IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

APRIL 19, 2007

Mr. DURBIN (for himself and Mr. BROWNBACK) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

---

A BILL

To end the use of child soldiers in hostilities around the world, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Child Soldier Preven-
5 tion Act of 2007”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

8 (1) According to the September 7, 2005, report
9 to the General Assembly of the United Nations by 10 the Special Representative of the Secretary-General

1 for Children and Armed Conflict, “In the last dec-
2 ade, two million children have been killed in situa-
3 tions of armed conflict, while six million children
4 have been permanently disabled or injured. Over 5 250,000 children continue to be exploited as child
6 soldiers and tens of thousands of girls are being sub-7 jected to rape and other forms of sexual violence.”.

8 (2) According to the Center for Emerging
9 Threats and Opportunities (CETO), Marine Corps
10 Warfighting Laboratory, “The Child Soldier Phe-
11 nomenon has become a post-Cold War epidemic that 12 has proliferated to every continent with the excep-
13 tion of Antarctica and Australia.”.

14 (3) Many of the children currently serving in 15 armed forces or paramilitaries were forcibly con-16 scripted through kidnapping or coercion, a form of 17 human trafficking, while others joined military units
18 due to economic necessity, to avenge the loss of a 19 family member, or for their own personal safety.

20 (4) Some military and militia commanders force
21 child soldiers to commit gruesome acts of ritual 22 killings or torture, including acts of violence against 23 other children.

24 (5) Many female child soldiers face the addi-25 tional psychological and physical horrors of rape and

1 sexual abuse, enslavement for sexual purposes by mi-
2 litia commanders, and severe social stigma should 3 they return home.

4 (6) Some military and militia commanders tar-
5 get children for recruitment because of their psycho-6 logical immaturity and vulnerability to manipulation
7 and indoctrination. Children are often separated 8 from their families in order to foster dependence on 9 military units and leaders. Consequently, many of 10 these children suffer from deep trauma and are in 11 need of psychological counseling and rehabilitation.

12 (7) Child soldiers are exposed to hazardous con-
13 ditions and are at risk of physical injury and dis-
14 ability, psychological trauma, sexually transmitted
15 diseases, respiratory and skin infections, and often 16 death.

17 (8) On May 25, 2000, the United Nations
18 adopted and opened for signature, ratification, and 19 accession the Optional Protocol to the Convention on 20 the Rights of the Child on the Involvement of Chil-21 dren in Armed Conflict (in this Act referred to as 22 the “Optional Protocol”), which establishes 18 as 23 the minimum age for conscription or forced recruit-24 ment and requires states party to ensure that mem-

1       bers of their armed forces under the age of 18 do
2       not take a direct part in hostilities.

3           (9) On June 18, 2002, the Senate unanimously 4       approved the resolution advising and consenting to 5       the ratification of the Optional Protocol.

6           (10) On December 23, 2002, the United States
7       presented the ratified optional protocol to the United 8       Nations.

9           (11) More than 110 governments worldwide
10      have ratified the optional protocol, establishing a 11      clear international norm concerning the use of chil-
12      dren in combat.

13          (12) On December 2, 1999, the United States
14      ratified International Labour Convention 182, the 15      Convention concerning the Prohibition and Imme-
16      diate Action for the Elimination of the Worst Forms 17      of Child Labour, which includes the use of child sol-
18      diers among the worst forms of child labor.

19          (13) On October 7, 2005, the Senate gave its 20      advice and consent to the ratification of the Protocol 21      to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Per-22      sons, Especially Women and Children,
23      Supplementing the United Nations Convention
24      Against Transnational Organized Crime.

1           (14) It is in the national security interest of the 2 United States to reduce the chances that members
3 of the United States Armed Forces will be forced to 4 encounter children in combat situations.

5           (15) Section 502B(a)(3) of the Foreign Assist-6 ance Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. 2304(a)(3)) provides 7 that “the President is directed to formulate and con-8 duct international security assistance programs of 9 the United States in a manner which will promote 10 and advance human rights and avoid identification 11 of the United States, through such programs, with 12 governments which deny to their people internation-
13 ally recognized human rights and fundamental free-
14 doms, in violation of international law or in con-
15 travention of the policy of the United States as ex-16 pressed in this section or otherwise”.

17 SEC. 3. CHILD SOLDIER DEFINED.

18           In this Act, consistent with the provisions of the Op-
19 tional Protocol, the term “child soldier”—

20           (1) means—

11 serving in any capacity, including in a support role 12 such as a cook, porter, messenger, medic, guard, or 13 sex slave.

14 SEC. 4. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

15 It is the sense of Congress—

16 (1) to condemn the conscription, forced recruit-
17 ment or use of children by governments,
18 paramilitaries, or other organizations in hostilities;

19 (2) that the United States Government should 20 support and, where practicable, lead efforts to estab-
21 lish and uphold international standards designed to 22 end this abuse of human rights;

23 (3) that the United States Government should 24 expand ongoing services to rehabilitate recovered

1 child soldiers and to reintegrate them back into their 2 communities by—

3 (A) offering ongoing psychological services 4 to help victims recover from their trauma and 5 relearn how to deal with others in nonviolent 6 ways such that they are no longer a danger to 7 their community;

8 (B) facilitating reconciliation with their 9 communities through negotiations with tradi-
10 tional leaders and elders to enable recovered
11 abductees to resume normal lives in their com-12 munities; and

13 (C) providing educational and vocational 14 assistance;

15 (4) that the United States should work with the 16 international community, including, where appro-
17 priate, third country governments, nongovernmental
18 organizations, faith-based organizations, United Na-19 tions agencies, local governments, labor unions, and 20 private enterprise—

22 ganizations that kidnap children for use as 23 child soldiers, including the Lord's Resistance

5           who have been abducted and to assist them in 6           their rehabilitation and reintegration into com-
7           munities;

8           (5) that the Secretary of State, the Secretary of 9           Labor, and the Secretary of Defense should coordi-
10          nate programs to achieve the goals specified in para-
11          graph (3), and in countries where the use of child
12          soldiers is an issue, whether or not it is supported 13          or sanctioned by the governments of such countries, 14          United States diplomatic missions should include in 15          their mission program plans a strategy to achieve 16          the goals specified in such paragraph;

17          (6) that United States diplomatic missions in 18          countries in which governments use or tolerate child

20          planning, strategies to promote efforts to end this 21          abuse of human rights; and

22          (7) that, in allocating or recommending the al-23          location of funds or recommending candidates for 24          programs and grants funded by the United States
25          Government, United States diplomatic missions

1       should give particular consideration to those pro-

3       this abuse of human rights.
