RESOLUTION

Recognizing the achievements of the Nation's high school graduating class of 2010, promoting the importance of encouraging intellectual growth, and rewarding academic excellence of all United States high school students.

Whereas the Nation's high schools will honor the academic accomplishments and community service of the graduating class of 2010 with their annual spring commencement ceremonies;

Whereas graduating seniors have demonstrated consistency in their intellectual inquiry, academic discipline, and utilization of teacher mentoring throughout their high school careers;

Whereas graduating seniors serve as peer role models to fellow high school students and other community youth by succeeding academically and contributing to community improvement;

Whereas numerous graduating seniors will further their intellectual interests and academic studies by enrolling in universities and postsecondary educational institutions;

Whereas family members, teachers, school administrators, and community members have nurtured the intellectual growth and rewarded the academic achievements of graduating seniors; and

Whereas graduating seniors will become the United States future civic, business, and political leaders, maintaining the Nation's global leadership position and strengthening its economic competitiveness: Now, therefore, be it
