16 means a rule, as that term is defined in section
17 551(4) of title 5, United States Code, that is issued 18 by an agency.

19 SEC. 4. RESPONSIBILITIES OF FEDERAL AGENCIES.

20 (a) PREPARATION FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF PLAIN
21 WRITING REQUIREMENTS FOR REGULATIONS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 9 months after the date of enactment of this Act, the head of each agency shall—

1	(A) designate a senior official within the
2	agency to oversee the implementation of this
3	Act by the agency;
4	(B) ensure that the obligation of the agen-
5	cy to use plain writing in no way diminishes the
6	ability of the agency to perform scientific anal-
7	yses or technical analyses, or disclose scientific
8	data or technical data or any other findings,
9	that are required to be performed or disclosed
10	under chapter 5 of title 5, United States Code,
11	or any other provision of law;
12	(C) communicate the requirements of this
13	Act to the employees of the agency;
14	(D) train employees of the agency to write
15	regulations using plain writing;
16	(E) establish a process for overseeing the
17	ongoing compliance of the agency with the re-
18	quirements of this Act; and
19	(F) designate an employee of the agency to 20	serve as a point of contact to receive and re-
21	spond to public input on—
22	(i) the implementation of this Act by 23	the agency; and
24	(ii) the agency reports required under
25	section 6.

3

(2) INDIVIDUALS DESIGNATED.—The individual designated under subparagraph (A) or (F) of para graph (1) may be the same individual designated to carry out similar functions under the Plain Writing Act of 2010 (5 U.S.C. 301 note).

6 (b) REQUIREMENT TO USE PLAIN WRITING IN NEW 7 AND REVISED REGULATIONS.—Not later than 12 months 8 after the date of enactment of this Act, each agency shall 9 use plain writing in accordance with the guidance issued 10 by the Director under the Plain Writing Act of 2010 (5 11 U.S.C. 301 note) in each proposed or final regulation 12 issued or substantially revised by the agency.

(c) CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE.—For each proposed or final regulation issued by an agency, the head of the agency shall certify to the Director that the agency head has read the proposed or final rule and that the rulemaking documents use plain writing.

18 (d) EXEMPTION FROM CERTAIN INFORMATION COL-LECTION PROVISIONS.—An agency action to collect infor-19 20mation from the public about a regulation is exempt from 21 the information collection provisions of sections 3506(c)22 and 3507 of title 44, United States Code, if the agency 23 head certifies that the sole reason for the information col-24 lection is to improve the clarity of the regulation in accordance with this Act. 25

1 SEC. 5. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE OF 2 FICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET.

3 (a) GUIDANCE.—Not later than 6 months after the date of enactment of this Act, the Director shall develop 4 5 and issue guidance on implementing the requirements of this Act that ensures that the head of each agency under-6 7 stands that the obligation of the agency to use plain writ-8 ing does not in any way diminish the ability of the agency 9 to perform scientific analyses or technical analyses, or dis-10 close scientific data or technical data or any other findings, that are required to be performed or disclosed by 11 chapter 5 of title 5, United States Code, or any other pro-12 13 vision of law. The Director may designate a lead agency, and may use interagency working groups to assist in devel-14 oping and issuing the guidance. 15

(b) PUBLICATION OF CERTIFICATIONS.—The Director shall publish each certification required under section 4(c) on the official website of the Office of Management and Budget.

20 SEC. 6. REPORTS.

(a) INITIAL REPORT.—Not later than 9 months after the date of enactment of this Act, the head of each agency shall publish on the plain writing section of the website of the agency created under the Plain Writing Act of 2010 (5 U.S.C. 301 note) a report that describes the agency plan for compliance with the requirements of this Act.

(b) ANNUAL COMPLIANCE REPORT.—Not later than 18 months after the date of enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter, the head of each agency shall publish on the plain writing section of the website of the agency a report on the compliance of the agency with the requirements of this Act.

7 (c) GAO REPORT.—Not later than 18 months after 8 the date of enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter, 9 the Comptroller General of the United States shall submit 10 a report to the Committee on Homeland Security and Gov11 ernmental Affairs of the Senate and the Committee on 12 Oversight and Government Reform of the House of Rep13 resentatives that—

- (1) evaluates the extent to which regulations use plain writing, by conducting a survey of different intended audiences for a representative sample of major regulations that measures—
- 18 (A) the level of comprehension of each re-19 spondent for each regulation; and

(B) the satisfaction of each respondent with the plain writing used in each regulation, focusing on whether the regulation uses writing that is clear, concise, well-organized, and follows other best practices appropriate to the

1	subject or field and intended audience of the
2	regulation;
3	(2) assesses the extent to which plain writing
4	helped increase the level of public participation in
5	the rulemaking process; and
6	(3) provides recommendations to—
7	(A) improve compliance with the require-
8	ments of this Act; and
9	(B) better use plain writing to enhance 10	public understanding of regulations and in-
11	crease public participation in the rulemaking
12	process.
13	SEC. 7. JUDICIAL REVIEW AND ENFORCEABILITY.
14	(a) JUDICIAL REVIEW.—There shall be no judicial re-
15	view of compliance or noncompliance with any provision
16	of this Act.
17	(b) ENFORCEABILITY.—No provision of this Act may
18	be construed to create any right or benefit, substantive
19	or procedural, enforceable by any administrative or judi-
20	cial action.
