

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

Article I, Section 8, of the United States Constitution states that Congress shall have the power “To declare War,” “To raise and support Armies,” “To provide and maintain a Navy,” and “To make Rules for the Government and Regulation of the land and naval Forces.” Although the Constitution’s Article II, Section 2 designates the President as “Commander in Chief,” that title does not empower the President to order congressionally unauthorized force when the United States has not been attacked or is not in imminent danger of attack. This bill reclaims Congress’s core constitutional prerogative to control when offensive military force is used.
