2	The Con	gress	finds	the	following:

- 1) During the Gulf War against Iraq in 1991, 4 many Americans serving in the United States Armed 5 Forces were captured, became prisoners of war 6 (POWs), and were subsequently tortured, beaten, 7 starved, hooked to electrical shock devices, and sub-9 jected to other horrendous acts by Saddam Hus-9 sein's regime.
 - (2) At the time these acts occurred, the United States Department of State had classified Iraq as a "state sponsor of terrorism".
 - (3) During that Gulf War, the Congress passed 2 resolutions by unanimous consent, stating an intention to hold Iraq accountable for the torture of American POWs.
 - (4) When these brave American POWs returned home after the Gulf War ended, they were given a hero's welcome by then Secretary of Defense Dick Cheney, who told them, "Your country is opening its arms to greet you".
 - (5) These brave American POWs have suffered long-term physical, emotional, and mental damages as a result of this brutal, state-sponsored torture.
- 25 (6) In 1996, responding to concerns raised by 26 the torture of American POWs in the Gulf War, the

1 Congress passed an amendment to the Foreign Sov-2 ereign Immunities Act (FSIA) so that torture vic-3 tims like the American POWs from the Gulf War

4 could seek compensation for their injuries from ter-

5 rorist countries, including Iraq.

(7) On April 4, 2002, 17 Gulf War POWs and their families filed claims in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia seeking compensation for damages related to their torture and abuse by the Government of Iraq. The POWs included Colonel Clifford Acree, USMC (Ret.); Lieutenant Colonel Craig Berryman, USMC (Ret.); Former Staff Sergeant Troy Dunlap, US Army; Colonel David Eberly, USAF (Ret.); Lieutenant Colonel Jeffrey D. Fox, USAF (Ret.); Chief Warrant Officer 5 Guy Hunter, USMC (Ret.); Sergeant David Lockett, US Army; Colonel H. Michael Roberts, USAF; Colonel Russell Sanborn, USMC; Captain Lawrence Randolph Slade, USN (Ret.); Major Joseph Small, USMC (Ret.); Staff Sergeant Daniel Stamaris, US Army (Ret.); Lieutenant Colonel Richard Dale Storr, Air National Guard; Lieutenant Colonel Robert Sweet, USAF; Lieutenant Colonel Jeffrey Tice, USAF (Ret.); Former Lieutenant Rob-

- ert Wetzel, USN; and Former Commander Jeffrey
 Zaun, USN.
- (8) In 2003, after the Government of Iraq repeatedly refused to participate in arbitration on the damages claims, and after hearing evidence of how the former POWs had been repeatedly tortured, a judge awarded them a judgment for damages, stating that "deterring torture of POWs should be of the highest priority".
 - (9) Article 131 of the Third Geneva Convention relative to the Treatment of Prisoners of War (August 12, 1949) prohibits the United States, as a party to that treaty, from absolving the Government of Iraq of any liability incurred due to the torture of prisoners of war, such as the Gulf War POWs.
 - (10) The United States has a moral obligation to protect its past, present, and future military forces from torture, and the United States Congress is committed to holding state sponsors of terrorism accountable for such horrendous acts.
