

111TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. RES. 1232

Congratulating the six-time Defending Mid-American Conference Champion Bowling Green State University women's basketball team on another outstanding and record-setting season.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 25, 2010

Mr. LATTA submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor

RESOLUTION

Congratulating the six-time Defending Mid-American Conference Champion Bowling Green State University women's basketball team on another outstanding and record-setting season.

Whereas the Bowling Green State University Falcons women's basketball team has won the MAC championship six straight times in 2004–2005, 2005–2006, 2006–2007, 2007–2008, 2008–2009, and 2009–2010;

Whereas the Falcons finished the regular season with 27 wins and 7 losses;

Whereas the Falcons completed the 2009–2010 Mid-American Conference (MAC) season with 14 wins and 2 losses;

Whereas the Falcons won the MAC's East Division title for the fifth consecutive year, after winning the West crown in 2005;

Whereas the Falcons won the MAC's overall regular-season championship outright for a sixth straight season, a new conference record;

Whereas the Falcons have won 10 MAC tournament titles, the most of any conference school;

Whereas 2010 marks the tenth time in school history that the BGSU women's basketball team has made it to the NCAA Championships, the most of any MAC conference program;

Whereas the BGSU women's basketball team holds the record for wins by a MAC school in the regular season with 31 during the 2006–2007 season;

Whereas head coach Curt Miller became the fastest coach to 200 wins in MAC women's basketball history, reaching the 200-win mark in his 279th career game;

Whereas junior guard/forward Lauren Prochaska was named the MAC Women's Player of the Year for the second straight year, in addition to being named first-team All-MAC and MAC Tournament MVP for the 2009–2010 season;

Whereas senior forward Tara Breske was named to the 2010 MAC's All-Tournament Team;

Whereas junior guard Tracy Pontius earned second-team All-MAC honors during the 2009–2010 season; and

Whereas BGSU women's basketball team was ranked fifth in the entire Nation on the Women's Basketball Collegiate Association's (WCBA) Academic Top-25 Team Honor

Roll for 2008–2009, the award recognized teams throughout the country that had the highest grade point averages for 2008–2009: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) congratulates the Bowling Green State Uni-
3 versity women’s basketball team on another out-
4 standing season;

5 (2) recognizes the significant achievements of
6 the players, coaches, and support staff on and off
7 the court whose determination and hard work have
8 contributed greatly to the success of the Falcons’
9 program; and

10 (3) requests the Clerk to transmit copies of this
11 resolution for appropriate display to the following:

12 (A) Dr. Carol Cartwright, President of 13 Bowling Green State University.

14 (B) Dr. Kenneth Borland, Jr., Senior Vice
15 President for Academic Affairs and Provost.

16 (C) Mr. Curt Miller, Head Women’s Bas-
17 ketball Coach.

18 (D) Mr. Greg Christopher, Director of
19 Intercollegiate Athletics.

○