A BILL

To provide for the issuance of a semipostal in order to afford a convenient means by which members of the public may contribute towards the acquisition of works of art to honor female pioneers in Government service.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Honoring Female Con-
3 gressional Pioneers Act of 2007”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds as follows:

6 (1) The 74 women currently serving in the 7 House of Representatives owe a debt of gratitude to 8 all of their foremothers who broke down barriers
9 both in their election to, and in the important legis-
10 lative work they accomplished as Members of, the 11 House of Representatives.

12 (2) Four women in particular stand out for 13 their status as the “first” women in certain cat-
14 egories.

15 (3) In 1916, Jeannette Rankin broke new 16 ground by becoming the first woman elected to the 17 House of Representatives, representing the State of 18 Montana, first from 1917 to 1919 and later from 19 1941 to 1943.

20 (4) Jeannette Rankin’s first election was all the 21 more remarkable, considering that it came 3 years
22 before women’s suffrage was a legally guaranteed
23 right throughout the United States.

24 (5) Jeannette Rankin directly contributed to a
25 woman’s right to vote when she introduced a resolu-

1       tion in 1919 to support a women’s suffrage amend-
2       ment to the Constitution of the United States.

3           (6) Jeannette Rankin remained true to her
4       pacifistic ideals both by voting against the declara-
5       tions of World War I and World War II—and in 6       fact was the only Representative to vote against the 7       declaration of World War II—and by working tire-
8       lessly to promote peace during her years outside of 9       Congress.

10          (7) In 1924, Mary Teresa Norton became the 11       first Democratic woman elected to the House of 12       Representatives—and one of a small number of 13       women during that period who were elected in their 14       own right and not to replace their husbands—rep-
15       resenting New Jersey’s Twelfth Congressional Dis-
16       trict from 1925 to 1951.

17          (8) Mary Norton served as the chair of the 18       Committee on the District of Columbia from 1931 to 19       1937, effectively governing the city which at that 20       time had no municipal government of its own.

21          (9) In 1934, Mary Norton became the first 22       woman to chair a major political party in a State as 23       head of the New Jersey State Committee.

24          (10) Mary Norton was instrumental in the 25       drafting and passage in 1938 of a major piece of

1 President Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal: the
2 Fair Labor Standards Act, which established a min-
3 imum wage, a maximum workweek, overtime pay,
4 and a prohibition on child labor.

5 (11) In 1964, Patsy Takemoto Mink became 6 the first Asian-American woman elected to the 7 House of Representatives, representing Hawaii's
8 Second Congressional District from 1965 to 1977
9 and again from 1991 until her death in 2002.

10 (12) Patsy Mink secured an assignment to the 11 Committee on Education and Labor, for which her
12 previous expertise and interests made her well-suit-
13 ed, and used her time on that Committee to intro-
14 duce the first child care bill, as well as bills to pro-
15 vide for bilingual education, student loans, special
16 education, and the Head Start program.

17 (13) Patsy Mink gained passage in 1965 of leg-
18 islation to support the construction of schools in the 19 Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

20 (14) Patsy Mink established the Democratic 21 Women's Caucus in 1995 and served as its first 22 chair.

23 (15) In 1968, Shirley Anita St. Hill Chisholm
24 made history by becoming the first African-Amer-
25 ican woman elected to the House of Representatives,

1 representing New York's Twelfth Congressional Dis-
2 trict until her retirement in 1983.

3 (16) Shirley Chisholm was a founding member
4 of the Congressional Black Caucus, a fierce advocate
5 for women's rights and democracy, and a staunch
6 opponent of the Vietnam War.

7 (17) Shirley Chisholm was an outspoken advo-
8 cate for equal rights, early childhood education, fair
9 labor standards, and the Martin Luther King, Jr.
10 holiday effort.

11 (18) Shirley Chisholm further cemented her
12 place in history when she became the first African-13 American person to seek a major political party's 14 nomination for President in 1972.

15 (19) There is a real need to honor these women
16 and others like them more often in our Nation's ar-
17 tistic and cultural venues.

18 SEC. 3. SPECIAL POSTAGE STAMP.

19 In order to afford the public a convenient means by 20 which to contribute towards the acquisition (for public dis-
21 play in the United States Capitol and other appropriate
22 locations) of works of art honoring Jeannette Rankin,
23 Mary Teresa Norton, Patsy Mink, Shirley Anita St. Hill
24 Chisholm, and other female pioneers in Government serv-
25 ice, the United States Postal Service shall provide for the

7 to the Capitol Preservation Commission and the 8 House Fine Arts Board (which is hereby authorized 9 to accept any such amounts) under such arrange-10 ments as the Postal Service and those entities shall 11 by mutual agreement establish in order to carry out
12 the purposes of this Act.

13           (2) NO EFFECT ON AUTHORITY TO ISSUE
14 OTHER STAMPS.—No semipostal issued pursuant to 15 this Act shall be taken into account for purposes of 16 applying any numerical limitation established under 17 section 416(e)(1)(C) of such title 39.
