5       of 2011”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

7       (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

8               (1) the total public debt as of November 17,
9       2011, is over $15 trillion and that every American’s
10      share is $47,080;

1           (2) www.pay.gov, launched in October 2000, is 2       a secure Government-wide collection portal, which is 3       Web-based and allows customers to access their ac-
4       counts from any computer with Internet access;

5           (3) www.pay.gov satisfies agencies and con-
6       sumers demands for electronic alternatives by pro-
7       viding the ability to complete forms, make payments,
8       and submit queries 24 hours a day electronically;

9           (4) citizens who wish to make a general dona-
10      tion to the United States Government may send con-11      tributions to a specific account called “Gifts to the 12      United States”, an account established in 1843 to 13      accept gifts, such as bequests, from individuals wish-
14      ing to express their patriotism to the United States;

15          (5) citizens who wish to make a general dona-
16      tion to a specific account called “Gifts to Reduce the 17      Public Debt of the United States” may use 18      TreasuryDirect, a section of www.pay.gov and 19      Treasury Direct®;

20          (6) gifts to reduce the public debt are accepted
21      under the provisions of section 3113 of title 31,
22      United States Code, which authorizes the Secretary
23      of the Treasury to accept conditional gifts to the 24      United States for the purpose of reducing the public
25      debt;

1           (7) gifts to reduce the public debt are voluntary
2       donations, and no goods, services, or other consider-
3       ations are provided to the donors, including, but not 4       limited to, benefits on future tax liability; and

5           (8) gifts to reduce the public debt do not super-
6       sede the constitutional powers nor the responsibility
7       of Congress to “pay the debts”, as described in arti-
8       cle I, section 8 of the Constitution of the United 9       States.

10       (b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to pub-
11       lically recognize the patriotism of certain individuals and
