RESOLUTION

Designating the week beginning September 8, 2008, as “National Assisted Living Week”.

Whereas the number of elderly and disabled citizens of the United States is increasing dramatically;

Whereas assisted living is a long-term care service that fosters choice, dignity, independence, and autonomy in the elderly and disabled across the United States;

Whereas the National Center for Assisted Living created National Assisted Living Week;

Whereas the theme of National Assisted Living Week 2008 is “Filling Life with Love”; and

Whereas this theme highlights the privilege, value, and responsibility of passing the legacies of the lives of the elderly and disabled of the United States down through the generations that care for and love them: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved, That the Senate—

2               (1) designates the week beginning September 8,
3       2008, as “National Assisted Living Week”; and

4               (2) urges all people of the United States—

5                       (A) to visit friends and loved ones who re-
6       side at assisted living facilities; and

7                       (B) to learn more about assisted living
8       services, including how assisted living services
9       benefit communities in the United States.
