

H. Res. 1098

In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

June 26, 2008.

Whereas there are currently more than 25,000,000 veterans of the United States Armed Forces, residing in the United States;

Whereas those who are legally termed “veteran” have served the United States honorably in either times of peace or war;

Whereas by the very nature of their service, veterans have sacrificed, along with their families, in the name of their country;

Whereas the service of veterans has and continues to guarantee the fundamental freedoms afforded to all Americans;

Whereas the American people are grateful and appreciative of the sacrifices made by all veterans, past, present, and future and wish to especially commemorate their service; and

Whereas the Commission on the Future for America’s Veterans has designated 2008 as the “Year of the American Veteran”: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

(1) encourages the American people to recognize and acknowledge the sacrifices the American veteran demonstrates in the name of freedom;

(2) encourages the education of the American people on the many great contributions of the American veteran to American society; and

(3) supports the goals and ideals of the Year of the American Veteran.

Attest:

Clerk.
