PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 109th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 151

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2005

No. 124

House of Representatives

The House met at 10 a.m.

The Reverend Kevin Gormley, Pastor, St. Peter Church, Marshall, Missouri, offered the following prayer:

God, Creator of all life, we bow our heads and ask Your guidance to carry out the awesome responsibilities we have before us. May we be at peace among ourselves and at peace individually with the decisions we have made. As we serve here in the hallowed House, keep us aware that we have our family house demanding our time and attention.

We celebrate the 60th year since the end of World War II. President Harry S. Truman, from my great State of Missouri, had to make tough decisions at a difficult time in our country's history. He started his presidency by making the prayer of Solomon his own prayer: "God, give me the wisdom I need to rule Your people with justice and to know the difference between good and evil. Otherwise, how can I lead this great people of Yours?"

Father, may we who are leaders and all the leaders in this great Nation turn to You for guidance and listen to Your response as we seek a lasting peace in our troubled world. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair will entertain five 1-minutes on each side.

FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY

(Ms. FOXX asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. FOXX. Mr. Speaker, these past few weeks have tested our Nation's emergency response system, our compassion, and the Congress' ability to set spending priorities.

One thing is clear, Republicans are still the party of fiscal responsibility which has helped grow the economy and bolster jobs. In fact, over the past 2 years, our Nation has created millions of jobs, the unemployment level has dropped dramatically, and our economy has grown.

Like families, we make tough decisions. Over the past year, we terminated 98 programs which will save taxpayers over $4.3 billion. But given our new challenges, I am pleased that the House will exercise oversight of disaster expenditures to ensure that the funds are being spent properly by implementing several checks and balances: Sending investigators to the gulf to monitor disaster expenditures,
