This bill is enacted pursuant to Article I, Section 8, Clause 3 of the Constitution of the United States and Article I, Section 8, Clause 18 of the Constitution of the United States.

By Ms. NORTON:
H.R. 3469.
Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:
Article I, Section 8, Clause 18 (Necessary and Proper)
The Congress shall have Power  To make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into Execution the foregoing Powers, and all other Powers vested by the Constitution in the Government of the United States, or in any Department or Officer thereof.

By Mr. HARPER:
H.R. 3463.
Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:
Article I, Section 4 of the U.S. Constitution granting Congress the authority to make laws governing the time, place, and manner of holding Federal elections.

Additionally, Amendment XVI to the United States Constitution also provides that Congress shall have the power to provide financial support to candidates seeking public office. The general repeal of the presidential election fund is consistent with the powers that are reserved to the States and to the people as expressed in Amendment X to the United States Constitution.

Further, Article I, Section 8 defines the scope and powers of Congress and does not include this concept of taxation in furtherance of funding campaigns within the delegated powers.
