

TRIBUTE TO RON HOLLIDAY

HON. MARK UDALL

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 7, 2006

Mr. UDALL of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Mr. Ron G. Holliday. Mr. Holliday will be retiring as County Manager of Summit County, Colorado, on January 5, 2007, after having served 4½ years in this position. Prior to his position in Summit County, Mr. Holliday served 5 years as the County Administrator for Jefferson County, Colorado. Before his county government experience, Mr. Holliday served over three decades as Director of State Parks in Texas, Colorado and Montana.

Together, these years of exemplary service by Mr. Holliday amount to nearly four decades working for the citizens and environment of many Colorado and other western communities.

As Summit County Manager, Mr. Holliday worked on issues related to forest health, the present bark beetle epidemic, increasing growth and development in this county along the critical Interstate 70 corridor, ski area and tourist management, as well as roadless issues in our national forests. He brought a collaborative spirit to all of these endeavors, and the citizens of Summit County have a thriving economy and a roadmap to help address future issues and needs.

As County Administrator for Jefferson County, Colorado, Mr. Holliday oversaw more than 1,200 employees and was responsible for daily operations and a $344 million annual budget. He was serving this county at a time of significant growth, resulting in challenging transportation needs. To address this, he structured a multi-agency intergovernmental agreement for crucial transportation planning. He also helped guide the $150 million open space acquisition program and helped win passage of a voter approved $160 million open space bond issue.

Mr. Holliday also helped coordinate the county's administrative response to the tragic Columbine High School shooting. This incident garnered worldwide attention, and Mr. Holliday was part of the county's coordination team to manage the fallout from this unfortunate incident.

Prior to his work with Jefferson County, Mr. Holliday was Director of State Parks for the State of Texas for 5 years. At this position he oversaw 140 State parks with natural, recreational and historic significance encompassing 600,000 acres. He developed strategic plans for these attractions and tripled the revenue in 3 years. He also worked to create three new parks under his management.

Mr. Holliday secured similar achievements as Director of Colorado State Parks where he worked for 7 years. He increased the revenue of this office and developed strategic plans and longrange visions to our State's impressive park system. He got his start in this work for open space protection and visitor enjoyment working as State Park Director for Montana prior to working for State Parks in Colorado.

Throughout his work for open space, parks and county government, Mr. Holliday has brought a keen appreciation of the importance of preserving a quality environment and thriving economy for the benefit of the local communities he served as well as the entire States and Nation. His dedication to public service and his communities stands as a model for future managers and directors who act as stewards of our lands and communities.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in thanking Mr. Holliday for his dedicated, collaborative service. I wish him the very best in his future endeavors and continued contributions.

A TRIBUTE TO GEORGE MANIAS OF PEORIA, ILLINOISHON. RAY LAHOOD

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 7, 2006

Mr. LAHOOD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to George Manias, a man who is a legend in my hometown of Peoria, Illinois.

Yesterday, George Manias celebrated the 60th anniversary of the opening of his shoeshine business in Peoria. George Manias is the true personification of the American dream. The son of Greek immigrants who spoke no English when he came to Peoria, he was just 16 years old when he opened his business. From that first day in the corner of a downtown barbershop, George has worked tirelessly to make his shop a great success.

George has shined the shoes of countless people, from his fellow Peorians to former Presidents Gerald Ford and Ronald Reagan. The walls of his shop are covered with photos and clippings of the more famous of his customers, but each customer is special to George. His pride in his workmanship and his love of people are evident no matter who walks through his door.

This week, the Peoria City Council honored George with a resolution commemorating his 60th anniversary, and tonight, there is a big celebration planned for him. I want to add my congratulations to George and his family on reaching this milestone in his career. George Manias is truly the pride of Peoria.

HONORING THE DEPARTING FLORIDA
MEMBERS OF THE HOUSEHON. GINNY BROWN-WAITE

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 7, 2006

Ms. GINNY BROWN-WAITE of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the four departing Members of the Florida Delegation. These Members, MIKE BILIRAKIS, JIM DAVIS, KATHERINE HARRIS, and CLAY SHAW, are leaving with a combined 64 years of congressional service. Our State is losing dedicated public servants who have worked on behalf of their constituents and the Nation. Their input will be sorely missed in the 110th Congress.

MIKE BILIRAKIS is a shining example of heartfelt dedication to veterans' issues and is someone whose passion for veterans is hard to duplicate. Having shared many flights back and forth to DC with MIKE, I can tell you that I learned a great deal from him during my time in Congress.

I always found JIM DAVIS to be a thoughtful, respectful, and thought-provoking Member of Congress. I enjoyed serving with him because of his southern genteel manner.

KATHERINE HARRIS brought an amazing amount of energy to the House. We served together on the Financial Services and Homeland Security Committees, where I saw her dedication to the issues and the people of Florida. She is especially known for helping those looking to join the ranks of homeowners by fighting to pass the American Dream Downpayment Act.

CLAY SHAW worked tirelessly to find alternative approaches for preserving Social Security for future generations. While never the most flashy Member, CLAY was instead known for his legislative accomplishments as a senior member of the Ways and Means Committee. Not only was he the foremost proponent to save the Everglades, CLAY made America a better place by helping push welfare reform through Congress.

While each of these public servants will be replaced in the 110th Congress, their memories will not be forgotten. MIKE, JIM, KATHERINE, CLAY, we will miss you up here in Washington and wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors.

TRIBUTE TO A DEMOCRATIC
TAIWANHON. THADDEUS G. McCOTTER

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 7, 2006

Mr. McCOTTER. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to honor and acknowledge Taiwan's democratic practices and respect for human rights.

For 20 years, Taiwan's promotion of liberty, the rule of law, freedom of the press, an independent judiciary, and associative rights have contributed to the creation and continuation of a mature democracy. Through electoral competition which expanded their rights and innovative legislation which improved the lives of the Taiwanese citizenry, over time democratic practices, institutionalized democracy, and fostered the Nation's emancipation from authoritarian rule; and ensured the Nation's allegiance to liberty and justice.

Mr. Speaker, over the years, Taiwan has been a staunch ally of the United States and a responsible member of the community of nations. Thus, today, I ask my colleagues to join me in commending the people of Taiwan for establishing a flourishing, multi-party democracy and for their dedication to democratic ideals and human rights.

IRISH-AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTHHON. SCOTT GARRETT

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 7, 2006

Mr. GARRETT of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the resolution calling for a month to remember the significant achievements and contributions that Irish-Americans have made to our Nation.

Throughout our more than 200 years of history as a Nation and during our colonial period, countless immigrants from the Emerald

Isle have arrived on our shores. Irish-Americans have been instrumental in building up our strong, free, and prosperous Nation at every turn in our Nation's rich history. Despite initial discrimination, Irish-Americans used the freedom and opportunity of the United States to build strong communities and businesses and prove themselves great Americans.

Though many Irish came to American shores with little but the clothes on their backs, their hard work and integrity made them great American leaders. While we are all aware of President Kennedy's pride in his Irish heritage, 18 other presidents are of Irish descent including Andrew Jackson, Woodrow Wilson, and Ronald Reagan.

There is a great legacy of Irish-American service in our military with many recipients of the Congressional Medal of Honor claiming Irish heritage or birth. Irish immigrants have contributed significantly in our Armed Services as well, ensuring full freedom for all Americans.

While many Americans remember their Irish heritage on St. Patrick's Day, because of the great contribution of Irish-Americans to our Nation, it is fitting that we dedicate an entire month of ceremonies and celebrations to their achievements.

TRIBUTE TO BUSINESSES IN MARIN COUNTY, CALIFORNIA
THAT DO NOT SELL TOBACCO PRODUCTS

HON. LYNN C. WOOLSEY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 7, 2006

Ms. WOOLSEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the businesses in Marin County, California, that have stopped selling tobacco products in order to protect the health of the public.

Recently, I attended an event with the American Heart Association at Mollie Stone's Market in Greenbrae to officially announce the removal of all tobacco products in their Bay Area stores, including two in Marin County. At that time, Michael Stone, cofounder Mollie Stone's, said, "I don't think there's been a company our size taking this proactive action . . . we did it for health reasons for the community." The American Heart Association described this as "an aggressive, positive approach to help stop the spread of smoking."

Larry Meredith, Director of Marin County Health and Human Services, added, "Tobacco is the No. 1 cause of preventable death in the United States today . . . The decision by Mollie Stone's to go tobacco free is another jewel given to the community." A survey by this department found that other stores are considering the same move, citing concerns for general public health and youth smoking. Two years ago when United Markets, a small Marin independent chain, pulled their tobacco products, coowner Bill Daniels announced that "it's just the right thing to do."

Other Marin County stores that have decided it's the right thing to do are: AG Ferrari Foods, Golden Gate Pharmacy, Golden Point Produce/Tomales Bay Foods, Good Earth Natural Foods, Cornucopia Gourmet Deli, Elephant Pharmacy, Jack's Drug Store, Kaiser, Marin Medical Pharmacy, Pharmaca Integrative Pharmacy, Paradise Foods, Peoples Market, Pueblo Latino Market, Olema Liquor and Deli, Ross Valley Pharmacy, Royal Coach Car Wash, Target, Trader Joe's, Western Sport Shop, and Whole Foods.

The County of Marin is also setting an example in protecting public health. For example, with funding from a tobacco settlement agreement, the Department of Health and Human Services has developed a program to crack down on illegal sales of tobacco products to minors, and the Board of Supervisors recently passed an ordinance expanding smoking bans to outdoor public gathering spaces such as parks and ATM lines.

Mr. Speaker, we all know that smoking is a major cause of diseases that are hurting public health, straining our medical system, and putting millions of individuals at risk. I commend these businesses and the County of Marin for their courage and foresight in responding to this threat by limiting tobacco use and availability, and I honor all businesses that add their names to this growing list.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. CHARLIE NORWOOD

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 7, 2006

Mr. NORWOOD. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 526; Unborn Child Pain Awareness Act. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea".

TRIBUTE TO DON TALLEY

HON. WILLIAM M. THOMAS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 7, 2006

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to my friend, Don Talley, who was both a nationally recognized leader in the agriculture industry as well as a local community leader. Sadly, Don passed away on Saturday, December 2, 2006, at the age of 66, and I extend my heartfelt sympathy to Don's wife, Rosemary, his son, Brian, and the rest of his family for their loss.

Don was president and a coowner of Talley Farms, a specialty crop operation in the Arroyo Grande area, which I represent. Founded in 1948, under Don's auspices, Talley Farms grew to encompass more than 1,150 acres. In 1982, he established Talley Vineyards, which produces a collection of fine wines. Over his lifetime, Don successfully worked to build Talley Farms and Vineyards into nationally respected entities. Talley Farms grew a variety of specialty crops and was especially renowned for growing the best bell peppers.

As president of Talley Farms, Don established and implemented environmentally sound farming practices, developed innovative agricultural techniques for growing, harvesting, and packaging produce, and was noted for treating his employees well. Moreover, Don served in leadership positions with the Western Growers Association, Ag Box, the Council of California Growers, the California Agriculture Leadership Foundation, and Farm Credit West.

One of Don's hallmark legacies was his strong personal leadership efforts to improve relations between the California agriculture industry and local communities. Notably Don was named Agriculturist of the Year in 1992 by the County of San Luis Obispo Farm Bureau and was voted Grower of the Year in 2004 by the Western Growers Association. In addition to Don's leadership in the agricultural industry, he served on the Arroyo Grande City Council and as mayor from 1974 to 1976. He also was a commissioner for the Parks and Recreation Commission and a member of the Cuesta College Board of Trustees.

Don will be remembered not only for his leadership and achievements, but also for his community service, selflessness, and compassion for his employees. California agriculture suffered a significant loss with the death of Don Talley.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. NANCY
ROBERTS GARRITY

HON. DANIEL LIPINSKI

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 7, 2006

Mr. LIPINSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Mrs. Nancy Roberts Garrity, a teacher at St. John Fisher School and recipient of the National Catholic Educational Association's Distinguished Teacher Award. Mrs. Garrity will receive her award at the NCEA annual conference on April 10, 2007. She was selected out of a pool of more than 100,000 nominees.

The National Catholic Educational Association (NCEA), the largest professional association in the world, offers guidance and educational services to its 200,000 members. During the Fall of each year, every member school is invited to nominate one teacher for the Distinguished Teacher Award. This award was established in honor of Sister Miriam Joseph Farrell, who served as executive secretary of the NCEA's Department of Elementary Schools. The NCEA divides the country into 12 geographic regions, with one teacher in each region receiving this award.

St. John Fisher School is located in Chicago's West Beverly neighborhood. This parochial school provides educational opportunities for preschool through eighth grade students, where teachers serve as influential figures in developing students' lives.

Mrs. Garrity is guided by the belief that each student uniquely contributes to her classroom. She utilizes creative teaching methods in order to cater to individual educational needs. For example, when teaching her class about A Christmas Carol, she plays the part of Jacob Marley's ghost, complete with chains and a ghostly voice. During the poetry section of her reading class she dresses up as a hippie. Mrs. Garrity's creative methods of teaching allow her students to reach their full potential.

Mrs. Garrity has been a teacher at St. John Fisher School since 1990. The Catholic educational system has given her the ability to influence her student's lives with her passion for teaching, which is evident in her students' drive to succeed.

It is my honor to recognize Mrs. Nancy Roberts Garrity as a recipient of the Distinguished Teacher Award. Teachers, like Mrs. Garrity, are key to our children's futures.
