14 the Director of Competitiveness for Least-De-15 veloped Countries (established in section 401 of 16 the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961) deter-17 mines, based upon the annual Report Card on 18 Competitiveness submitted under section 402(e)
19 of that Act, and after interagency consultations
20 and consideration of any comments by Members 21 of Congress that are made upon review of such 22 annual Report Card, or based upon the review 23 and assessment of a petition submitted under

25 beneficiary country is not meeting the stand-

1 ards required by subparagraphs (A), (B), (D),
2 and (E) of paragraph (2), then—

3 “(i) the Director shall enter into con-
4 sultations with the qualified beneficiary

19 gibility for preferential treatment under 20 subsection (a).

21 “(B) TERMINATION OF ELIGIBILITY.—The 22 President may not terminate the eligibility of a 23 country on any basis under paragraph (2) be-24 fore the end of the 3-month period beginning on

1 the date on which the President notifies the 2 Congress of the President's intention to do so.

3 “(C) REINSTATEMENT OF ELIGIBILITY.—

4 The President may reinstate the eligibility for 5 preferential treatment under subsection (a) of a 6 country whose eligibility has been terminated 7 under subparagraph (A) only if the Director of 8 Competitiveness for Least-Developed Countries 9 determines, based upon the most recent annual 10 Report Card on Competitiveness referred to in 11 subparagraph (A) and after interagency con-
12 sultations and consideration of any comments
13 by Members of Congress that are made upon
14 review of such annual Report Card, that the 15 qualified beneficiary country has met the stand-
16 ards required by subparagraphs (A), (B), (D),
17 and (E) of paragraph (2).

18 “(c) ELIGIBLE ARTICLES.—

19 “(1) RULES OF ORIGIN.—

20 “(A) IN GENERAL.—The duty-free treat-21 ment provided under this section shall apply to 22 any article that is the growth, product, or man-23 ufacture of a qualified beneficiary country if—

24 “(i) the article is imported directly 25 from a qualified beneficiary country into

1 the customs territory of the United States;

2 and

3 “(ii) the sum of—

4 “(I) the cost or value of the ma-
5 terials produced in 1 or more qualified

20 applied by substituting ‘25 percent’ for ‘35 per-21 cent’.

22 “(C) DETERMINATION OF PERCENTAGE.—
23 For purposes of determining the percentage re-
24 ferred to in subparagraph (A)(ii), the term
25 ‘qualified beneficiary country’ includes the Com-

1 monwealth of Puerto Rico and the United 2 States Virgin Islands. If the cost or value of 3 materials produced in the customs territory of 4 the United States (other than the Common-5 wealth of Puerto Rico) is included with respect 6 to an article to which this paragraph applies, an 7 amount not to exceed 15 percent of the ap-
8 praised value of the article at the time it is en-
9 tered that is attributed to such United States
10 cost or value may be applied toward deter-
11 mining the percentage referred to in subpara-
12 graph (A)(ii).

13 “(D) EXCLUSIONS.—An article shall not
14 be treated as the growth, product, or manufac-
15 ture of a qualified beneficiary developing coun-
16 try by virtue of having merely undergone—

17 “(i) simple combining or packaging
18 operations, or

19 “(ii) mere dilution with water or mere 20 dilution with another substance that does 21 not materially alter the characteristics of 22 the article.

23 “(E) DIRECT COSTS OF PROCESSING OPER-
24 ATIONS.—As used in this paragraph, the term
25 ‘direct costs of processing operations’—

1 “(i) includes, but is not limited to—

2 “(I) all actual labor costs in-
3 volved in the growth, production,
4 manufacture, or assembly of the spe-
5 cific merchandise, including fringe 6 benefits, on-the-job training and the 7 cost of engineering, supervisory, qual-
8 ity control, and similar personnel; and 9 “(II) dies, molds, tooling, and de-

10 preciation on machinery and equip-
11 ment which are allocable to the spe-12 cific merchandise; and 13 “(ii) does not include costs that are 14 not directly attributable to the merchan-

15 dise concerned or are not costs of manu-16 facturing the product, such as—

17 “(I) profit; and 18 “(II) general expenses of doing

19 business that are either not allocable
20 to the specific merchandise or are not 21 related to the growth, production,
22 manufacture, or assembly of the mer-
23 chandise, such as administrative sala-
24 ries, casualty and liability insurance,
25 advertising, interest, and salaries,

1                   commissions, or expenses of sales per-2                   sonnel.

3                   “(2) ADJUSTMENT RULE.—

4                   “(A) ADJUSTMENT RULE FOR SIGNIFICANT
5                   APPAREL SUPPLIERS.—In each of calendar
6                   years 2009 through 2019, in the case of a prod-7                   uct described in subparagraph (B) that is the 8                   growth, product, or manufacture of a signifi-
9                   cant apparel supplier, the preferential treat-10                  ment under subsection (a) shall be limited to 11                  the aggregate square meter equivalent of such 12                  product that entered from that significant ap-13                  parel supplier in calendar year 2007.

14                  “(B) PRODUCTS.—The products referred 15                  to in subparagraph (A) are the following:

16                  “(i) Men’s and boys’ trousers, breech-

19                  “(ii) Women’s and girls’ trousers,

5           made from cotton or man-made fibers.

12          from cotton or man-made fibers.

13          “(C) ALTERNATIVE ADJUSTMENT RULE
14          FOR SIGNIFICANT APPAREL SUPPLIER.—If a 15          significant apparel supplier qualifies under sub-
16          paragraph (D) for the competitiveness incentive
17          for a calendar year after calendar year 2009, 18          then the quantitative limitation under subpara-19          graph (A) for that calendar year shall be in-20          creased by 15 percent over the quantitative lim-
21          itation that applied to that supplier in the pre-22          ceding calendar year.

23          “(D) COMPETITIVE INCENTIVE.—A signifi-
24          cant apparel supplier qualifies for the competi-
25          tiveness incentive for a calendar year if the Di-

1 rector of Competitiveness for Least-Developed 2 Countries established in section 401(b) of the 3 Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 determines, on 4 the basis of the annual Report Card on Com-5 petitiveness submitted under section 402(e) of 6 that Act, and after meaningful interagency con-
7 sultations and consideration of any comments
8 by Members of Congress that are made upon
9 review of such annual Report Card, that the 10 country—

11 “(i) has adopted and maintained in its 12 statutes and regulations, and practices 13 thereunder, those labor rights set forth in 14 subsection (b)(2)(A)(i) of this section; and 15 “(ii) has not failed to effectively en-

16 force laws directly related to these rights 17 and to acceptable conditions of work with 18 respect to minimum wages, hours of work,
19 and occupational safety and health.

20 “(E) SIGNIFICANT APPAREL SUPPLIER DE-21 FINED.—For purposes of this paragraph, the 22 term ‘significant apparel supplier’ means Ban-
23 gladesh and Cambodia.

24 “(d) PROTECTION AGAINST TRANSSHIPMENT.—The 25 preferential treatment under this section may not be ex-

1 tended to textile and apparel articles imported from a 2 qualified beneficiary country unless that country meets the 3 requirements of section 113 of African Growth and Oppor-
4 tunity Act, except that in applying that section—

5           “(1) any reference to a ‘sub-Saharan African 6 country’ or to ‘sub-Saharan African countries’ shall 7 be deemed to refer to a qualified beneficiary country
8 or to qualified beneficiary countries, as the case may 9 be; and

10           “(2) any reference to ‘section 112’ shall be 11 deemed to refer to this section.

12           “(e) SAFEGUARD FOR AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS.—

13           “(1) IN GENERAL.—In the case of an agricul-14 tural product that would otherwise be subject to a 15 tariff-rate quota for which preferential treatment is 16 claimed under this section, the President shall assess 17 a duty, in the amount prescribed under paragraph 18 (2), on imports of that product in excess of that tar-19 iff-rate quota if the President determines that the 20 unit import price of the product when it enters the 21 United States, determined on an F.O.B. basis, is 22 less than the annual trigger price determined under 23 paragraph (4).

1           “(2) CALCULATION OF ADDITIONAL DUTIES.—

2           The amount of the additional duty under this sub-3           section shall be determined as follows:

4                   “(A) If the difference between the unit im-5                   port price and the trigger price is less than, or 6                   equal to, 10 percent of the trigger price, no ad-7                   ditional duty shall be imposed.

8                   “(B) If the difference between the unit im-
9                   port price and the trigger price is greater than 10                  10 percent, but less than or equal to 40 per-
11                  cent, of the trigger price, the additional duty
12                  shall be equal to 30 percent of the difference
13                  between the preferential tariff rate and the col-
14                  umn 1 general rate of duty imposed under the 15                  HTS on like articles at the time the additional 16                  duty is imposed.

17                  “(C) If the difference between the unit im-
18                  port price and the trigger price is greater than 19                  40 percent, but less than or equal to 60 per-
20                  cent, of the trigger price, the additional duty
21                  shall be equal to 50 percent of the difference
22                  between the preferential tariff rate and the col-
23                  umn 1 general rate of duty imposed under the
24                  HTS on like articles at the time the additional 25                  duty is imposed.

1           “(D) If the difference between the unit im-
2 port price and the trigger price is greater than
3 60 percent, but less than or equal to 75 per-
4 cent, of the trigger price, the additional duty
5 shall be equal to 70 percent of the difference
6 between the preferential tariff rate and the col-
7 umn 1 general rate of duty imposed under the
8 HTS on like articles at the time the additional 9 duty is imposed.

10           “(E) If the difference between the unit im-
11 port price and the trigger price is greater than 12 75 percent of the trigger price, the additional 13 duty shall be equal to 100 percent of the dif-14 ference between the preferential tariff rate and 15 the column 1 general rate of duty imposed 16 under the HTS on like articles at the time the 17 additional duty is imposed.

18           “(3) EXCEPTIONS.—An additional duty under 19 this subsection shall not be assessed on an agricul-
20 tural product if, at the time it is entered, the prod-21 uct is subject to import relief under chapter 1 of 22 title II of this Act.

23           “(4) CALCULATION OF TRIGGER PRICE.—

24           “(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 60 25 days after the date of the enactment of the this

1 section, and annually thereafter, the President
2 shall, in consultation with the Secretary of Ag-3 riculture, establish the annual trigger price for 4 each agricultural product to which this sub-5 section applies, and shall publish such prices in 6 the Federal Register. The trigger price for a 7 product may not be less than the 3-year aver-
8 age import price for that product.

9 “(B) CONSULTATION WITH CONGRES-
10 SIONAL COMMITTEES.—Not later than 30 days
11 before publishing the trigger prices in the Fed-

16 resentatives, and the Committee on Finance
17 and the Committee on Agriculture of the Sen-18 ate, with respect to the proposed trigger prices.

19 “(5) NOTICE TO COUNTRY CONCERNED.—Not 20 later than 60 days after the President first assesses 21 additional duties under this subsection on imports of 22 an agricultural product, the President shall notify 23 the qualified beneficiary country where the product 24 was grown, manufactured, or produced, in writing of

1 such action and shall provide to the country data
2 supporting the assessment of the additional duties.

3 “(6) DEFINITIONS.—In this subsection:

4 “(A) AGRICULTURAL PRODUCT.—The term
5 ‘agricultural product’ means any agricultural

6 preferences provided under this section have bene-7 fitted sub-Saharan African countries and those 8 countries that are not sub-Saharan African coun-
9 tries. The report shall include—

10 “(A) an analysis of the impact that the re-
