

111TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. RES. 1132

Honoring the USS New Mexico as the sixth Virginia-class submarine commissioned by the U.S. Navy to protect and defend the United States.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 2, 2010

Mr. HEINRICH (for himself, Mr. TEAGUE, and Mr. LUJÁN) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Armed Services

---

RESOLUTION

Honoring the USS New Mexico as the sixth Virginia-class submarine commissioned by the U.S. Navy to protect and defend the United States.

Whereas the mission statement of the United States Navy is to “maintain, train and equip combat-ready Naval forces capable of winning wars, deterring aggression and maintaining freedom of the seas”;

Whereas the Virginia-class submarine is the first U.S. Navy attack submarine to be designed for post-Cold War missions and is capable of operating in the open ocean as well as close to shore;

Whereas the Virginia-class submarine is capable of submerged speeds of more than 25 knots and can stay submerged for extended periods at sea;

Whereas the Secretary of the Navy has named the U.S. Navy's sixth Virginia-class fast-attack nuclear submarine the USS New Mexico (SSN 779);

Whereas this submarine honors the legacy of the battleship USS New Mexico (BB-40), which served in both the Pacific and Atlantic theaters during World War II;

Whereas the USS New Mexico was constructed 4 months ahead of schedule, achieving the shortest construction period of any Virginia-class submarine;

Whereas the USS New Mexico is a state-of-the-art, nuclear submarine that will help fulfill the U.S. Navy's mission to deter aggression and maintain freedom of the seas;

Whereas the State of New Mexico and its two national security laboratories, Sandia National Laboratories and Los Alamos National Laboratory, have made significant contributions to the Nation's nuclear development, including the advancement of nuclear submarines;

Whereas the Commanding Officer of the USS New Mexico, Commander Mark Prokopius, has made an earnest effort with the crew to incorporate a sense of New Mexican culture within the submarine including naming the ship's galley "La Posta" after a restaurant in Mesilla, New Mexico;

Whereas Ms. Emilee Sena of Albuquerque, New Mexico, submitted the winning design for the USS New Mexico's crest, which symbolizes the beauty of New Mexico as well as the inscription "We Defend Our Land" in the Spanish language;

Whereas the USS New Mexico Commissioning Committee of the Navy League's New Mexico Council led a dedicated 5-year statewide grassroots initiative to have the sixth

Virginia-class submarine named New Mexico and has played a tremendous role in planning construction milestone ceremonies and supporting crew activities throughout the vessel's development;

Whereas the USS New Mexico is to be commissioned by the U.S. Navy on March 27, 2010, at the Norfolk Naval Base in Norfolk, Virginia; and

Whereas New Mexico, "The Land of Enchantment", is proud to be honored with the most modern and sophisticated attack submarine in the world, providing undersea supremacy well into the 21st century: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2               (1) honors the USS New Mexico (SSN 779) as
3       one of the most advanced submarines in the history
4       of the U.S. Navy;

5               (2) commends the diligence of the New Mexico
6       Council, Navy league of the United States, and the 7       USS New Mexico Commissioning Committee who
8       contributed to the support of the USS New Mexico;

9               (3) recognizes the hard work of the individuals
10       and organizations who contributed to the construc-
11       tion of the USS New Mexico; and

12              (4) honors the U.S. Navy and the crew of the 13       USS New Mexico for their commitment to helping
14       maintain the United States supremacy of the seas.

○