

of continuum-of-care grantees have implemented the HMIS. This system is absolutely critical for developing an unduplicated count of homeless people and an analysis of their patterns of use of federal assistance programs.

This is a strong bill supported by members on both sides of the aisle. I hope that the Senate and the Congress can pass important legislation because this bill will help eliminate the tragedy of homelessness. I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

By Mr. ENZI:

S. 1802. All to provide for appropriate waivers, suspensions, or exemptions from provisions of title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 with respect to individual account plans affected by Hurricane Katrina or Rita; read the first time.

Mr. ENZI. Mr. President I rise to introduce the Pension Flexibility in Natural Disasters Act of 2005. The bill provides appropriate waivers, suspensions or exemptions from the provisions of title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, with respect to individual account plans affected by Hurricane Katrina or Rita.

Hurricanes Katrina and Rita have brought terrible devastation in the gulf coast. Not only have so many homes in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Texas been destroyed but many businesses have been destroyed as well.

Any business that maintains a pension or retirement plan for their workers is subject to certain reporting, disclosure and fiduciary provisions of ERISA as well as being subject to the pertinent provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. ERISA sets up many requirements and deadlines that businesses simply cannot meet due to the devastation of their businesses and the destruction of all of their records.

This bill postpones reporting requirements for businesses that have been adversely affected by storms in these presidentially-declared disaster areas. It also will facilitate getting individuals access to their retirement savings in the form of hardship loans or distributions by allowing plan fiduciaries flexibility in making those distributions in view of these terrible disasters. I hope my colleague will join me in supporting this important bill.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of this bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1802

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Pension Flexibility in Natural Disasters Act of 2005".

The Secretary of Labor, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Executive Director of the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation shall exercise their authority under section 518 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1148) and section 7508A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to postpone certain deadlines by reason of the Presidentially declared disaster areas in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Texas, and elsewhere, due to the effect of Hurricane Katrina or Rita. The Secretaries and the Executive Director of the Corporation shall issue guidance as soon as is practicable to plan sponsors and participants regarding extension of deadlines and rules applicable to these extraordinary circumstances. Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve any plan sponsor from any requirement to pay benefits or make contributions under the plan of the sponsor.

(a) WAIVERS, SUSPENSIONS, OR EXEMPTIONS.—In the case of any pension plan which is an individual account plan, or any participant or beneficiary, plan sponsor, administrator, fiduciary, service provider, or other person with respect to such plan, affected by Hurricane Katrina or Rita, or any service provider or other person dealing with such plan, the Secretary of Labor may, notwithstanding any provision of title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, prescribe, by notice or otherwise, a waiver, suspension, or exemption from any provision of such title which is under the regulatory authority of such Secretary, or from regulations issued under any such provision, that such Secretary determines appropriate to facilitate the distribution or loan of assets from such plan to participants and beneficiaries of such plan.

(b) EXEMPTION FROM LIABILITY FOR ACTS OR OMISSIONS COVERED BY WAIVER, SUSPENSION, OR EXEMPTION.—No person shall be liable for any violation of title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, or of any regulations issued under such title, based upon any act or omission covered by a waiver, suspension, or exemption issued under subsection (a) if such act or omission is in compliance with the terms of the waiver, suspension, or exemption.

(d) EXPIRATION OF AUTHORITY.—This section shall apply only with respect to waivers, suspensions, or exemptions issued by the Secretary of Labor during the 1-year period following the date of the enactment of this Act.

(e) DEFINITIONS.—Terms used in this section shall have the meanings provided such terms in section 3 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1002).

SENATE RESOLUTION 260—CALLING FOR FREE AND FAIR PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS IN THE REPUBLIC OF AZERBAIJAN

Mr. BIDEN (for himself, Mr. MCCAIN, Mr. HAGEL, Mr. LUGAR, and Mr. BROWNBACK) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations:

S. RES. 260

Whereas the Republic of Azerbaijan is scheduled to hold elections for its parliament, the Milli Majlis, in November 2005;

Whereas Azerbaijan has enjoyed a strong relationship with the United States since its independence from the former Soviet Union in 1991;

Whereas international observers monitoring Azerbaijan's October 2003 presidential election found that the pre-election, election day, and post-election environments fell short of international standards;

Whereas the International Election Observation Mission (IEOM) in Baku, Azerbaijan, deployed by the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) and the Council of Europe, found that there were numerous instances of violence by both members of the opposition and government forces;

Whereas the international election observers also found inequality and irregularities in campaign and election conditions, including intimidation against opposition supporters, restrictions on political rallies by opposition candidates, and voting fraud;

Whereas Azerbaijan freely accepted a series of commitments on democracy, human rights, and the rule of law when that country joined the OSCE as a participating State in 1992;

Whereas, following the 2003 presidential election, the Council of Europe adopted Resolution 1358 (2004) demanding that the Government of Azerbaijan immediately implement a series of steps that included the release of political prisoners, investigation of election fraud, and the creation of public service television to allow all political parties to better communicate with the people of Azerbaijan;

Whereas, since the 2003 presidential election, the Government of Azerbaijan has taken some positive steps by releasing some political prisoners and working to create public service television;

Whereas the United States supports the promotion of democracy and transparent, free, and fair elections consistent with the commitments of Azerbaijan as a participating State of the OSCE;

Whereas the United States is working with the Government of Azerbaijan, the political opposition, civil society, the OSCE, the Council of Europe, and other countries to strengthen the electoral process of Azerbaijan through diplomatic efforts and non-partisan assistance programs, including support for international and domestic election observers, voter education and election information initiatives, training for candidates and political parties, and training for judges and lawyers on the adjudication of election disputes;

Whereas the Government of the United States has awarded a contract to conduct exit polling throughout Azerbaijan;

Whereas a genuinely free and fair election requires that citizens be guaranteed the right and opportunity to exercise their civil and political rights, free from intimidation, undue influence, threats of political retribution, or other forms of coercion by national or local authorities or others;

Whereas a genuinely free and fair election requires government and public authorities to ensure that candidates and political parties enjoy equal treatment before the law and that government resources are not employed to the advantage of individual candidates or political parties; and

Whereas the establishment of a transparent, free and fair election process for the 2005 parliamentary elections is an important step in Azerbaijan's progress toward full integration into the democratic community of nations: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) calls on the Government of the Republic of Azerbaijan to hold orderly, peaceful, and free and fair parliamentary elections in November 2005 in order to ensure the long-term growth and stability of the country;

(2) calls upon the Government of Azerbaijan to guarantee the full participation of opposition parties in the upcoming elections, including members of opposition parties arrested in the months leading up to the November 2005 parliamentary elections;

(3) calls upon the opposition parties to fully and peacefully participate in the November 2005 parliamentary elections, and calls upon the Government of Azerbaijan to create the conditions for the participation on equal grounds of all viable candidates;

(4) believes it is critical that the November 2005 parliamentary elections be viewed by the people of Azerbaijan as free and fair, and that all sides refrain from violence during the campaign, on election day, and following the election;

(5) calls upon the Government of Azerbaijan to guarantee election monitors from the Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE), Azeri political parties, representatives of candidates, nongovernmental organizations, and other private institutions and organizations, both foreign and domestic, unimpeded access to all aspects of the election process;

(6) supports recommendations made by the Council of Europe on amendments to the Unified Election Code of Azerbaijan, specifically to ensure equitable representation of opposition and pro-government forces in all election commissions;

(7) urges the international community and domestic nongovernmental organizations to provide a sufficient number of election observers to ensure credible monitoring and reporting of the November 2005 parliamentary elections;

(8) recognizes the need for the establishment of an independent media and assurances by the Government of Azerbaijan that freedom of the press will be guaranteed; and

(9) calls upon the Government of Azerbaijan to guarantee freedom of speech and freedom of assembly.

SENATE RESOLUTION 261—EXPRESSING THE SENSE OF THE SENATE THAT THE CRISIS OF HURRICANE KATRINA SHOULD NOT BE USED TO WEAKEN, WAIVE, OR ROLL BACK FEDERAL PUBLIC HEALTH, ENVIRONMENTAL, AND ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE LAWS AND REGULATIONS, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Mr. KERRY (for himself, Mr. DURBIN, Mr. REID, Mr. OBAMA, Mrs. BOXER, and Mr. JEFFORDS) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Environment and Public Works:

S. RES. 261

Whereas Hurricane Katrina made landfall in the Gulf Region on August 29, 2005, destroying property, causing massive floods, and resulting in more than $35,000,000,000 in insured property losses and over 1,000 deaths;

Whereas expeditiously rebuilding those areas affected by Hurricane Katrina and providing the victims of the storm with normalcy and relief must be the top priorities for Congress;

Whereas Secretary of Homeland Security Michael Chertoff recently commented, "We are going to have to clean probably the greatest environmental mess we have ever seen in the country as a result of Hurricane Katrina";

Whereas Hurricane Katrina demonstrates the connection between the health and safety of communities and the health of natural resources;

Whereas many of the hardest hit areas in New Orleans and the Gulf Coast from Hurricane Katrina were low-income and minority communities already facing decades of environmental injustices;

Whereas at least 9 major oil spills, and scores of smaller oil and hazardous substance spills, leaks, and other releases have occurred;

Whereas 60 underground storage tanks, hazardous waste storage facilities, and industrial facilities, and 5 Superfund sites in New Orleans were hit by Hurricane Katrina, yet monitoring reported to date has only been conducted at a handful of sites for a limited number of contaminants;

Whereas nearly 1,000 drinking-water systems were disabled or impaired because of power outages or structural damage, many people have been told to boil their water, and safe drinking water may not be available for the entire population for years to come;

Whereas the Environmental Protection Agency's initial water quality tests found that flood water in New Orleans contains 10 times more E. Coli bacteria than the Agency considers safe for human contact and lead concentrations that exceed drinking water standards, and the mix of contaminants poses a serious disease risk to those wading through the filthy water;

Whereas proper implementation and enforcement of Federal public health and environmental regulations are necessary to protect human health, especially among vulnerable populations, and are necessary in times of emergency to ensure that the response to a disaster does not exacerbate the initial impact;

Whereas major industrial facilities and toxic waste sites disproportionately impact low-income individuals, minorities, children, the elderly, and all underserved communities;

Whereas more than 1 in 4 Americans, including 10,000,000 children, live within 4 miles of a Superfund site, which poses serious public health issues when sites are not cleaned up adequately and in a timely manner;

Whereas the health of low-income and minority communities continues to suffer, largely because of the cumulative impact of all sources of pollution on public health in the acute impact area and the failure to consider cumulative impacts upon siting of new industrial facilities and cleanup of existing toxic communities;

Whereas the addition of poor environmental protection and enforcement to existing health vulnerabilities has only exacerbated the conditions in these communities, which often suffer from higher rates of illness and death in comparison with middle-class, suburban, and more affluent communities;

Whereas Federal public health and environmental laws provide many opportunities to address environmental risks and hazards in minority and low-income communities if applied and implemented;

Whereas Executive Order 12898 states that each Federal agency shall make achieving environmental justice part of its mission by identifying and addressing, as appropriate, disproportionately high and adverse human health or environmental effects of its programs, policies, and activities on minority and low-income populations;

Whereas in 2005, the Congress passed and President Bush signed into law (Public Law 109-54) language prohibiting the Environmental Protection Agency from using appropriated funds to work in contravention of Executive Order 12898 and further delay the implementation of this Order, which is critical to achieving environmental and health equity across all community lines;

Whereas environmental cleanup of affected areas must be done in an effective and timely manner to ensure the victims of Hurricane Katrina can return to their homes without enduring preventable environmental or health risks; and

Whereas weakening, waiving, and rolling back Federal public health and environmental protections would further threaten the heavily-damaged area of the Gulf Coast, negatively impact the public health of the already most-affected communities, and put public health and the environment at greater future risk at the expense of all communities: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the crisis of Hurricane Katrina and other such disasters should not be used to weaken, waive, or roll back Federal public health, environmental, and environmental justice laws and regulations;

(2) State, local, and regional authorities must retain their authority for compliance and permitting of industrial and other facilities, and their role in enforcing and implementing monitoring and cleanup regulations;

(3) testing, monitoring, cleanup, and recovery in the region hit by Hurricane Katrina and other areas of national emergency—

(A) should be completed in a manner designed to protect public health and the environment and ensure habitability of the region and mitigate against the effects of future storms; and

(B) should be carried out in compliance with Executive Order 12898; and

(4) the Federal rebuilding of communities and the economy of the Gulf Region should be a model of the integrated, diverse, and sustainable society that all people in the United States desire and deserve.
