1ST SESSION

H. RES. 144

Acknowledging the 42nd anniversary of the election of Shirley Anita St. Hill Chisholm, the first African-American woman in Congress.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 3, 2011

Ms. LEE of California (for herself, Ms. MOORE, Ms. CLARKE of New York, Ms. JACKSON LEE of Texas, Mrs. CHRISTENSEN, Mr. MEEKS, Ms. BROWN of Florida, Ms. EDWARDS, Mr. SCOTT of Virginia, Mr. TOWNS, Mr. RANGEL, Ms. RICHARDSON, Mr. RUSH, Mr. LEWIS of Georgia, Mr. HASTINGS of Florida, Mr. MORAN, Mr. BOSWELL, Ms. SCHAKOWSKY, Mr. STARK, Ms. BORDALLO, Mr. SERRANO, Mr. HINCHEY, and Ms. WOOLSEY) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on House Administration

RESOLUTION

Acknowledging the 42nd anniversary of the election of Shirley Anita St. Hill Chisholm, the first African-American woman in Congress.

Whereas January 2011 marks the 42nd anniversary of the first African-American woman sworn into Congress, Shirley Anita St. Hill Chisholm;

Whereas when she was elected to Congress in 1968 to serve in New York's 12th Congressional District, Congresswoman Chisholm surpassed the twin obstacles of racism and sexism to win the election;

Whereas, Congresswoman Chisholm, who considered herself the “people’s politician”, dutifully served Congress from 1969 to 1983 with a loud, clear voice that lived up to her slogan of being “unbought and unbossed”;

Whereas Congresswoman Chisholm challenged political convention when she boldly disputed the House of Representative’s seniority system after being placed on the Committee on Agriculture, a selection that would do little to benefit her urban district;

Whereas she demanded reassignment and was placed on the Committee on Veterans’ Affairs, a better fit for her district;

Whereas after serving on the Committee on Education and Labor for several years, Congresswoman Chisholm accepted a prestigious seat on the Committee on Rules, becoming the first African-American woman and second woman ever to serve on the powerful panel;

Whereas Congresswoman Chisholm was a trailblazer who fought tirelessly to end the draft and the Vietnam war;

Whereas she was a fierce defender of Federal assistance for education and served as a strong voice in support of the national school lunch bill;

Whereas, in 1972, “Fighting Shirley”, her defining slogan, showed the same tenacity that allowed her to defy the odds in 1968 and declared her candidacy for Democratic nomination for the President, becoming the first African-American to run for a major-party presidential nomination;

Whereas although Congresswoman Chisholm was not elected as the Democratic candidate, her campaign “Chisholm for President” inspired people in the United States from all walks of life to get politically active;

Whereas Congresswoman Chisholm knew that people who had been shut out of the political process in the United States needed a voice and an opportunity to participate so she galvanized people around the country to get involved;

Whereas as a founding member of the Congressional Black Caucus, Congresswoman Chisholm witnessed African-American representation in the Congress grow and welcomed other African-American Congresswomen;

Whereas today, 15 African-American Congresswomen now follow the path paved for them by Congresswoman Chisholm; and

Whereas although Congresswoman Chisholm is no longer serving in Congress, she left an indelible legacy not just as an African-American female legislator, but as a passionate and capable lawmaker dedicated to improving education, housing, and health care: Now, therefore, be it
