

push to stop the wasteful spending that destroys the public's trust in elected officials. In this way, former Senator Metzenbaum laid the ground work for those of us who continue the fight to rein in wasteful government spending. His later service as the chairman of the Consumer Federation of America was a testament to his strong commitment to consumer advocacy.

Howard Metzenbaum was such a distinguished Member of this body, both because he served the people of Ohio so well, and because he set such an outstanding example of courage and commitment to those of us who had the privilege to serve with him. I join my colleagues, the State of Ohio, and the entire Nation in paying tribute to this great American.

Mr. REID. I ask unanimous consent that the resolution and preamble be agreed to en bloc, and the motions to reconsider be laid on the table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 485) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

S. RES. 485

Whereas Howard Metzenbaum served the people of Ohio with distinction for 8 years in the Ohio State Legislature;

Whereas Howard Metzenbaum served the people of Ohio with distinction for 18 years in the United States Senate;

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow and deep regret the announcement of the death of the Honorable Howard Metzenbaum, former member of the United States Senate.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit an enrolled copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That when the Senate recesses today, it stand in recess as a further mark of respect to the memory of the Honorable Howard Metzenbaum.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

APPOINTMENTS AUTHORITY

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that notwithstanding the upcoming recess or adjournment of the Senate, the President of the Senate, the President pro tempore, and the majority and minority leaders be authorized to make appointments to commissions, committees, boards, conferences or interparliamentary conferences authorized by law, by concurrent action of the two Houses or by order of the Senate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

NOMINATIONS

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I have spent a lot of time today with the President's Chief of Staff, Josh Bolten. I have said before, he is a very pleasant man. We worked for a long time today trying to work ourselves through the nominations. I think we made great progress. I think we have teed things up to do even more when we come back after 2 weeks.

To show my good faith, when Mr. Bolten said he wanted to work with us, I approved Mr. Filip, who the Attorney General said was very important to him. Judge Filip left a Federal judgeship and is now acting as the Attorney General's Chief of Staff, for lack of a better word.

So we have made progress. And even through this that we have done today, I, in good faith, threw in some people I thought were important, even though we did not have them done—and that was not part of the original deal—and that was to confirm the head of the Internal Revenue Service. But we have done that.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

EXECUTIVE CALENDAR

Mr. REID. So, Mr. President, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to executive session to consider the following nominations: 401, 402, 404, 428, 429, 430, 431, 440, 441, 450, 452, 460, 461, 463, 464, 465, 467, 468, 469, 470, 475, 480, 481 through 489, 490 through 507, 509, 511 through 515, and all nominations on the Secretary's desk; that the nominations be confirmed en bloc, the President be immediately notified of the Senate's action, and the Senate return to legislative session.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

The Chair hears none, and it is so ordered.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, in the time before the 2-week Easter recess, we continue to make progress in filling high level vacancies at the Department of Justice. Today, the Senate will confirm three nominations to important positions at the Department, including nominations of David Hagy to be Director of the National Institute of Justice; Ondray Harris to be Director of the Community Relations Service; and William Joseph Hawe to be U.S. Marshal for the Western District of Washington.

I thank Senator CARDIN for chairing the hearing on these nominations. We continued our work in connection with high-ranking Department of Justice nominees earlier this week when Senator KENNEDY chaired our hearing on the nomination of Grace Chung Becker to be Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Civil Rights Division.

The Civil Rights Division is entrusted with protecting precious rights of Americans, including our fundamental right to vote and our rights against discrimination. That hearing was the seventh the committee has held since last September on executive nominations, as we continue to work to restock and restore the leadership of the Department of Justice in the wake of the scandals of the Gonzales era.

A little more than a year ago, the Judiciary Committee began its oversight efforts for the 110th Congress. Over the next 9 months, our efforts revealed a Department of Justice gone awry. The leadership crisis came more and more into view as Senator SPECTER and I led a bipartisan group of concerned Senators to consider the U.S. attorney firing scandal, a confrontation over the legality of the administration's warrantless wiretapping program, the untoward political influence of the White House at the Department of Justice, and the secret legal memos excusing all manner of excess.

This crisis of leadership has taken a heavy toll on the tradition of independence that has long guided the Justice Department and provided it with safe harbor from political interference. It shook the confidence of the American people. Through bipartisan efforts among those from both sides of the aisle who care about federal law enforcement and the Department of Justice, we joined together to press for accountability. That resulted in a change in leadership at the Department, with the resignations of the Attorney General and many high-ranking Department officials.

The partisan accusations of "slow walking" nominations that the President engaged in at the White House recently, in which he used Republican Senators and nominees as political props, are belied by the facts. They are about as accurate as when President Bush ascribed Attorney General Gonzales' resignation to supposed "unfair treatment" and having "his good name . . . dragged through the mud for political reasons." The U.S. Attorney firing scandal was of the administration's own making. It decimated morale at the Department of Justice. A good way to help restore the Justice Department would be for this administration to acknowledge its wrongdoing.

What those who say we are "slow-walking" nominations do not say is that as a result of the mass resignations at the Justice Department in the wake of the scandals of the Gonzales era, the committee was holding eight hearings on high-ranking replacements to restock and restore the leadership of the Department of Justice between September of last year and this month, including confirmation hearings for the new Attorney General, the new Deputy Attorney General, the new Associate Attorney General, and so many others. Of course those 5 months also include the December and January holiday period and break between sessions.

What is being ignored by the President and Senate Republicans as they play to a vocal segment of their Republican base is that we have worked hard to make progress and restore the leadership of the Department of Justice. In the last few months, we have confirmed a new Attorney General, a new Deputy Attorney General, held hearings for several other high-ranking Justice Department spots, and voted them out of the Judiciary Committee. Today we continue that progress with three more executive nominations confirmed.

We could have made progress even sooner, had the Republican members of the Judiciary Committee not effectively boycotted our business meetings in February and obstructed our ability to report the O'Connor nominations and other high-ranking Justice Department nominations as well as judicial nominations. I adjourned both our February 14 and February 28 meetings for lack of a quorum.

It is vital that we ensure that we have a functioning, independent Justice Department. In January, the Judiciary Committee held our first oversight hearing of the new session and the first with new Attorney General Michael Mukasey. We held another oversight hearing this month with FBI Director Mueller. These are more steps forward in our efforts to lift the veil of White House secrecy, restore checks and balances to our government, and begin to repair the damage this administration inflicted on the Department, our Constitution, and fundamental American values.

We continue to press for accountability even as we learn startling new revelations about the extent to which some will go to avoid accountability, undermine oversight, and stonewall the American people's right to the truth. We find shifting answers on issues including the admission that the CIA used waterboarding on detainees in reliance on the advice of the Department of Justice; the destruction of White House emails required by law to be preserved; and the CIA's destruction of videotapes of detainee interrogations not shared with the 9/11 Commission, Congress or the courts. The only constant is the demand for immunity and unaccountability among those in the administration. This White House continues to stonewall the legitimate needs for information articulated by the Judiciary Committee and others in the Congress, and contemptuously to refuse to appear when summoned by congressional subpoena.

In spite of the administration's lack of cooperation, the Senate is moving forward with the confirmation of these executive nominations. With the confirmations today, we will have confirmed 26 executive nominations, including the confirmations of 9 U.S. attorneys, 5 U.S. marshals, and the top 2 positions at the Justice Department so far this Congress.

Of course, we could have made even more progress had the White House sent us timely nominations to fill the remaining executive branch vacancies with nominees who will restore the independence of Federal law enforcement. There are now 19 districts across the country with acting or interim U.S. attorneys instead of Senate-confirmed, presidentially appointed U.S. attorneys. For more than a year I have been talking publicly about the need to name U.S. Attorneys to fill these vacancies to no avail.

I was disappointed but not surprised to see the administration return to tired political attacks. What better time than right now, when the economy is slipping farther off the tracks, when the President's budget shows record annual deficits, with Osama bin Laden still at large, when gas prices rise well beyond $3 a gallon, when we lost 63,000 jobs last month, and when a mortgage crisis grips many parts of the country. I wish the President would put aside his partisan playbook and work with us to address the priorities of ordinary Americans.

We have seen what happens when the rule of law plays second fiddle to a President's agenda and the partisan desires of political operatives and it is a disaster for the American people. Both the President and the Nation are best served by a Justice Department that provides sound advice and takes responsible action, without regard to political considerations—not one that develops legalistic loopholes to serve the ends of a particular administration.

I congratulate the nominees and their families on their confirmations today.

NOMINATION OF KRISTINE SVINICKI

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I rise today to express my great pleasure with the Senate confirmation of Kristine Svinicki to serve as a Commissioner of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

As you may know, Ms. Svinicki is both a longtime resident of my State, and a staff member on the Senate Armed Services Committee, which I have had the privilege to serve on for over 28 years.

During her time with the Senate Armed Services Committee, Ms. Svinicki served with distinction, immersing herself in nuclear energy matters. Her tireless efforts proved invaluable in our committee's work, and her service has been appreciated by not only me but by the other members of the Armed Services Committee—on both sides of the aisle.

It is not well known in some quarters, but the Armed Services Committee has jurisdiction over approximately two-thirds of the Department of Energy—including the very sizable nuclear weapons production sites and laboratory complex, as well as the extensive environmental program to clean up the legacy of nuclear contamination created during the Cold War. These are the programs which I hired Kristine to staff.

With her extensive background and experience in nuclear matters both at the Department of Energy, where she worked prior to joining the Armed Services Committee, and subsequently in her work here in the Senate, Ms. Svinicki is uniquely poised to take on this next challenge.

It is my sincere belief that Kristine Svinicki will be a favorable addition to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, and I am pleased the full Senate agrees. I appreciate the overwhelming support given to her by this body, and I know she will do all in her power to honor the trust placed in her by the President, the Senate, and the American people.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, these have been approved; is that right?

Mr. BROWN. They have been.

Mr. REID. I move to reconsider the vote, and I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, just to show that we are trying to work with the President's Chief of Staff, as I indicated earlier, we put this in. Even though it wasn't part of the original agreement I had with Mr. Bolton, we added Doug Shuma, Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service—I am looking for Mr. Sullivan—and John J. Sullivan, Deputy Secretary of Commerce. So we have worked hard to live up to our end of the bargain. I hope when we come back after the break, we can do more. I have indicated to the distinguished Republican leader and to Mr. Bolton, if things work out right and we are able to work together, there should be some judges we can approve when we come back.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will now resume legislative session.

AUTHORITY FOR COMMITTEES TO REPORT

Mr. REID. Mr. President, everyone has worked long and hard tonight. I appreciate everyone's patience and cooperation.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

THANKS TO STAFF

Mr. REID. Mr. President, everyone has expressed appreciation to a lot of people, but the people in front of the Presiding Officer have been here all day, all night, and now it is morning time. They get very little recognition or attention, but on behalf of the whole Senate, we really appreciate all of your work. We have pages who have been here since early this morning. I would like to express my appreciation to the wonderful floor staff we have, especially someone whom I couldn't do the work without, Lula Davis, who does such great work for the majority, and Dave Schiappa, who is really—even though he looks out, sometimes, a little too much for the minority, he is a pleasant person to work with and is always very fair and understanding of our issues. So I appreciate the work he and Lula do, the work they do together.

ORDER OF PROCEDURE

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in recess until 12 p.m. on Tuesday, March 18, for a pro forma session only, with no business conducted; that the Senate recess until 11 a.m. Friday, March 21, for a pro forma session only, with no business conducted; that the Senate recess until 10 a.m. Monday, March 24, for a pro forma session only, with no business conducted; that the Senate recess until 9 a.m. Thursday, March 27, for a pro forma session only, with no business conducted; that the Senate recess until 2 p.m. Monday, March 31; that following the prayer and the pledge, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and that the Senate proceed to a period for the transaction of morning business, with Senators permitted to speak for up to 10 minutes each.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

RECESS UNTIL TUESDAY, MARCH 18, 2008

Mr. REID. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in recess under the previous order as a mark of further respect to the memory of Howard Metzenbaum, late a former Senator from the State of Ohio.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 2:36 a.m., recessed until Tuesday, March 18, 2008, at 12 noon.
