
The purpose of the hearings is to review the Grazing Program of the Bureau of Land Management and the Forest Service, including proposed changes to grazing regulations, and the status of grazing permit renewals, monitoring programs and allotment restocking plans.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Johanna Mihok, a legal intern on my Judiciary Committee staff, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the consideration of Judge John Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Matt Reliseter of my staff be granted the privilege of the floor for the duration of today’s session.

Mr. HARKIN. I ask unanimous consent that Valerie Frias and Katherine Hutchinson, two Judiciary Committee staffers, be granted floor privileges for the duration of the debate on the nomination of John G. Roberts to be Chief Justice of the United States.