

COMMEMORATING THE 99TH NATIONAL DAY OF THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA

HON. LORETTA SANCHEZ

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 28, 2010

Ms. LORETTA SANCHEZ of California. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the National Day of the Republic of China also known as Taiwan's National Day. October 10, 2010 marks the 99th anniversary of the establishment of the Republic of China and commemorates the 1911 Wuch'ang uprising ultimately leading to the collapse of the Qing dynasty. This day is also known as the "Double Ten" Day where 23 million people in the Republic of China along with Taiwanese from across the world celebrate their new-found democracy.

In recent months Taiwan has experienced a number of achievements, including the signing of an Economic Cooperation Framework Agreement with mainland China and participating as an observer in the World Health Organization's annual meetings in Geneva. Currently, Taiwan is requesting that the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) consider accepting Taiwan as an observer in the organization as Taiwan is a major international hub connecting Northeast Asia, Southeast Asia, and North America. Each year, over 1.54 million flights pass through the Taipei Flight Information Region (FIR) and it would be beneficial for ICAO. The safety and security of each passenger is of paramount importance to everyone concerned. Yet Taiwan is excluded from the activities of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) to consider opportunities where Taiwan can participate in the Multilateral "public key directory" (PKD) consultations.

As a fellow democratic ally of the United States, we must further support and encourage Taiwan's growing global participation. Again, I wish the people of Taiwan everywhere a blessed day of celebration and reflection.

HONORING THE GREATER HAZLETON AREA POLONAISE SOCIETY'S CELEBRATION OF POLISH AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH AND THE REVEREND LOUIS S. GARBACIK

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

Tuesday, September 28, 2010

Mr. KANJORSKI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to ask you and my esteemed colleagues in the House of Representatives to pay tribute to the Greater Hazleton Area Polonaise Society and its annual celebration of Polish American Heritage Month.

The Society will mark this year's Polish American Heritage Month with its 33rd annual Polish American Heritage Ball on October 17, 2010 in Hazleton, Pennsylvania.

The Greater Hazleton Area Polonaise Society's mission is to preserve the culture and customs brought to Northeastern Pennsylvania by their ancestors over a century ago.

Over the past 33 years, each October the Society has celebrated the history of their ancestors who traveled to the United States, and the lasting impacts they made throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania and its mining industry during the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

This year's event will also honor the late Reverend Louis S. Garbacik, who served as Chaplain of the Greater Hazleton Polonaise Society for over 23 years. He passed away on January 1, 2010.

Reverend Garbacik was born in West Hazleton in 1928.

He graduated from Hazle Township High School in 1946 before attending St. Mary's College in Michigan.

Following graduation from St. Mary's College in 1950, Reverend Garbacik enrolled at SS. Cyril and Methodius Seminary in Michigan. He was officially ordained to the priesthood at St. Gabriel's Church in Hazleton in 1954.

Over the past 50 years, Reverend Garbacik led congregations throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania.

He first was assigned to Gate of Heaven Church in Dallas before being assigned to Maternity of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Wilkes-Barre.

In 1977, Reverend Garbacik was named pastor of Holy Child Parish in Nanticoke, Pennsylvania, and in 1983 he also became administrator of Ascension Church in Mocanaqua, Pennsylvania.

From 1986 through his retirement in 2006, Reverend Garbacik was pastor of St. Stanislaus Roman Catholic Church in Hazleton. In 2006 he was appointed pastor emeritus.

Madam Speaker, please join me in honoring the Greater Hazleton Area Polonaise Society and its celebration of Polish American Heritage Month. For over 30 years, the Society has worked to preserve and promote the rich Polish American history in Northeastern Pennsylvania, and this year they will pay special tribute to one of the Society's most dedicated leaders.

HONORING THE LIFE OF COMMAND SERGEANT MAJOR WAYNE A. FAUSZ

HON. GEOFF DAVIS

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 28, 2010

Mr. DAVIS of Kentucky. Madam Speaker, today I pay tribute to Command Sergeant Major Wayne A. Fausz, of Florence, Kentucky, who lost his life on August 10, 2010, in an automobile accident in North Carolina.

He was the Command Sergeant Major of the 1st Attack Reconnaissance Battalion, 82nd Combat Aviation Brigade, 82nd Airborne Division.

Command Sergeant Major Fausz is survived by his mother, Darlene Hinkle of Union, Kentucky and his father, David Fausz, Sr., of Independence, Kentucky.

In addition to being an outstanding father to his two children, Nathaniel and Autumn, he was a dedicated husband to his wife, Natasha.

Command Sergeant Major Fausz was deployed twice to Iraq and once to Saudi Arabia.

His military awards and decorations include the Legion of Merit and Bronze Star Medal.

Today, as we celebrate the life and accomplishments of this exceptional Kentuckian, my thoughts and prayers are with Command Sergeant Major Wayne A. Fausz's family and friends.

We are all deeply indebted to Command Sergeant Major Wayne A. Fausz for his service and his sacrifice.

HONORING DR. DENNIS E. MURRAY

HON. BILL SHUSTER

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 28, 2010

Mr. SHUSTER. Madam Speaker, today I rise to recognize the work of Dr. Dennis E. Murray and the positive impact he's had on education as Superintendent of the Altoona Area School District in Altoona, Pennsylvania for the last 25 years.

At a time in our country when many public school systems have been under attack for not making the grade, Altoona has experienced steady growth and achieved tremendous accomplishments under Dr. Murray's effective leadership.

Recently, U.S. News and World Report named Altoona Area High School as one of America's best high schools.

Dr. Murray is an innovator who has challenged his district to be on the cutting edge of technology and educational programs. He is also a pragmatist who's helped modernize its buildings and facilities efficiently for the district's taxpayers.

Most important, Dr. Murray has never forgotten his roots in education that began 47 years ago as a classroom teacher. His emphasis on hiring excellent teachers and providing students with the necessary tools for a solid education means that Altoona's graduates are among the best prepared for the future in our great Nation.

Dr. Murray will be honored on October 6, 2010 by the Altoona Kiwanis Club as its Distinguished Citizen of the Year. I congratulate him on this recognition and I ask to place his long list of accomplishments into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD. I would like to thank him for his continued stellar service to the local Altoona area community.

DR. MURRAY'S LIST OF ACCOMPLISHMENTS FOR THE RECORD:

Dr. Murray received a B.S. in education from Slippery Rock University in 1963 and an M. Ed. in educational administration from Duquesne University in 1965. He earned his Doctor of Education degree in elementary education and educational psychology from Penn State in 1973.

He has been honored with many prestigious awards including the Educational Leadership Award from Phi Delta Kappa; the Distinguished Educator Award from the Tri-State Study Council of the University of Pittsburgh; the Excellence in Education Award from the Penn State University College of Education; the Exemplary and Innovative Educational Leadership and Management Award from the Pennsylvania Department of Education; the Excellence in Administration Award from the Pennsylvania School Study Council; the Blair Bedford Central Labor Council AFL-CIO Person of the Year Award; and an honorary doctorate from St. Francis University in 2008.
