A BILL

To impose sanctions on persons who are complicit in human rights abuses committed against citizens of Iran or their family members after the June 12, 2009, political processes in Iran, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Iran Human Rights
5 Sanctions Act”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) Iran voted in the United Nations General
4 Assembly on December 10, 1948, to adopt the Uni-
5 versal Declaration of Human Rights, thereby com-
6 mitting to guarantee the “life, liberty, and security
7 of person” of all people and rejecting “cruel, inhu-
8 man, or degrading treatment or punishment”.

9 (2) Iran is a party to major international
10 human rights instruments.

11 (3) The Government of Iran is violating its 12 international obligations to respect the human rights
13 and fundamental freedoms of its citizens, including 14 by—

15 (A) using torture and cruel, inhuman, or 16 degrading treatment or punishment, including
17 flogging, and amputations;

18 (B) carrying out an increasingly high rate
19 of executions in the absence of internationally
20 recognized safeguards, including public execu-
21 tions;

22 (C) using stoning as a method of execution
23 and maintaining a high number of persons in 24 prison who continue to face sentences of execu-
25 tion by stoning;

1 (D) carrying out arrests, violent repres-
2 sion, and sentencing of women exercising their 3 right to peaceful assembly, a campaign of in-
4 timidation against women's rights defenders,
5 and continuing discrimination against women
6 and girls;

7 (E) permitting or carrying out increasing
8 discrimination and other human rights viola-
9 tions against persons belonging to religious,
10 ethnic, linguistic, or other minorities;

11 (F) imposing ongoing, systematic, and se-
12 rious restrictions of freedom of peaceful assem-
13 bly and association and freedom of opinion and 14 expression, including the continuing closures of 15 media outlets, arrests of journalists, and the 16 censorship of expression in online forums such 17 as blogs and websites; and

18 (G) imposing severe limitations and re-
19 strictions on freedom of religion and belief, in-
20 cluding by carrying out arbitrary arrests, in-
21 definite detentions, and lengthy jail sentences
22 for those exercising their rights to freedom of 23 religion or belief and proposing a provision in a
24 draft penal code that sets out a mandatory

1 death sentence for apostasy, the abandoning of 2 one's faith.

3 (4) On June 19, 2009, the United Nations
4 High Commissioner for Human Rights expressed
5 concerns about the increasing number of arrests not
6 in conformity with the law and the illegal use of ex-
7 cessive force in responding to protests following the 8 June 12, 2009, political processes in Iran, resulting 9 in at least dozens of deaths and hundreds of inju-
10 ries.

11 (5) On August 1, 2009, authorities in the Gov-
12 ernment of Iran began a mass trial of more than 13 100 individuals in connection with election protests,
14 most of whom were held for weeks, in solitary con-
15 finement, with little or no access to their lawyers or 16 families, and many of whom showed signs of torture
17 or abuse.

18 (6) The "Supreme Leader" of Iran issued a
19 statement on October 28, 2009, effectively criminal-
20 izing dissent in the aftermath of the national polit-
21 ical processes of June 12, 2009.

22 (7) On November 4, 2009, security forces in 23 the Government of Iran used brutal force to disperse
24 thousands of protesters, resulting in a number of in-
25 juries and arrests, in violation of international

1 norms regarding the proportionate use of force
2 against peaceful demonstrations.

3 (8) At least 8 citizens of Iran were killed and 4 an undetermined number were injured on December
5 27, 2009, when security forces of the Government of 6 Iran violently broke up peaceful gatherings during 7 the Ashura holiday.

8 (9) The Government of Iran has recently sen-
9 tenced numerous Iranian citizens to death without 10 due process for politicized crimes relating to the 11 peaceful demonstrations that followed the June 12,
12 2009, political processes, including “waging war
13 against God”, and has begun carrying out those exe-14 cution sentences, including the death by hanging of 15 2 individuals on January 28, 2010.

16 (10) The Iran Freedom Support Act (Public 17 Law 109–293; 50 U.S.C. 1701 note) declares that 18 it should be the policy of the United States—

19 (A) to support efforts by the people of Iran
20 to exercise self-determination over the form of 21 government of their country; and

22 (B) to support independent human rights
23 and peaceful pro-democracy forces in Iran.
