A BILL

To express the sense of the Congress that the United States should not adopt any treaty that poses a threat to national sovereignty or abridges any rights guaranteed by the United States Constitution, such as the right to keep and bear arms, and to withhold funding from the United Nations unless the President certifies that the United Nations has not taken action to restrict, attempt to restrict, or otherwise adversely infringe upon the rights of individuals in the United States to keep and bear arms, or abridge any of the other constitutionally protected rights of citizens of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the "Second Amendment5 Protection Act of 2011".

6 SEC. 2. SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

8 (1) it is the constitutional power of Congress to 9 determine United States foreign policy through the 10 ratification of international treaties and adoption of 11 laws;

(2) by prematurely signing treaties and executive agreements, Presidents of the United States have opened the door for international organizations to unilaterally regulate the lives of citizens of the United States;

17 (3) these international agreements, laws, and 18 regulations are being applied domestically in the 19 United States through the Supremacy Clause, which 20 states, "This Constitution, and the Laws of the 21 United States which shall be made in Pursuance 22 thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be 23 made, under the Authority of the United States, 24 shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the •HR 3594 IH

Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding";

4 (4) the Supremacy Clause is useful to supersede
5 conflicting Federal and State laws;

6 (5) international and transnational organiza-7 tions force their rules on people of the United States 8 through conventions, multilateral agreements, and 9 nonratified treaties, such as agreements that affect 10 the private ownership of firearms by law-abiding citi-11 zens; and

12 (6) United States sovereignty is risked by do-13 mestic legal applicability of international treaties 14 and executive agreements that have not been voted 15 on and congressionally adopted through formal proc-16 esses which pose a threat to national sovereignty 17 and the liberty of the people of the United States, 18 including fundamental rights guaranteed under the 19 United States Constitution, such as the right to 20 keep and bear arms.

(b) SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.—That it is the sense of the Congress that the United States should not adopt any treaty that poses a threat to national sovereignty or abridges the rights guaranteed by the United States Constitution, such as the right to keep and bear arms, and should cease the provision of financial support to any enti ty that does so.

3 SEC. 3. CONDITIONAL PROHIBITION ON UNITED NATIONS 4 FUNDING.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the United States may not provide any funding to the United Nations for a fiscal year unless, before the last day of the preceding fiscal year, the President makes the certification described in subsection (b).

10 (b) CERTIFICATION.—The certification described in this subsection is a certification submitted to the Congress 11 by the President, that states that the United Nations has 12 13 not taken action to restrict, attempt to restrict, or otherwise adversely infringe on the rights of individuals in the 14 15 United States to possess a firearm or ammunition, including by imposing burdens on international commerce, or 16 abridge any of the other constitutionally protected rights 17 of citizens of the United States. 18
