

111TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 218

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Whereas, on November 23, 2009, 57 unarmed civilians were slain in Maguindanao in the worst politically motivated violence in recent Philippine history;

Whereas those killed were on their way to file nomination papers on behalf of Ismael Mangudadatu, vice mayor of Buluan, who intended to run against Andal Ampatuan, Jr. who is currently mayor of Datay Unsu, in next year's gubernatorial elections to succeed Andal Ampatuan, Sr., the father of Andal Ampatuan, Jr.;

Whereas many of those killed were women and children, including the wife of Vice Mayor Ismael Mangudadatu and his two sisters;

Whereas most of the women were reportedly raped and their bodies were mutilated after being shot;

Whereas as of December 2, 2009, initial charges have been filed in connection with the massacre, according to press reports;

Whereas the Freedom Fund for Filipino Journalists reports that at least 30 journalists and media workers were killed in the Maguindanao massacre;

Whereas, the Committee to Protect Journalists reports that prior to the Maguindanao massacre, 30 journalists had been killed in the Philippines since 2000, and suspects were prosecuted in no more than 4 cases, putting into question the safety of journalists and the integrity of independent journalism in the Philippines;

Whereas government prosecutors and judges with jurisdiction over the massacre have allegedly received threats and have been told to "go slow" on the investigation;

Whereas President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo declared a state of emergency in Maguindanao the day after the massacre, vowing that "no effort will be spared to bring justice to the victims";

Whereas extrajudicial killings and election-related violence are common in the Philippines, though never on this scale and rarely with this level of brutality; and

Whereas the United States and the Philippines share a strong friendship based on shared history and the commitment to democracy and freedom: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That Congress—

3 (1) regrets the senseless killing of unarmed ci-
4 vilians and expresses its deepest condolences to the
5 families of the 57 victims;

6 (2) condemns the culture of impunity that con-
7 tinues to exist among clans, politicians, armed ele-
8 ments, and other persons of influence in the Phil-
9 ippines;

10 (3) calls for a thorough, transparent, and inde-
11 pendent investigation and prosecution of those who 12 are responsible for the massacre, including those 13 who committed the killings and anyone who may
14 have ordered them, and that the proceedings be con-
15 ducted with the highest possible level of profes-
16 sionalism, impartiality, and regard for witness pro-
17 tection to assure the Filipino people that all the re-
18 sponsible persons are brought to justice;

19 (4) calls for an end to extrajudicial killings and
20 election-related violence;

21 (5) calls for freedom of press and the safety of 22 the reporters investigating the massacre;

1 (6) urges the Departments of State and Justice
2 and other United States Government agencies to re-
3 view their assistance programs to the Government of 4 the Philippines, and to offer any technical assist-
5 ance, such as forensics support, that Philippine au-
6 thorities may request; and

7 (7) reaffirms the United States commitment to
8 working alongside Philippine authorities to combat
9 corruption, terrorism, and security threats.

 Passed the House of Representatives December 8, 2009.

Attest:

Clerk.

111TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 218

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing sympathy for the 57 civilians who were killed in the southern Philippines on November 23, 2009.