PRIVATE PROPERTY RIGHTS

(Mr. WESTMORELAND asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. WESTMORELAND. Madam Speaker, Republicans are moving forward to protect one of the most foundational rights we cherish, the right to own private property. One of our great former Presidents, John Adams, said: "Property is surely a right of mankind as real as liberty." The first Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court said: "No power on Earth has a right to take our property from us without our consent."

We have seen our Supreme Court rule that property can be taken from one private owner and given to another. Republicans in Congress are taking action to fix this problem with legislation we will consider today on the House floor. Government should not and must not have the authority to take property away from private landowners for the sole sake of giving it to another private landowner.

Madam Speaker, I applaud the efforts of the majority in bringing forward this important legislation and look forward to supporting it on the floor this afternoon.

ADVANCE DIRECTIVES

(Mr. GINGREY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. GINGREY. Madam Speaker, I rise today in support of the 27th annual National Hospice and Palliative Care Month. This month health organizations all around the country will be educating individuals on what it means to have an advance directive, or living will. So today I am joining with these organizations to encourage everyone to take a moment and discuss with their loved ones what their wishes would be in a health care situation where they were unable to communicate them.

Madam Speaker, the term "advance directive" describes two types of legal documents that can enable you to plan for and communicate your end-of-life issues in the event you are unable to convey them yourself.

First, Madam Speaker, is a living will. It allows you to document your wishes concerning medical treatments at the end of life. The second is a medical power of attorney, or health care proxy, which allows you to appoint a person you trust as your health care agent. This person would be authorized to make medical decisions on your behalf.

Madam Speaker, living wills and medical powers of attorney are valuable tools to help communicate wishes about future medical care. Thoughtfully prepared advance directives can ease the burden on those who must make health care decisions for us.

In conclusion, I want to encourage all Americans to set aside time to have what may very well be one of the most important conversations that a family can have.

US VERSUS THEM

(Mr. EMANUEL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. EMANUEL. Madam Speaker, an esteemed colleague recently said, it is much better to be us than to be them. He is probably right. It is better to be us than a middle-class family burdened with high energy costs, rising health care inflation and $8 trillion in national debt. It is probably better to be a Republican Member of Congress than a college student whose loans are about to be cut, or a child who has lost their health care because of a Republican Congress.

After years of reckless spending, the Republican Congress has left the Nation $3 trillion further in the hole.

But rather than going after corporate welfare, like the $16.5 billion handouts to oil and gas companies, this Congress is about to cut $50 billion from investments in middle-class families. They are eliminating nearly 40,000 children's nutritional programs. And while the average year of tuition at a State university is now $15,000 a year, the Republican Congress is cutting student loan programs by $14 billion. They are slashing $12 billion from Medicaid, affecting nearly 20,000 children currently covered by the program.

For what? So the Republican Congress can cut taxes for the wealthiest 1 percent. There is no question, it is better to be a Republican Member of Congress than a middle-class family.

Madam Speaker, the American people deserve better. We can do better. We need a new set of priorities, a change in the status quo.

SUPPORT FOR THE WAR IN IRAQ

(Mrs. BLACKBURN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. BLACKBURN. Madam Speaker, night after night we watch the left come to the floor and beat the drums of retreat on the war on terrorism. They want us out of Iraq, they want us out of the Middle East, and they want us to end our aggressive war on terrorism.

I have to admit in my heart I would like to see the troops home, but my intellect tells me we cannot afford to leave our children a world in which Middle Eastern terrorists have free reign.

I want our troops to know that they have a grateful Nation behind them, regardless of what they may hear from some in this body. I want our Tennessee National Guardsmen, our Fort Campbell families and, as we approach Veterans' Day, all of our Nation's patriotic veterans to know we appreciate their service and their commitment.

As of October 4, 2005, a total of 206,500 Iraqi security forces have been trained and equipped. That is progress, and the American people can be confident that progress is being made.

So do not believe the ranting of the left when they tell you all is lost, that hope is pointless and that we are losing. We are not.

EXPRESSING CONCERN ABOUT WAR IN IRAQ

(Mr. MCGOVERN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MCGOVERN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to once again express my deep concern about this war in Iraq, which is a violent, endless quagmire. Those of us who dissent on this war support our troops. We honor our troops. We respect our troops. In fact, one of the things that we have tried to do is urge the other side of the aisle to provide budgets that actually support our troops when they come home.

It is shameful that our veterans' budgets get slashed each and every year. If Members of Congress are going to send young men and women over to Iraq to fight in this war, we had better make sure that when they come back they have the resources they need to get on with their lives.

We have lost 2,000 Americans in this war. There is no end in sight. There have been no weapons of mass destruction. There was no imminent threat. There was no nuclear threat. There was no tie to al Qaeda.

This war has nothing to do with the War on Terror. In fact, it has diverted important resources from the overall war on terror. We need to get our priorities straight. We need to focus on the war on terror. Let us end this war in Iraq.

HONORING PLAYERS, STAFF AND PARENTS OF COUNCIL ROCK-NEWTOWN LITTLE LEAGUE TEAM

(Mr. FITZPATRICK of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FITZPATRICK of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, it is my honor and privilege this week to host the players, staff and families of Bucks County, Pennsylvania's own Council Rock-Newtown Little League team to our Nation's Capital.

This past August, the CR-Newtown team defeated the Toms River American Little League team of Toms River, New Jersey, to qualify for a seat at the 59th Little League World Series. Their victory marked the first mid-Atlantic championship for Pennsylvania since 1960, and their 20 post-season victories
