S. RES. 127

Designating April 2011 as “National Child Abuse Prevention Month”.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

APRIL 4, 2011

Ms. COLLINS (for herself, Mr. KERRY, and Mr. REID) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

APRIL 14, 2011

Committee discharged; considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

Designating April 2011 as “National Child Abuse Prevention Month”.

Whereas in 2009, approximately 702,000 children were determined to be victims of abuse or neglect;

Whereas in 2009, an estimated 1,770 children died as a result of abuse or neglect;

Whereas in 2009, an estimated 80.8 percent of the children who died due to abuse or neglect were under the age of 4;

Whereas in 2009, of the children under the age of 4 who died due to abuse or neglect, 46.2 percent were under the age of 1;

Whereas abused or neglected children have a higher risk for developing health problems in adulthood, including alcoholism, depression, drug abuse, eating disorders, obesity, suicide, and certain chronic diseases;

Whereas a National Institute of Justice study indicated that abused or neglected children—

(1) are 11 times more likely to be arrested for criminal behavior as juveniles; and

(2) are 2.7 times more likely to be arrested for violent and criminal behavior as adults;

Whereas an estimated $\frac{1}{3}$ of abused or neglected children grow up to abuse or neglect their own children;

Whereas providing community-based services to families impacted by child abuse or neglect may be far less costly than—

(1) the emotional and physical damage inflicted on children who have been abused or neglected;

(2) providing other services to abused or neglected children, including child protective, law enforcement, court, foster care, or health care services; or

(3) providing treatment to adults recovering from child abuse; and

Whereas child abuse and neglect have long-term economic and societal costs: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate—

2 (1) designates April 2011 as “National Child
3 Abuse Prevention Month”;

4 (2) recognizes and applauds the national and
5 community organizations that work to promote
6 awareness about child abuse and neglect, including

1 by identifying risk factors and developing prevention
2 strategies;

3 (3) supports the proclamation issued by Presi-
4 dent Obama declaring April 2011 to be “National 5 Child Abuse Prevention Month”; and

6 (4) should increase public awareness of preven-
7 tion programs relating to child abuse and neglect,
8 and continue to work with States to reduce the inci-
9 dence of child abuse and neglect in the United 10 States.
