15               lands, the Federated States of Micronesia,
16               and the Republic of Palau.

17           (2) CONSUMER PROTECTIONS.—Notwith-
18           standing any other provision of law, an institution of 19           higher education is not eligible to participate in a
20           Federal financial assistance program with respect to 21           any program of postsecondary education or training,
22           including a degree or certificate program, that is de-
23           signed to prepare students for entry into a recog-
24           nized occupation or profession that requires licensing
25           or other established requirements as a pre-condition

1 for entry into such occupation or profession, un-
2 less—

3 (A) the successful completion of the pro-
4 gram fully qualifies a student, in the State in 5 which the institution offering the program is lo-
6 cated (and in any State in which the institution
7 indicates, through advertising or marketing ac-
8 tivities or direct contact with potential students, 9 that a student will be prepared to work in the 10 occupation or profession after successfully com-
11 pleting the program), to—

12 (i) take any examination required for 13 entry into the recognized occupation or 14 profession in the State, including satisfying
15 all State or professionally mandated pro-
16 grammatic and specialized accreditation re-
17 quirements, if any; and

18 (ii) be certified or licensed or meet
19 any other academically related pre-condi-
20 tions that are required for entry into the 21 recognized occupation or profession in the 22 State;

23 (B) the institution offering the program
24 provides timely placement for all of the aca-
25 demically related pre-licensure requirements for

1 entry into the recognized occupation or profes-
2 sion in the State, such as clinical placements,
3 internships, or apprenticeships;

4 (C) in the case of State licensing or profes-
5 sionally mandated requirements for entry into 6 the recognized occupation or profession in the 7 State in which the institution offering the pro-
8 gram is located (and in any State in which the 9 institution indicates, through advertising or 10 marketing activities or direct contact with po-
11 tential students, that a student will be prepared 12 to work in the occupation or profession after 13 successfully completing the program) that re-
14 quire specialized accreditation—

15 (i) the program meets that require-
16 ment for specialized accreditation through 17 its accreditation or pre-accreditation by an 18 accrediting agency or association recog-
19 nized by the Secretary of Education as a
20 reliable authority as to the quality or train-
21 ing offered by the institution in that pro-
22 gram; and

23 (ii) if the program is in a pre-accred-
24 ited, probation, or show cause status by an 25 accrediting agency or association described

1 in clause (i), and the requirement for spe-
2 cialized accreditation is for full accredita-
3 tion, the institution—

4 (I) establishes, to the satisfaction
5 of the Secretary of Education, that 6 each student who enrolls before the 7 program is fully accredited attests of 8 being advised that the program is in 9 a pre-accredited, probation, or show
10 cause status and of being informed of 11 the effect on the student's eligibility
12 for assistance under this title and on 13 the student's ability to satisfy State
14 or professionally mandated require-
15 ments for entry into the recognized
16 occupation or profession if full accred-
17 itation is delayed, denied, terminated,
18 or withdrawn; and

19 (II) publicly and prominently dis-
20 closes in any advertising, marketing,
21 or recruitment materials and activities
22 for the institution, the institution's
23 pre-accredited, probation, or show
24 cause status and the implications of

1                   such status for prospective students;

2                   and

3                   (D) the institution—

4                   (i) discloses on the application to en-
5                   roll in the institution that its program does
6                   not necessarily satisfy out-of-State require-7                   ments, if applicable; and

8                   (ii) upon receipt of an application to 9                   enroll in the institution, notifies the stu-
10                  dent, prior to enrollment, if the program in 11                  which the student intends to enroll does 12                  not satisfy the requirements of the State in 13                  which the student is a resident, if applica-
14                  ble.

15                  (b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—This section shall be effec-
16                  tive 6 months after the date of enactment of this Act.
