□ 1757

Messrs. POE of Texas, TIAHRT, ISSA, and WALDEN changed their vote from "aye" to "no."

Messrs. MILLER of Florida, GRIFITH and ROYCE changed their vote from "no" to "aye."

So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The title was amended so as to read: "A bill to amend title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930 to clarify that countervailing duties may be imposed to address subsidies relating to a fundamentally undervalued currency of any foreign country."

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

RARE EARTHS AND CRITICAL MATERIALS REVITALIZATION ACT OF 2010

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Ms. JACKSON LEE of Texas). The unfinished business is the vote on the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 6160) to develop a rare earth materials program, to amend the National Materials and Minerals Policy, Research and Development Act of 1980, and for other purposes, as amended, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. GORDON) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, as amended.

This is a 5-minute vote. The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 325, nays 98, not voting 9, as follows:
