To provide enhanced Federal enforcement and assistance in preventing and prosecuting crimes of violence against children.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 25, 2009

Mrs. BOXER introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

---

A BILL

To provide enhanced Federal enforcement and assistance in preventing and prosecuting crimes of violence against children.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Violence Against Chil-
5 dren Act of 2009”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

8 (1) According to data from the National Inci-
9 dent-Based Reporting System, people under the age
10 of 18 make up approximately 26 percent of violent

1 crime victims reported to police, including 70 per-
2 cent of all reported sexual assaults. Of the victims
3 under the age of 18, approximately 37 percent were 4 under the age of 12.

5 (2) According to data from the Bureau of Jus-
6 tice Statistics, people between the ages of 12 and 19
7 are victims of violent crime twice as often as people
8 over the age of 20.

9 (3) According to data from the Bureau of Jus-
10 tice Statistics, only 35 percent of violent crimes
11 against people between ages 12 and 19 are actually 12 reported to police.

13 (4) According to data from the Department of 14 Health and Human Services, it is estimated that 15 more than 85,000 children were victims of physical 16 abuse in 2006, of which approximately 465 were fa-
17 talities.

18 (5) Child abuse has long-lasting negative effects
19 upon children and families, including delayed devel-
20 opment, depression, substance abuse, and increased
21 likelihood of experiencing or perpetrating domestic 22 violence as an adult.

23 (6) Local law enforcement agencies are in need 24 of additional resources to protect and serve the 25 needs of children and families.

1           (7) Legal representation, including training re-
2           quirements for attorneys, guardians ad litem (GAL),
3           and court appointed special advocates (CASA), and 4           caseload restrictions, for children in dependency
5           court varies substantially by State and jurisdiction.

6           (8) With an estimated 30,000 gangs operating 7           within the United States, gang violence and drug 8           trafficking remain serious problems throughout the 9           country, causing injury and death to innocent vic-
10          tims, often children.

11          (9)(A) For example, on November 13, 2005, a
12          gang-related dispute broke out in San Bernardino,
13          California, and gunfire sprayed an apartment build-
14          ing, killing 11-year-old Mynisha Crenshaw and seri-
15          ously wounding her 14-year-old sister as they ate
16          Sunday dinner with their family.

17          (B) This tragic shooting symbolizes the struggle
18          that so many communities across the United States,
19          like San Bernardino, face in combating gang vio-
20          lence, and serves as a reminder of the nationwide
21          problem of protecting children from senseless vio-
22          lence.

23          (10) Coordination of Federal resources is need-24          ed to reduce gang violence through proven and 25          proactive prevention and intervention programs, in-

1 including programs that focus on keeping at-risk
2 youth in school and out of the criminal justice sys-
3 tem.

4 (11) According to a 2006 report by the Wash-
5 ington State Attorney General and the Department
6 of Justice (Office of Juvenile Justice and Delin-7 quency Prevention), in 76 percent of murders of an 8 abducted child, the murder is committed within 3
9 hours of the abduction.

10 (12) The same report found that in 89 percent
11 of missing child murders, the child died within 24
12 hours of disappearing.

13 (13) For example, on March 27, 2009, 8-year-
14 old Sandra Cantu of Tracy, California, was reported
15 missing by her mother. Following more than a week 16 of search and investigation, she was found dead, the 17 victim of kidnapping and murder.

18 (14) Federal, State, and local law enforcement
19 must have more tools to act quickly in investigating
20 reports of crimes against children, particularly child
21 abductions.
