

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

RECOGNIZING GENEVIEVE ROSKEY

HON. SAM GRAVES

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 2, 2005

Mr. GRAVES. Mr. Speaker, I proudly ask you to join me in recognizing Genevieve Roskey of Saint Joseph, MO. Genevieve celebrated her 90th birthday on August 4 of this month, and it is my privilege to offer her my warmest regards on achieving this important milestone. Genevieve is a fine citizen of Missouri and the St. Joseph community. It is an honor to represent Genevieve in the United States Congress, and I wish her all the best on this birthday and many more in the future.

RECOGNIZING DR. ROBERT J. DILLMAN ON THE OCCASION OF HIS BEING NAMED "BUSINESSPERSON OF THE YEAR" BY THE POCONO MOUNTAINS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 2, 2005

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask you and my esteemed colleagues in the House of Representatives to pay tribute to Dr. Robert J. Dillman, president of East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania, on the occasion of his being named "Businessperson of the Year" by the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Dillman is the 12th president of East Stroudsburg University and has served in that capacity since July, 1996.

Since then, he has initiated ambitious and innovative academic and economic development projects that have made a profound impact on the university and on the quality of life and economic revitalization of the region.

During Dr. Dillman's tenure, ESU has become the first university in the United States to offer an undergraduate degree in computer security.

At his direction, the university established an award-winning "Business Accelerator" that focuses on encouraging economic development and entrepreneurial endeavors in the region and has been successful in generating nearly 100 highly skilled jobs in Monroe County.

Dr. Dillman initiated and is leading the planning for the creation of a world class Science and Technology Center on campus.

Dr. Dillman has also partnered with the Pocono Record newspaper to develop a Jazzmasters and Broadway Series which was held for 4 consecutive years.

Under Dr. Dillman's direction, ESU has added a new graduate degree program, "Masters in Management and Leadership." He also oversaw the creation of the Center for Research and Economic Development in 1999.

In recognition of his efforts in community development, workforce training, entrepreneurship and innovation, Dr. Dillman received the Ben Franklin Technology Partners Special Recognition Award in 2004.

Under his leadership, university enrollment has steadily increased. Undergraduate enrollment has risen 20 percent while graduate enrollment climbed 33 percent since 1996. And, just this year, Dr. Dillman oversaw the opening of University Ridge Apartments, a new complex that houses 541 students. Dr. Dillman also guided work that produced a new Admissions Welcome Center, Student Recreation Center, Alumni Center and an Enrollment Services Center.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in congratulating Dr. Dillman on this occasion. His work at East Stroudsburg University demonstrates that he is more than deserving of the "Businessperson of the Year Award." The entire Pocono Mountain community has been enriched by his efforts and it is fitting that he is honored in this way.

IN HONOR AND RECOGNITION OF JAMES D. QUISENBERRY

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 2, 2005

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in tribute and recognition of James D. Quisenberry of Lakewood, OH, upon his induction into the Ohio Veterans Hall of Fame, Class of 2005.

Mr. Quisenberry was one of twenty inductees selected by a 13-member executive committee comprised of veteran leaders from throughout Ohio. He is a highly decorated veteran, and has infused an unwavering sense of integrity, spirit, courage and energy into all personal and professional endeavors.

For the past 18 years, Mr. Quisenberry has been an active volunteer with the March of Dimes, and his vital outreach as a sponsor and counselor with Alcoholics Anonymous has uplifted the lives of countless individuals and families throughout our community. He also served for many years as a Boy Scout Leader. Mr. Quisenberry was instrumental in establishing the "Greater Cleveland Veterans Memorial," and has reflected an ongoing spirit of volunteerism and leadership roles with numerous veterans and civic organizations. He is the current president of the Memorial Day Association of Greater Cleveland, which organizes the placement of flags on graves of veterans at Holy Cross Cemetery.

Mr. Speaker and colleagues, please join me in honor and recognition of James D. Quisenberry, upon his induction into the Ohio Veterans Hall of Fame. Mr. Quisenberry's unwavering commitment to his family, community and country, continues to enrich our community and our entire Nation.

IN HONOR AND MEMORY OF SPECIALIST KENDELL K. FREDERICK

HON. C.A. DUTCH RUPPERSBERGER

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 2, 2005

Mr. RUPPERSBERGER. Mr. Speaker, I rise before you today to honor Specialist Kendell K. Frederick who died the 19th of October 2005 in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Frederick, a mechanic working on power generators, was killed outside of Tikrit, Iraq. He died of serious injuries when a roadside-improvised explosive device detonated near the military vehicle which he was driving.

Frederick, a native of Randallstown, Maryland was an Army Reservist assigned to Headquarters Company, 983rd Engineer Battalion in Monclova, OH.

The Randallstown High School Alumni is succeeded by his father, Peter Ramsahai, his mother, Michelle Murphy, his stepfather, Kenmore Murphy, his two sisters, and his brother.

Mr. Speaker, today I ask that you join with me in honoring the life of a man truly dedicated to serving his country.
