

111TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 297

Recognizing May 25, 2009, as National Missing Children's Day.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 30, 2009

Mrs. BIGGERT (for herself, Mr. WOLF, Mr. STUPAK, Ms. ZOE LOFGREN of California, and Mr. ROONEY) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor

RESOLUTION

Recognizing May 25, 2009, as National Missing Children's Day.

Whereas May 25, 2009, will be the 27th National Missing Children's Day;

Whereas National Missing Children's Day honors our Nation's obligation to locate and recover missing children by prompting parents, guardians, and other trusted-adult role models to make child safety an utmost priority;

Whereas in the United States nearly 800,000 children are reported missing a year, more than 58,000 children are abducted by non-family members, and more than 2,000 children are reported missing every day;

Whereas Congress's efforts to provide resources, training, and technical assistance has increased the capabilities of

State and local law enforcement to find children and to return them home safely;

Whereas the 1979 disappearance of 6-year-old Etan Patz served as the impetus for the creation of National Missing Children’s Day, first proclaimed in 1983; and

Whereas Etan’s photo was distributed nationwide and appeared in media globally, and the powerful image came to represent the anguish of thousands of searching families: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) recognizes National Missing Children’s Day
3 and encourages all Americans to join together to
4 plan events in communities across America to raise
5 public awareness about the issue of missing children
6 and the need to address this national problem,

7 (2) recognizes that one of the most important
8 tools for law enforcement to use in the case of a
9 missing child is an up-to-date, good quality photo-
10 graph and urges all parents and guardians to follow
11 this important precaution, and

12 (3) acknowledges that National Missing Chil-
13 dren’s Day should remind Americans not to forget
14 the children who are still missing and not to waver
15 in the effort to reunite them with their families.
