “(B) to represent the Department of Defense
20 within the intelligence community under the Director
21 of National Intelligence;

22 “(C) to ensure that intelligence collection re-
23 quirements for the armed forces are communicated
24 to, and the fulfillment of such requirements are co-
25 ordinated with, the Director of National Intelligence;

1 “(D) to coordinate all military intelligence ac-
2 tivities; and

3 “(E) to develop new military intelligence collec-
4 tion capabilities.

5 “(b) ASSIGNMENT OF FORCES AND CIVILIAN PER-

10 be assigned to the military intelligence command.

11 “(2) Unless otherwise directed by the Secretary of 12 Defense, the civilian personnel of the elements of the De-13 partment of Defense referred to in subsection (i)(2) shall 14 be under the military intelligence command.

15 “(c) GRADE OF COMMANDER.—(1) The commander
16 of the military intelligence command shall hold the grade
17 of general or, in the case of an officer of the Navy, admiral 18 while serving in that position, without vacating that offi-
19 cer’s permanent grade. The commander of such command
20 shall be appointed by the President, by and with the con-
21 sent of the Senate, for service in that position.

22 “(2) The officer appointed as commander of the mili-23 tary intelligence command shall not, while serving in that 24 position, be counted against the numbers and percentages

1 of officers of the grade of that officer authorized for the 2 armed force of that officer.

3 “(d) DUTIES OF COMMANDER.—Unless otherwise di-4 rected by the President or the Secretary of Defense, the 5 commander of the military intelligence command shall—

6 “(1) carry out intelligence collection and anal-
7 ysis activities in response to requests from the Di-
8 rector of National Intelligence;

9 “(2) serve as the principle advisor to the Sec-
10 retary of Defense, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs 11 of Staff, and the Director of National Intelligence on 12 all matters relating to military intelligence; and 13 “(3) discharge any responsibilities assigned to 14 the commander under section 427(b) of this title.

15 “(e) AUTHORITY OF COMMANDER.—(1) In addition 16 to the authority prescribed in section 164(c) of this title, 17 the commander of the military intelligence command shall 18 be responsible for, and shall have the authority to conduct,
19 all affairs of the command relating to military intelligence 20 activities.

21 “(2) The commander of the military intelligence com-
22 mand shall be responsible for, and shall have the authority 23 to conduct, the following functions relating to military in-24 telligence activities:

25 “(A) Developing strategy, doctrine, and tactics.

1 “(B) Establishing priorities for military intel-
2 ligence in harmony with national priorities estab-
3 lished by the Director of National Intelligence and 4 approved by the President.

5 “(C) Ensuring the interoperability of intel-
6 ligence sharing within the Department of Defense
7 and between the Department of Defense and the in-8 telligence community as a whole, as directed by the 9 Director of National Intelligence.

10 “(D) Serving as the program manager for the 11 Joint Military Intelligence Program (JMIP) and the 12 Tactical Intelligence and Related Activities (TIARA)
13 program.

14 “(E) Preparing and submitting to the Secretary
15 of Defense and the Director of National Intelligence 16 recommendations and budget proposals for military 17 intelligence forces and activities.

18 “(F) Exercising authority, direction, and con-19 trol over the expenditure of funds for personnel and 20 activities assigned to the command.

21 “(G) Training military and civilian personnel
22 assigned to or under the command.

23 “(H) Conducting specialized courses of instruc-24 tion for military and civilian personnel assigned to 25 or under the command.

2 ligence activities.

3 “(J) Formulating and submitting requirements
4 to other commanders of the unified combatant com-
5 mands to support military intelligence activities.

6 “(3) The commander of the military intelligence com-7 mand shall be responsible for—

8 “(A) ensuring that the military intelligence re-9 quirements of the other unified combatant com-10 manders are satisfied; and 11 “(B) responding to intelligence requirements

12 levied by the Director of National Intelligence.

13 “(4)(A) The commander of the military intelligence
14 command shall be responsible for, and shall have the au-
15 thority to conduct the development and acquisition of spe-
16 cialized technical intelligence capabilities.

17 “(B) Subject to the authority, direction, and control
18 of the Secretary of Defense, the commander of the com-
19 mand, in carrying out the function under subparagraph 20 (A), shall have authority to exercise the functions of the 21 head of an agency under chapter 137 of this title.

22 “(f) INSPECTOR GENERAL.—The staff of the com-
23 mander of the military intelligence command shall include 24 an inspector general who shall conduct internal audits and 25 inspections of purchasing and contracting actions through

1 the command and such other inspector general functions
2 as may be assigned.

3 “(g) BUDGET.—In addition to the activities of a com-
4 batant commander for which funding may be requested 5 under section 166(b) of this title, the budget proposal for 6 the military intelligence command shall include requests 7 for funding for—

8 “(1) development and acquisition of military in-9 telligence collection systems; and 10 “(2) acquisition of other material, supplies, or 11 services that are peculiar to military intelligence ac-

12 tivities.

13 “(h) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary of Defense shall 14 prescribe regulations for the activities of the military intel-
15 ligence command. The regulations shall include authoriza-16 tion for the commander of the command to provide for 17 operational security of military intelligence forces, civilian 18 personnel, and activities.

19 “(i) IDENTIFICATION OF MILITARY INTELLIGENCE
20 FORCES.—(1) For purposes of this section, military intel-
