RESOLUTION

Condemning all forms of anti-Semitism and reaffirming the support of Congress for the mandate of the Special Envoy to Monitor and Combat Anti-Semitism, and for other purposes.

Whereas in 2004, Congress passed the Global Anti-Semitism Review Act, which established an Office to Monitor and Combat Anti-Semitism, headed by a Special Envoy to Monitor and Combat Anti-Semitism, which provides Congress with the Contemporary Global Anti-Semitism Report, most recently in 2004 and 2008;

Whereas according to the Contemporary Global Anti-Semitism Report released by the Department of State's Office of the Special Envoy to Monitor and Combat Anti-Semitism, "[o]ver the last decade, United States embassies and consulates have reported an upsurge in anti-Semitism";

Whereas anti-Semitic acts committed and recorded in 2008 and 2009 include violent attacks and death threats against Jews, as well as gun violence, arson, graffiti, stoning, and other desecration of Jewish communal property and places of worship;

Whereas the U.S. Department of State and other foreign governments and multilateral institutions have noted the challenge of gathering data on anti-Semitism, particularly in more closed societies with limited victims' rights;

Whereas the 2008 Department of State Contemporary Global Anti-Semitism Report notes the growth of comparisons of Israeli policy to that of the Nazis and that, despite growing efforts by governments to promote Holocaust remembrance, the Holocaust is frequently invoked as part of anti-Semitic harassment as a rhetorical means to threaten and offend Jews;

Whereas since the commencement of Israel's military operation in Gaza on December 27, 2008, a substantial increase in violence, including physical and verbal attacks, arson and vandalism against synagogues, and desecration of cemeteries and Holocaust memorial sites have been reported;

Whereas interspersed with expressions of criticism of Israeli policy and actions, anti-Semitic imagery and comparisons of Jews and Israel to Nazis have been widespread at demonstrations against Israel's action around the United States, Europe, the Middle East, and Latin America;

Whereas placards held at many demonstrations across the globe have compared Israeli leaders to Nazis, accused Israel of carrying out a "Holocaust" against Palestinians, and equated the Jewish Star of David with the Nazi swastika;

Whereas demonstrations have included chants of "death to Israel" or expressions of support for suicide terrorism against Israeli or Jewish civilians;

Whereas Jewish communities face an environment in which the convergence of anti-Semitic sentiment and demonization of Israel in the media and the public debate have fostered a hostile environment and a sense of insecurity in these countries;

Whereas incitement to hatred, discrimination, and violence against Jews continues in some state-run media, particularly in the Middle East, where government-owned, government-sanctioned, or government-controlled publishing media promulgate anti-Jewish stereotypes, such as the myth of the Jewish blood libels in editorial cartoons and articles, and produce Arabic translations of anti-Semitic tracts such as "The Protocols of the Elders of Zion" and "Mein Kampf";

Whereas some governments fail to respond adequately to anti-Semitic incidents including attacks on Jewish citizens, monuments, building, and cemeteries;

Whereas the latest incidents in Venezuela include an incident on January 30, 2009, when the Tiferet Israel synagogue in Caracas was attacked by armed men who destroyed religious objects, spray-painted "Jews, get out" on the synagogue walls, and stole a computer database with the congregation's personal information, and an incident on February 26, 2009, when assailants threw an explosive at a Jewish community center in Caracas;

Whereas, on January 6, 2009, Hamas leader, Mahmoud al-Zahar, argued that Jewish children and Jewish people around the world are "legitimate" targets for murder;

Whereas Iran's leader Mahmoud Ahmadinejad has denied that the Holocaust ever occurred and has called Israel a "filthy bacteria" and a "disgraceful blot" that should be "wiped off the map";

Whereas, on February 24, 2009, Libya's leader, Muammar Gaddafi, falsely accused Israel of being among the countries fueling the violence in Darfur's Sudan region;

Whereas, on January 13, 2009, President Nicolas Sarkozy of France "utterly condemned the unacceptable violence . . . against individuals, private property, and religious buildings" and assured "that these acts would not go unpunished";

Whereas, on January 28, 2009, Argentine Justice and Security Minister Anibal Fernandez pledged to take action against anti-Semitism in Argentina;

Whereas the Dutch Justice Minister Ernst Hirsch Ballin announced on January 14, 2009, that he would investigate allegations of anti-Semitism and incitement to hatred and violence at anti-Israel demonstrations; and

Whereas, on February 25, 2009, Prime Minister Gordon Brown became the first world leader to sign the London Declaration on combating anti-Semitism, which calls on governments and parliamentarians to engage in education, community outreach, training, threat identification, and other measures and adopt proven and best practice methods of countering antisemitism: Now, therefore, be it
