

HONORING SPECIAL AGENT MICHAEL WOLF FOR HIS MANY YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY

HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 3, 2005

Ms. DeLAURO. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to extend my sincere thanks and appreciation to Special Agent Michael Wolf who has served the Federal Bureau of Investigation for over 30 years. Just last month we learned that Special Agent Wolf would be leaving the New Haven Field Office to a new position at the Washington Headquarters. It was with great excitement that we heard Special Agent Wolf had been selected by FBI Director Robert Mueller, III to serve as Special Agent in Charge of the Critical Incident Response Group.

Throughout his career, Special Agent Wolf has demonstrated a unique commitment to public service and has dedicated a lifetime to ensuring the safety and security of our communities and our Nation. He has exhibited a deep commitment to public safety not only in joining the Federal Bureau of Investigation, but in successfully combating crime in a myriad of forms.

Joining the Bureau in 1973 as a physical science technician, Agent Wolf was soon appointed to the position of Special Agent. His first assignment took him to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania where he worked on applicant, white collar crime, organized crime, and narcotics matters. Just 5 years later, Agent Wolf was selected as a member of the Bureau's Hostage Rescue Team where he served for 3 years until his promotion to FBIHQ Supervisor, responsible for domestic terrorism matters. Transferred to the New Haven Field Office as a Field Supervisor, Agent Wolf headed the Crime/Drug Squad in Connecticut and supervised the successful development of a case against organized crime. He then went on to be promoted to the position of Inspector which brought him back to FBI headquarters.

For the last 6 years, Agent Wolf has served as Special Agent in Charge of the FBI in Connecticut. I am so pleased to have this opportunity to express my deepest thanks and appreciation to Special Agent Wolf for his gracious assistance to both myself and my staff during his tenure in New Haven. His door has always been open to us, always available to answer our questions or assist in any way that he could. It gives me piece of mind to know that Special Agent Wolf will be next serving as the Special Agent in Charge of the Critical Incident Response Group. Through the myriad of positions he has held and variety of responsibilities he has been charged with, Agent Wolf has developed a distinguished reputation and an impressive resume. With his knowledge, expertise, and strong work ethic, I have no doubt that this new division of the Bureau will be successful in their mission.

For his invaluable service and continued commitment to public service, I am proud to stand today to pay tribute to Special Agent Michael Wolf. I extend my very best wishes to Agent Wolf; his wife, Francine; and his daughters, Danielle and Lindsay as he accepts this new post in Washington, DC. I have no doubt that he will excel in this position and work diligently to ensure the safety and security of our communities and our Nation. Good Luck and God Bless.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. ROBERT MENENDEZ

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 3, 2005

Mr. MENENDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I was absent from votes in the House on Wednesday, November 2, due to a previous and unavoidable commitment. Therefore, I was unable to vote on H.R. 1606, the Online Freedom of Speech Act, rollcall No. 559; H.R. 4061, the Department of Veterans Affairs Information Technology Management Improvement Act, rollcall No. 560; and H.R. 1691, the John H. Bradley Department of Veterans Affairs Outpatient Clinic Designation Act, rollcall No. 561. Had I been present, I would have voted "nay" on rollcall 559 and "yea" on rollcalls 560 and 561.

TRIBUTE TO THE 29TH ANNUAL ASIAN-AMERICAN CHARITY BALL

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKEY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 3, 2005

Mr. VISCLOSKEY. Mr. Speaker, it is my distinct pleasure to announce that the Asian-American Medical Association will be hosting the 29th Annual Asian-American Charity Ball on Saturday, November 5, 2005, at the Avalon Manor in Hobart, Indiana. Each year, the Asian-American Medical Association honors prominent, extraordinary citizens for their contributions to the community. In recognition of their tremendous efforts, these individuals are honored at the banquet and awarded the prestigious Crystal Globe Award.

The Asian American Medical Association is a great asset to Northwest Indiana. This organization has dedicated itself to providing quality service to the residents of Indiana's First Congressional District and has demonstrated exemplary service in its cultural, scholastic, and charitable endeavors.

At this year's annual charity gala, the Asian-American Medical Association will present Mr. Gus Olympidis with the Crystal Globe award. Gus is the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Family Express Corporation based in Valparaiso, Indiana. He currently serves as a Director and a member of the Executive Committee of Centier Bank. He is also a Director of the Valparaiso Community Development Corporation, Director of the Northwest Indiana Forum, and Director of Valparaiso University's College of Business Administration Advisory Council. He also serves on the Porter County Foundation Board.

Amongst Gus's many positive accomplishments throughout his civic and convenience store industry engagements, he has also taken on the role of President of the Valparaiso Parks and Recreation Foundation, Chairman of the Valparaiso Chamber of Commerce, and was a member of the Valparaiso University Town and Gown committee and a Board member on the Regional Development Authority Committee. I am honored to commend Gus for his commitment and dedication to the well being of those who seek his knowledge and leadership. His efforts and hard work are worthy of the highest recognition.

Although Gus's career consumes much of his time, Gus has never limited the time he gives to his most important interest, his family. He and his wife, Beth, have three children and two grandchildren.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that you and my other distinguished colleagues join me in commending the Asian American Medical Society and Gus Olympidis for their outstanding contributions to the community. Their commitment to improving the quality of life for the people of Northwest Indiana and throughout the world is truly inspirational and should be recognized and commended.

TRIBUTE TO COLORADO'S 137TH SPACE WARNING SQUADRON

HON. MARILYN N. MUSGRAVE

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 3, 2005

Mrs. MUSGRAVE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate a truly outstanding component of this Nation's defense—the 137th Space Warning Squadron based in Greeley, Colorado. For the fourth time in five years that squadron has won the Distinguished Mission Support Plaque. This coveted award is sponsored by the National Guard Association of the United States and is presented by Lt. General Daniel James, Director of the Air National Guard. Only five units from the entire Air National Guard are selected to receive this prestigious award recognizing superlative performance in the defense of our nation.

In congratulating the unit for its outstanding performance, I would like to give special recognition to the former commander of the 137th Space Warning Squadron, Brigadier General Select William E. Hudson, Air National Guard. During his nearly 10 years of service, from 1996 to 2005, Colonel Hudson served as Director of Operations and then as Commander of the unit. He led the unit through numerous real world and exercise operational programs. On September 11, 2001 and afterwards, Colonel Hudson ensured that the 137th Space Warning Squadron would meet and exceed its mission responsibilities to Air Force Space Command. I would also like to recognize Brigadier General Mike Edwards of the 140th Wing at Buckley Air Force Base and Major General Mason Whitney, the Colorado Adjutant General, for their superlative support of the 137th Space Warning Squadron.

In 2003 the squadron was rated "Excellent" by USAF Space Command's Operational Readiness Inspection Team for exceptional performance and outstanding leadership. In addition, the unit has received ratings of Excellent to Outstanding at countless inspections since its stand-up in 1996. The National Guard Association's Distinguished Mission Support Plaque showcases the outstanding leadership, operational ability, and professional competence of Colorado Air National Guardsmen and women at the 137th Space Warning Squadron.

I am so proud that this unit constantly goes above and beyond in its defense of Colorado
